

War Photos taken right on the scene of action

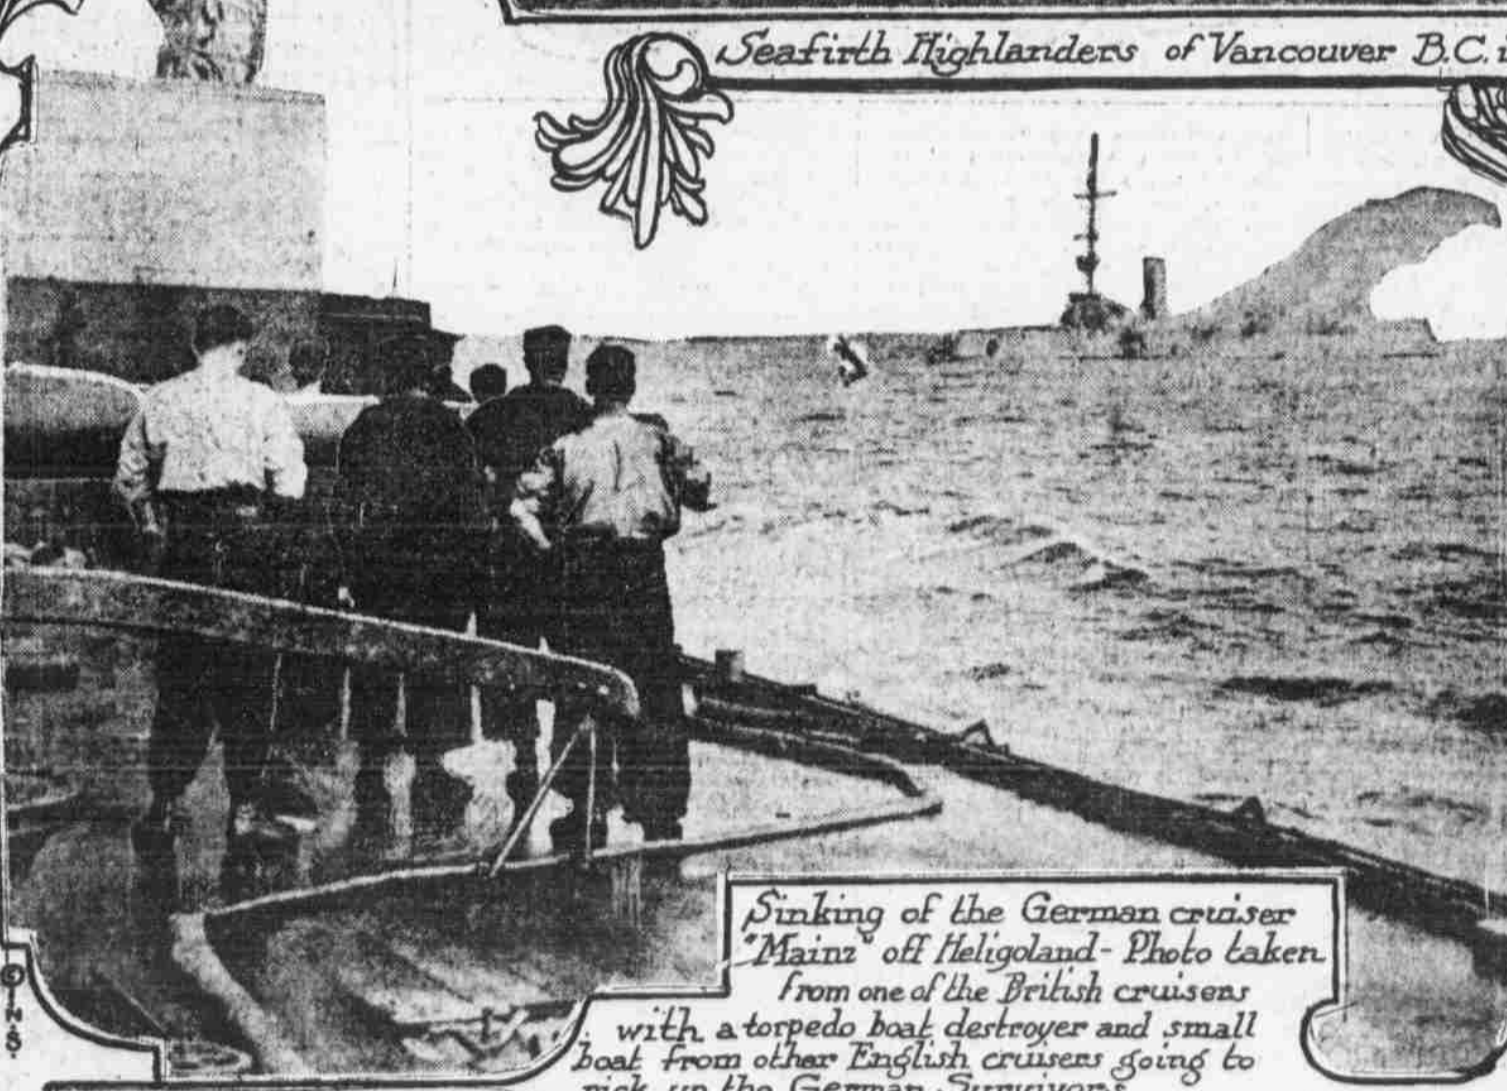

Belgian Aviators who harassed the Germans on the march into France

Searchlights on the Hyde Park corner which each night sweep the sky in quest of German Zeppelins over London.

Seafirth Highlanders of Vancouver B.C. in review ready to go to England.

Sinking of the German cruiser Mainz off Heligoland - Photo taken from one of the British cruisers with a torpedo boat destroyer and small boat from other English cruisers going to pick up the German survivors

French Cavalry crossing one of the pontoon bridges built across the River Marne in less than three hours to facilitate pursuit of the enemy

Canadian Red Cross in the Field