BRAVES WIN NATIONAL FLAG

Boston Can Lose All Remaining Games and Still Finish First.

RACE A MOST REMARKABLE ONE

Tailenders and Joke of Base Ball in Middle of Season Now Champions of the League.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Boston club is the pennant winner of the National League for 1914. Boston defeated Chicago in Boston today and when the New York Giants lost to Pittsburgh in this city by a score of 5 to 2, Boston became winner of the pennant.

With a nine game lead Boston could lose all its remaining games and still finish first in the race.

Victory Remarkable. BOSTON, Sept. 29.—Boston's victory was a remarkable one. A tail-end team in mid-season, the Braves advanced steadily from July 14 to September 2.

Manager Stallings' success has been aided with a team many members of which had been discarded by other major league clubs. The greatest single factor in the building of the pennant-winning organization, however, probably was the acquisition of Johnny Evers, manager last year of the Chicago Cubs.

Wants One-Day Stands. Manager Stallings will go to Philadelphia for the meeting of the National commission tomorrow prepared to urge the playing of the world's series in one-day stands. This was the word that he gave to a friend today.

Anna Bradford Clips Three-Fourths Second From Pacing Record

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 29.—Anna Bradford, in the final heat of the American Horse Breeders' futurity, which was the last feature of today's Grand Circuit racing program, lowered the 3-year-old pacing record to 2:09. A week ago she put the mark at 2:04. Then Squamum was a good contender. Today the black filly raced far in front, winning the first heat in slow time. There was no wind to act as a barrier during the second heat, in which the time by quarters was as follows: 0:29, 1:04, 1:30, 2:09.

Earlier in the afternoon Lord Dewey failed in an attempt to lower his record to 2:04. These trotted the first half in 0:54 and was at the three-quarters in 1:30. The trip through the stretch was so trying that a mile in 2:02% resulted.

Peter Stevens, prohibitive and winning favorite in the Arch City pacing stake, equalled his record, 2:07, when driven out in the third heat. He, like Lord Dewey, faltered on the home stretch. He paced the first half in 1:00, and the three-quarters in 1:30. The Assessor won the 2½ mile pace after Dingola took the first heat. Betting on this race was heavy, with Anna Hal and Auto-Zombro in greatest favor. The winner was third choice. Rhythm was favorite over eleven other 2½ mile trotters and won in straight heats, leading all the time.

Several new men will meet in a stalling championship pacing match tomorrow. It was announced today that the suspension of the Philadelphia-owned pacer, R. H. Breit, had been lifted, but that the ban on the driver, N. Grady, will remain for the rest of the season.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—George Weidenfeld of Omaha, bookkeeper in the office of the State Board of Control, has received a letter from his sister, Kathinka, written at Stockholm, who tells her experience in getting there from France, where she was a private tutor.

On August 1 we were suddenly apprised that on that day the last long distance express trains would depart. For on the day following complete mobilization would be in full swing. I at once concluded to leave. I packed up my few belongings, and, without having eaten and without provisions of any kind, I made my way to the station after taking a taxi.

The train was overfull and so long that one locomotive had difficulty in pulling it. At about 1:30 a. m. I arrived in Paris, famished and exhausted, where I at once furnished all communication with Germany was cut off. The hack driver who was to drive me to the hotel demanded ten francs in advance and at the hotel I was compelled to pay ten francs for a place to sleep in the garret, with breakfast in the morning.
