

It's in style Berg's have it. If Berg's have it, it's in style.

Many well dressed women often refuse to meekly follow Fashion and wear 'the latest.' They wisely choose to wear the style that most becomes them. That's why suits are selling well right now. There is no 'set' style this season, but many distinct types that meet individual requirements.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Former Desk Sergeant William Corrigan Hears Death's Call.

GALLANT FIGHT FOR HIS LIFE

Well Known and Plucky Magic City Officer Unable Longer to Resist Disease that Gradually Taxed Vitality.

William Corrigan, for several years desk sergeant of the South Omaha police force, died last night at 10:55 o'clock at his home, 44 North Twenty-first street, of cancer, after putting up a long fight against the disease. He was taken seriously ill last April, when physicians told him for the first time there was no hope of recovery. Believing it not wise to give up, Corrigan went at once to Rochester, Minn., where he was operated on by Dr. Mayo, who gave practically no assurance of his ultimate recovery. Sergeant Corrigan made a remarkably successful uphill fight during his life of thirty-six years. He was injured in early years by a horse falling upon him and then lost one leg and one arm. By strenuous endeavors, he advanced from one position to another until he accumulated pieces of property. For a number of years he was a member of the local police force. He leaves a widow and two children. Funeral announcements will be made later.

Funeral of Mary O'Donnell.

The funeral of Mary E. O'Donnell, who died yesterday at her daughter's home, Twenty-third and G streets, will be held Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Arthur Moran, another daughter, in Halston on Saturday morning. Funeral services will be held in St. Agnes' church at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Epilior Salimans died yesterday morning at the South Omaha hospital. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon from the Bohemian National hall to Laurel Hill cemetery.

More Pay for Teachers?

More pay for the school teachers will be the problem to be faced this evening by the school board when a special meeting will be held to discuss the demands of the school teachers who want pay for nine and one-half months' school work. This year the board determined on a nine-month school year. This, however, will mean a curtailment in the annual pay of the school teachers who at best have to spend nearly three months without salary. At present the grade teachers receive salaries ranging from $60 per annum to a little over $90 for a year of nine and one-half months of school work. Sometime ago the school principals of the city met and discussed the problem. A committee of teachers were invited to collaborate with the principals and the result was the formation of a committee which will take the matter up with the board.

Briggs to Make Campaign.

Chief of Police John Briggs in order not to complicate the work of his campaign will seek a furlough from the South Omaha fire and police board in order to devote his full time to making votes. He will take his fifteen days' annual vacation and immediately after will ask for a month's leave without pay. Briggs said yesterday: "It is a hardship on me to have to face problems daily which often times means making an enemy. I mean to do my duty, while I carry my star no matter how it affects my candidacy for sheriff. But I think on the whole it will be better if the board will accord me a month's leave without pay." Briggs is receiving much encouragement in his campaign for sheriff. He is making a clean campaign and says he does not propose to sling any mud. "The voters will decide whether they wish me or my opponent, the present sheriff. As they decided I am satisfied," said Briggs yesterday.

Seymour Lake Festival.

Seymour Lake Country club closes tonight with a big harvest festival. The committees of the club have worked hard to prepare a program that will delight the membership and their guests. Mysterious hints of things that are to appear at the show have been current for some days.

Moran-Frisk.

The marriage of Miss Louise Frisk, daughter of W. Frisk, and Joseph Moran, Jr., was celebrated at the home of the bride yesterday. Rev. Robert L. Wheeler conducted the ceremony. Miss Mary Frisk, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and John Moran, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride was dressed in a gown of pale blue broadened satin. She wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses.

After the ceremony a dinner was served to the guests. The young couple left on their honeymoon trip to Chicago yesterday afternoon. They will be at home in Omaha on October 2.

Harvest Festival.

Under the leadership of Master Workman J. M. White and Secretary Bert Wilcox the harvest home festival of the Ancient Order of United Workmen opened last night at the temple, Twenty-fifth and M streets. The program was planned and arranged by the officers, headed by Smith and Wilcox. The hope is that the proceeds of the festival will accumulate enough money to pay off the final debt on the temple, which is one of the finest in the Order of Workmen in Nebraska.

Have Hops a-Plenty.

Among the wise men who have long foreseen European troubles and their effects upon American markets was Martin Jetter, head of the Jetter Brewing company, and Brewmaster Fred Drew of the same plant. Months ago Jetter and Drew loaded their storerooms with hops and foreign-grown products necessary to the brewing of beer. When the war broke out the importation of these articles stopped. Jetter had plenty, but there were other brewers and brewmasters who had not been as provident. Hence it was no surprise to Jetter and Drew a week ago when smooth-tongued agents offered them $9 cents a pound for hops which cost 50 cents some months ago. Naturally, both Jetter and Drew declined the offer.

Anti to Meet.

The anti-suffragists have planned a big meeting for South Omaha Saturday evening at McCann's hall, Twenty-fourth and O streets. The principal address will be made by Miss Lucy Price of Cleveland, O., who is one of the ablest speakers on the staff of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage. Miss Marjorie Dorman, secretary of the Wage-Earners' league of New York, will also address the audience from the viewpoint of the wage-earner and the business woman; and Mrs. J. W. Crumacker will close the meeting with a few remarks concerning the progress of the anti-suffrage campaign in Nebraska.

They are handsome, you will say so too, don't be bashful. Come and see these Halmacaan coats at Flyn's. Never a prettier line of men's and youths' suits. Never priced lower. John Flynn & Co. Look to us for good things for the whole family. Bring in the youngsters for school and dress clothes. We'll surprise you with good values. John Flynn & Co.

Magie City Goes.

The Columbian club will give a dance this evening at its club rooms at Thirty-sixth and R streets.

Office space for rent in Bee office, 2318 N. Street. Terms reasonable. Well known location. Tel. South 27.

A report issued yesterday at the stock yards says that the market in horses is very slow this year. Very few horses are being handled this year by local horse dealers in comparison with the big business of former years.

Throat and Lung Trouble

Will cease to trouble you be the timely use of Dr. King's New Discovery. Sure relief. 50 cents and $1.00. All druggists—Advertisement.
