

MILLER DENIES HE IS OUSTED

Says False Rumors Were Circulated to Injure His Candidacy.

WANTS TO SEE FRY ELECTED

Denies that He Ever Talked with Isaac Carpenter in Any Way About Running for the School Board.

August Miller, city salesman for the Carpenter Paper company and physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, a resident of the Twelfth ward and a member of the Civic center of the north part of the city, July 15 filed for nomination as a candidate for the Board of Education at the election to be held in November.

This morning Mr. Miller appeared before Election Commissioner Morehead and filed his withdrawal from the race, thus getting out of the campaign.

For several days there have been rumors floating about that Mr. Miller was to be forced out of the Board of Education race in order that his candidacy would not injure that of Thomas A. Fry of the Twelfth ward and endorsed by the Citizens' committee. It has even been said that his withdrawal was instigated by a threat that he would lose his position with the Carpenter company if he did not get out and leave a clear field for Fry.

The rumors reached Mr. Miller and in reference to the correctness of them, he said:

"I went into the race for a position on the Board of Education simply because I felt that there was a necessity for some house cleaning, and until Mr. Fry entered the field, I expected to stay. I had remained out, I feel confident I would have been elected. When he went in, I considered the situation and concluded that if we both worked for the nomination, we would both be defeated, and the vote of the better element would be divided.

Fry Has More Time.

"I realized that Mr. Fry has the time to devote to the work of the office and that I have not.

There have also been reports floating about that I was told by members of the Carpenter Paper company that if I did not get out of the race my services would not be needed.

"While these rumors were circulated, they were absolutely false and undoubtedly were started by persons who desired to injure me and some of the other candidates who are on the citizen's ticket. Isaac Carpenter never talked with me about my candidacy. If he knew of it, it was only by reason of reports around the office. There was never a word from him to indicate that he had objections to me making the race.

"I talked my candidacy over with Will Carpenter and A. W. Carpenter, both members of the company, and was assured by them I would have their support. Neither of them ever intimated that I would lose my position if I ran for the office and no person connected with the company ever raised any objection to my going into the board fight."

Suit Filed Against Lot Owned by Lobeck

A foreclosure suit has been filed in district court, petitioning that the residence property at 1811 Spencer street, known as lot 3, block 14, Kountze place, and now owned and occupied as a home by Congressman C. O. Lobeck, be sold to satisfy a note for $3,000, given in 1904 by Mary E. Miller, former owner of the property. She mortgaged it to secure her note, the petition states, and later sold the place to Mr. and Mrs. Lobeck, subject to the mortgage. The note was given to the late Guy C. Barton, and is now held by the Western Securities company, which is plaintiff in the present action.

PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES HAVE PLATFORM

Unqualified approval of the national progressive platform of 1912 heads the platform just issued for the progressive legislative candidates from Douglas county. The platform favors a state constitutional convention, favors laws to the end that the administration of justice may be expedited in the courts, approves the present election commissioner system for the county, favors a jury commission for Douglas county, favors a court of domestic relations to handle divorce cases, proposes a law providing a set salary for the justices of the peace in Omaha, favors public ownership of public utilities, favors the organization of workers in order to obtain their rights, favors state insurance and an adequate employers' liability law, favors workmen's compensation in healthful surroundings, and the use of prison in the construction of good roads in the state, and favors any movement tending toward giving Omaha the right to raise local taxes in its own way.

TARRANT BADLY HURT BY FALL FROM MOTORCYCLE

Fred Tarrant, employed as an electrician by the Le Bron company, is lying at St. Joseph's hospital from concussion of the brain, the result of a fall from his motorcycle when the front axle broke.

He was going north at Boulevard and South Thirtieth at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred. Conductor Sewczyk and Motorman Heber of a South Omaha street car witnessed the mishap and stopped their car to take care of the injured man.

His condition was such that they placed him on the car and ran without stopping to Thirtieth and Dodge, where surgeons and an ambulance awaited.

Tarrant is married and has two small children.

News of the accident at Omaha.

There is a report that a boy from the city was killed by a car on the street.

Lobeck Assists in Sending Aid to Some in the Big War Zone

Washington dispatches tell of Congressman Lobeck's interest in the case of Morris Steinberg, now in Stuffed, Palestine, who on account of the war is having financial difficulties. Joseph Steinberg of this city tried unsuccessfully to send his relative money, and finally got Congressman Lobeck to help to get the coin safely across the sea. Lobeck got in touch with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Peters and the money was transferred to the master of the United States cruiser Carolina, now near Palestine. The cruiser skipper will locate Morris Steinberg and turn the money over.

FIVE DIVORCE PETITIONS FILED IN DISTRICT COURT

William E. Ferry has started suit for divorce from his wife, Verona S., alleging that she threw a quart bottle of milk at his head, dumped his clothes in the gutter, and used to go to shows with other men and then praise their good qualities and compare them disparagingly with him.

According to allegations in a petition for divorce, filed by Oscar Larson against Alice, she frequently hit, kicked and scratched him, pulled his hair and threw kitchen utensils at him.

Being out all night without explanation is alleged by Mrs. Anna Buckingham as grounds for divorce from Minus R. Buckingham. She also asks for the custody of a minor child.

Camille Sattia alleges in her divorce petition that her husband, Richard, deserted her and three small children on the pretext that he had to leave town to look for work.

Mrs. Josephine Patrick is suing for divorce from Harry, alleging cruelty and non-support, and asking for maintenance and suit money, an absolute decree, custody of two small children and permanent alimony.

Y. M. C. A. AT UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA IS REORGANIZED

A reorganization of the Young Men's Christian association at the University of Omaha has been effected, and the members are now planning for a series of activities during the school year. The first of these took place this morning, when E. J. Simonds, state association secretary for college work, addressed the organization.

WILLIAMS IS HELD FOR AIDING PRISONER TO ESCAPE

Jack Williams, colored prisoner in the county jail, who conveniently fell asleep on the morning he was to have been freed, and whose freedom was thereby secured by Alonzo Bellamy, a bond-owner prisoner held on the charge of breaking and entering, is now being held under orders from County Attorney Maagoy, who has filed a complaint charging Williams with aiding another prisoner to escape. No trace of Bellamy has been found and it is thought he has managed to get out of town. Williams' time was up, but he now faces another sentence for his alleged part in the other prisoner's escape.

ARRESTED FOR FIRING OWN PLACE OF BUSINESS

Joe Salento, owner of the fruit and confectionery store at 166 South Fifteenth street, where a fire of alleged incendiary origin occurred early this week, has been arrested with his clerk, Pete Calanai of 1160 North Seventeenth street. Salento lives at 225 Sherman avenue. After being booked as suspicious characters, pending further investigation of the case, the two men were released under bonds of $1,000 each. Detectives Sullivan and Lahey made the arrests.
