Popular Innovation.
 Each season one finds attractive innovations in the form of fads and gowns. The first expression of the newer fancies is usually shown at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball. The most popular novelty this year at the ball was the "arm" bouquet.

Formerly an arm bouquet meant an armful of long-stemmed flowers, or huge bouquet of blossoms. The new "arm" bouquet is made a little smaller than the corsage affair of the last few seasons, and is tied on the left arm just below the shoulder. The orchid lends itself perhaps the best of any of the flowers for the new fad. It is more dainty and more graceful than any other blossom.

Among those wearing the orchids on the left arm were Mrs. Louis C. Nash, Mrs. Glenn C. Wharton, Mrs. C. Y. Smith, Mrs. Charles T. Stewart of Council Bluffs and the Misses Mamie and Hortense Spiesberger.

There were a number of arm bouquets of rosebuds and lilies of the valley, and one or two of violets, which were also effective.

The new way of wearing orchids serves well in several ways. This blossom is so fragile that when worn as a corsage bouquet it rarely survives the first dance without being broken or crushed, but when worn on the arm it remains beautifully fresh throughout the evening.

Miss McHenry of Denison, Ia., carried a beautiful bouquet of orchids with a lace trim.

Mrs. Henry T. Clarke of Lincoln, a former queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, wore with her costume of pink a large French pink rose on her left arm.

Miss McShane Wins Best Contest.
 Miss Margaret McShane is the winner of the Bee contest when the readers of The Bee were requested to send in the name of the young woman whom they thought would be queen.

According to the rules of the contest, the queen's family, the board of governors and their families, and also the queen's modiste, were barred from guessing.

The first correct vote was received from Miss Dorothy Judson, but she withdrew, as her father is a member of the board of governors, although he is not on the committee which chose the queen.

Miss McShane was the second received for Miss Hochstetler, and Mrs. C. R. Weller the third.

The second vote in was for Miss Louise Dinning, and others who received a large number of votes were Miss Harriet Smith and Miss Mary Burkley.

Others receiving votes were Marion Kuhn, Miss Lucille Bacon, Miss Eugenia Whitmore and Miss Helen Murphy.
