BURGLARS PAY VISIT TO F. P. SHELDON STORE

NEHAWKA BUSINESS HOUSE HAS CALL FROM NIGHT VISITORS—GET AWAY.

ALSO ENTER BUTCHER SHOP

John Opp Loses Small Amount of Cash as Result of Visit of the Night Callers.

The Nehawka people last evening had two of their business houses burglarized—the F. P. Sheldon department store and the butcher shop of John Opp being the scenes of the visits of the parties but fortunately the loss reported was not very heavy.

The entrance to the Sheldon store was secured by forcing a window and from which the parties made their way into the store and proceeded to pick themselves out a new outfit of clothing. Two pairs of Douglas shoes, two wool shirts, two pairs of trousers and two sweaters were reported missing at the store and in a heap on the floor of the store was piled the old clothes of the night callers, and they were not in the best of shape and had evidently seen better days.

In addition to taking the clothes the men are reported to have secured a number of rings and other small jewelry carried as a side line as well as $4.80 in cash and a check for $2.66.

The butcher shop of John Opp also suffered from the burglars and as in the case at the Sheldon store there was very little taken, a small amount in cash, used as small change being unearthed by the visitors.

The night was ideal for the work of the burglars as there were few people out on the streets and they were able to make a clean getaway. Reports from Nehawka are to the effect that it may be possible to secure some definite trace of the parties and which may lead to their arrest as the job was evidently that of some amateur.

This is not the first time the Sheldon store has suffered from robbers as they were visited a year ago and considerable stuff taken, so they feel very lucky this time.

The pupils of the fifth and sixth grade gave their teacher, Miss Grace Steinmeier a candy and fruit shower Wednesday afternoon. She was presented with one-quarter bushel of fruit and candy. Each of the pupils tasted a bit and their teacher is enjoying the remainder of the treat.

Miss Nuernberger had a peculiar accident happen to her ring. She got some mercury on it which clung so tight that she could not get it off. The mercury ate into the ring which was nearly pure gold and two of the prongs came off. She sent it to Lincoln for repairs.

The agriculture class had a lesson on culling poultry for egg production on Monday. They got a little experience at Max Shaffer's poultry plant. Mr. R. C. Pollard gave the boys a fine talk on his methods of raising swine. A great many practical and valuable points were brought out. The boys expect to get some fine ideas also from Stone and son along the same lines.

The freshmen class gave the following program at convocation Thursday:

Violin Solo—Emil Johnson
Reading—Mabel Ketch
Dialogue—Emil Johnson, Dorothy Goodman, Gladys Hill, Elsie Stoll, Ruth Bohrens, Merna Brandt, Leonard St. John, Harold Dodson, and Levord Richmond.

The Sunny Side Sewing club girls had a business meeting Oct. 12, to select officers for the club. The following were elected: President, Verle Stone; vice president, Grace Simpkins; secretary, Vera Martin; treasurer, Wilma Switzer, and news reporter, Dorothy Lundberg. The girls decided to meet every second Tuesday. This meeting was held at the home of Irma Switzer. During the business meeting a rule was made that the girls would have to pay a fine of five cents if they did not bring work to the meetings and really work. After the business meeting the girls sewed and then delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The girls had a delightful time.

The members of the student council are as follows: Seniors—Elmer Stoll, Leona Simpkins and William August. Juniors—Irene Johnson, Leona Switzer and Lucian Carpenter.
