

By MELLIFICIA. Wednesday, October 14, 1914.

INTEREST in the Christmas Ship is growing steadily, and plans to aid in the work are being rapidly crystallized. Some of the real leaders among Omaha women met at luncheon on Monday, and the result of an informal chat was the nucleus of an organization that is going to be of immense service in the work of collecting and packing the gifts that are to be sent to the boys and girls of Europe by the boys and girls of America.

Mrs. Clement Chase, Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mrs. F. A. Nash and Mrs. M. T. Barlow have volunteered to take up the work in the west part of Omaha, and give their personal attention to it. They will take care of all articles sent to their homes, and see that they are properly wrapped and prepared for shipment to Europe. They ask the co-operation of their friends, and on Thursday will have another meeting at luncheon in order to more definitely arrange and apportion the work.

In the meantime these ladies are willing to answer inquiries and will gladly look after any packages that may be delivered at any of their homes.

Superintendent Graff of the public schools has given the plan his approval, and the ministers of Omaha are interested, so it looks as if Omaha's share in the great Christmas Ship enterprise would be well taken care of after all. While the date has not yet been fixed positively, the ship of the United States navy that is to carry the offerings across the Atlantic will probably sail about November 7.

Smith of Hartford, Conn., which was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at Hanson Park Methodist Episcopal church. Bishop Frank Bristol, assisted by Rev. C. W. McCaskill, officiated. The bodice was of chiffon and lace embroidered with pearls and iridescent beads. Orange blossoms, sent by friends in California, held the long tulle veil in place, and she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift was a platinum and diamond lavallier. Miss Marjorie Howard and Miss Helen Epeneter were the bridesmaids and were gowned alike in apple green charmeuse in the Paul Potret design, with long waist effect of silver lace with wide girdele of fish scales.
