ATTENDANCE AND RECEIPTS

Attendance	35,550
Baseball	63,808.00
National commission's share	6,380.80
Players' share	24,334.32
Each club's share	11,485.44
Total receipts (three games)	$169,186.00
Philadelphia	1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4
Boston	0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 5

FENWAY PARK, BOSTON, Oct. 12.—In a thrilling finish of a twelve-inning struggle the Boston Braves, champions of the National league, defeated the Philadelphia Athletics by a score of 5 to 4.
The world's series games now stand: Boston, 2; Athletics, 6.
The struggle was nip and tuck from the first to the last inning and it was Catcher Gowdy's remarkable bat that carried the day for Boston.
He drove out a home run and two doubles, all of which split runs for Boston. Bush of the Athletics and Tyler of Boston pitched with honors fairly even.

Looks Like Mack's in Twelfth.
It looked like an Athletic victory when they scored two runs in the first half of the tenth inning, but Gowdy drove out a home run and a base on balls, a single by Evers and a sacrifice fly by Connelly tied the score. In the twelfth Gowdy doubled and Mann, running for him, scored, when Bush threw Moran's bat into left field.
The official attendance was 35,550; total receipts, $169,186; National commission's share, $6,380.80; players, $24,334.32; each club's share, $11,485.44.
A double-quick play by the famous Evers, Maranville, Schmidt route, broke up the Athletics' sixth inning. Collins singled down to third base and beat the throw to first. Baker pounded a grounder at Evers and Collins was doubled at second. Evers to Maranville and Baker was out. Maranville to Schmidt. Melanis hit weakly to Deal and was thrown out.
A two-base hit did not help Boston in the sixth. Whitted was thrown out, Bush to Melanis, and Schmidt lifted a fly which Oldring gathered in. Deal then slammed the ball into the favorite left field bleachers for two bases. He got no farther, as Maranville hit a fly straight up in the air, which Schang got in his mitt in front of the pitcher's box.

Tyler Works Fast.
Tyler made short work of the White Sox bats in his seventh and eighth innings. Deal; Barry was thrown out, Tyler (Continued on Page Four, Column One).

JUVENILE WAR SPORT IN JAPAN

German Staff Gives Infantry Credit for Capture of Antwerp

Cholera is Spreading Rapidly to the Remotest Districts of Austria

VENICE, Oct. 12.—(Via Paris.)—The cholera is spreading rapidly to the remotest district of Austria. A case has been discovered at Feldkirch, in the province of Vorarlberg, near the Swiss frontier. The Austrian troops in Galicia are being vaccinated against the disease. The cold weather has caught the Austrian soldiers in Galicia unprepared and the authorities are making most urgent appeals to the public to contribute warm clothing.
Owing to the increase in the price of flour the Vienna bakers' association has announced that its members will make only big loaves of the so-called war bread and that they will sell only for cash. The consumption of horse flesh in Vienna is increasing rapidly. As many as 200 of the animals have been brought into the market in one day.

GERMANS REPORT DECISIVE BATTLE

French Cavalry Division Completely Routed Saturday Afternoon and Another Badly Defeated.
FIGHTING BEGAN A WEEK AGO
Report of Victory for Czar's Forces at Augustova Is Called an Invention by the Berlin War Office.
LONDON, Oct. 12.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Berlin, via Amsterdam, gives the following statement, which was issued last night by the German general staff:
"Our cavalry on Saturday completely routed a French cavalry division west of Lille, and near Hazebrouck we inflicted severe losses on another French cavalry division. Until now the engagements on the front in the western theater did not lead to a decision.
"About the booty at Antwerp, no communications can be made, as information still fails. Neither can the number of British and Belgian troops who crossed the Dutch frontier be fixed.
More Victories in East.
"In the eastern theater we repulsed in the north all attacks of the First and Tenth Russian armies on October 9 and 10. The Russian outflanking efforts by way of Scheldt (East Prussia) equally were repulsed and the Russians lost 1,000 prisoners.
"In south Poland the advance guards of our armies have reached the Vistula. Near Grojec, south of Warsaw, we captured 2,000 men of the Second Siberian army corps.
"The Russian official communication about a great Russian victory at Augustova and Suwalki (Russian Poland) are invention has been published about the tremendous defeats at Tannenberg and Insterberg (both in East Prussia) vouches a lack of reliable information."
Report Przemysl Relieved.
A dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram company says:
"A telegram from Vienna states that it is officially announced that the Austrian rapid advance has relieved Przemysl, Galicia, of the Russians. The Austrians have entered the fortress at all points and again repulsed with the loss of a bat-terry. The following information has been given out in Berlin for publication:

"Reports received here from Vienna set forth that the Russian siege of the Przemysl fortress has been abandoned. Austrian troops have defeated Russian divisions near Lanout. They also routed one division of Cossacks east of Nimao.
"The Japanese have occupied the Shantung railroad in Shantung province, China. This is a Chinese state railroad and was built by Germans. China has protested against this action.
"The Politiken, a newspaper published in Copenhagen, in a recent issue, declares that Japan's cause of action, especially in the occupation of German islands in the Pacific, is difficult of comprehension, as such steps have no military connection with the attack on the German territory of Kiao Choo.
"The Corriere della Sera, published at Stampa, Switzerland, reports revolting atrocities on the part of the French Sengalese troops.

ANTWERP'S FALL QUITE DRAMATIC

Eight Day's Before City's Capitulation to Enemy Was Filled with Many Hopes.
ARTILLERY IS OUTCLASSED
Heavy Guns of the Defenders Simply Unequal to the Superior Weapons Used by the German Invaders.
LONDON, Oct. 12.—The story of the siege of Antwerp told in the form of a diary, which chronicles the events taking place between October 2 and October 8, inclusive, has been sent to the Morning Post by its Antwerp correspondent. The diary follows:
"October 2.—The position seemed practically hopeless—the southern section of forts having been subdued and the Belgian field artillery being unable to stand out against the heavier German guns—and the surrender of the city on Saturday (October 3) seemed likely until this evening, when news came that British help was arriving. So great was the power of the British name that spirits at once rose, both among the population and the soldiers.
"October 3.—A wave of almost fanatical confidence runs over the city. Preparations for the departure of the government have been suspended and the word has been passed that the situation is saved. The king and queen are still in the city.
"October 4.—The cheerfulness continues. The churches were crowded at all services today. There is a lull in the German attack. The first British forces actually to arrive were sent at once to trenches in the hottest corner of the defense position at Liere. Very tough fighters are these first of the British forces. Their Sunday night's work was one of the bright incidents of the siege. They held the trenches under a gallant artillery fire which was so well directed as to be proof that apart within Antwerp had given the Germans the position. When the Germans once ventured out into the open we mowed them down. Scarcely one of them got back safely. The map shows that the German attack necessarily was centered at Liere, because this route was the one offering the least water resistance to the advance of the big guns. Therefore the real issue of the battle was to hold the Nethe river.
"October 5.—All day Monday the Nethe river was held with help of further British troops.
"October 6.—The German attack was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed.
"October 7.—The German attack was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed. The German advance was repulsed.

RUSSIAN GUNS CUT DOWN MANY RIDERS

German Cavalry Division Encounters Fire from Masked Battery in Battle of Vistula.
COLD WEATHER SETTLING FAST
Situation in East Prussia Takes on Serious Aspect Because of the Climatic Conditions Being Severe.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 12.—(Special Cablegram to the New York World and Omaha News.)—The Russian have drawn first blood in the battle of the Vistula. They decisively defeated a cavalry division of Germans today westward of Inogorod.
There had been a long and hotly contested cannonade of the respective positions at long range when suddenly a masked battery of field guns fully eight miles in advance of the permanent Russian position was brought into play as the German heavy cavalry began to move forward under cover of its big artillery. Instantly the cavalry was thrown into confusion and then a brigade of Cossacks rode out from cover and cut and slashed the German retreat till it became a veritable rout. The field was strewn with German dead and wounded. The Russian losses were comparatively slight.
The cold season has shut down earlier than usual, and with extraordinary severity. The Germans are commandeering all warm clothing from civilians wherever they can find any, even requiring the latter to divest themselves of long coats whenever seen in the open.
In Irkutsk telegram reports the replacing of German banks in China by Japanese. Japanese sea commerce with China and Russia is rapidly crossing.

German Attempt to Cut Off Retreat from Antwerp is Repulsed

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Daily Mail's Ghent correspondent in a dispatch dated Saturday, says:
"The Germans have thrown a pontoon across the Scheldt river northwards and are pouring a large force northwards in the hope of cutting off retreat from Antwerp. In doing this they are weakening their defense of Brussels and are being met by a strong force, which is compelling them to retire.
"In their advance upon Ghent the Germans got as far as Lochrist, when they were driven back on Lokeran. At the same time a rapid advance on the south of the Scheldt toward Ghent was met with at Melle, where they were again repulsed with the loss of a bat-

Surgeon Jenkins and Five Men Drowned Off Alaska Coast

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A radiogram to the revenue cutter service today from Behring sea reported the drowning of Assistant Surgeon J. W. Jenkins, P. H. E., and five other men when a boat from the cutter Manning swamped Saturday in Unalaska pass off Cape Baribee.

Russ Cruiser Sunk By a Submarine

PETROGRAD, Oct. 12.—An official communication issued today announces that on October 11, the Russian armored cruiser Pallada was torpedoed in the Baltic sea by a German submarine and sank with all her crew.

GERMANS LOSE FORTY-FIVE THOUSAND AT ANTWERP

LONDON, Oct. 12.—It is stated that the Germans lost 60,000 men during the attack on the fortresses Waelhem and Wavre-St. Catherine at Antwerp," says a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam.

War Summary

From Berlin, by way of Amsterdam comes reports of German successes near Lille, with a statement that a decisive battle is being fought there.
London reports that the queen of Belgium is still in Ostend.
Berlin reports that the number of British and Belgian troops that crossed into Holland and are there interned has not yet been ascertained.
German aircraft dropped two more bombs on Paris, but they failed to explode, and no damage was done.
Vienna reports Asiatic cholera spreading to the remotest parts of Austria, and the government taking steps to combat the scourge.
London military experts are discussing the taking of Antwerp and trying to decide what to do with it.
British and French censorship is drawn tightly again, since the fall of Antwerp, and little news is had from them, save the declaration that the situation is satisfactory.

Many towns are again under Austrian administration. The message adds the Russians did not behave so badly as the authorities had expected.

You Can't Drive Prosperity Away!

Capital may hesitate, industry putter, croakers croak. But the tide of American prosperity that is rising each hour will sweep them all off their feet.
Europe has laid the world's industries in America's lap. The sooner our manufacturers, capitalists, merchants and workers wake up—the better. We can't stop demand if we try—but if we don't get busy and produce we will delay some of our profits.
This is the Time To Get to Work.

Funeral of Ferrata Will Be Held Tuesday

ROME, Oct. 12.—(Via Paris.)—Thousands of persons, including cardinals, diplomats and high dignitaries of the church, yesterday viewed the body of Cardinal Ferrata, papal secretary of state, as it lay in state. After lying in state throughout today, the body will be taken to the church of St. John of Lateran, where on Tuesday funeral services will be held. Burial will be made in the family tomb in the diocese of Gradoli, near Viterbo.
