"ON THE CORNER"

PRISON TERM OF CONVICTED POSTAL CLERK IS ROMANTIC

Albert Lamar Led From Cell to Altar and Weds the Girl Who Wait Until He is Released.

Mrs. Olga Jensen Lamar, 19, whose husband of a few hours, Albert L. Lamar, 21, mail clerk at Council Bluffs, was sentenced Wednesday by Federal Judge Wells to eighteen months in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kas., will work and save and plan for the return of her husband, she declared following her marriage to the convicted man yesterday.

Lamar, who was taken to prison this morning was taken from his cell in the county jail yesterday by U. S. Marshal B. W. Mitchell and was married to Olga Jensen, daughter of Knute Jensen, 1812 Second avenue, Justice of the Peace A. F. Hollis, performed the ceremony.

"Their marriage, the young bride said, was the result of romance of several months duration. 'I met Albert at a house party last February,' she said. 'It was surely a case of love at first sight. Albert wanted to get married some time ago, but I hesitated on putting it off. Then when he was in prison I did not want to get married and leave him, but we talked it over and decided it was the best thing to do.'

Accompanying the bride was a girl friend, Miss Mary Rupp, Ninth street and Eighth avenue. Vouching for the groom was the officer who this morning took him with the others to prison.

During the hearings the bride-to-be later followed each procedure. 'I would not have gone Wednesday if I had thought Albert was to be sentenced to prison. We all thought he would get a fine,' she said.

Lamar had been in the mail service more than a year, coming to Council Bluffs from Chariton, Ia., where his parents reside.

"It will be mighty hard to leave her," he commented last night.

HAVE SCHOOL PARADE

The students of the senior and junior high schools had a real celebration in the city yesterday afternoon as a rally for the football game and it was a real rally that the boys and girls alike joined in. Headed by the high school colors and with the drummers the young people paraded up and down Main street before going to the ball park. One of the chief features of the parade was the black draped casket labeled "The End of Peru," which was borne by four of the paraders, attracted much attention and at the football grounds the students marched around the visiting team and their efforts seemed to have broken the morale of the visitors judging from the score piled up.

WILL RETURN NEXT WEEK

Her many friends will regret to learn that Miss Louise Lyon, student at college in Fulton, Mo., had need to submit to a throat operation. Miss Lyon was taken to Immanuel hospital in Omaha last week for that purpose. It is pleasing to record that she will be able to return to college next week.—Glenwood Tribune.

MRS. HARDING IS BETTER

Washington, Nov. 10.—Marked indications of improvement in the condition of Mrs. Harding were announced today by her physician, Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, who said that she now was able to stand and to take a few steps. Dr. Sawyer indicated that he felt quite encouraged over the progress his patient was making.

Lingerie collar and cuffs sets are one of the special features for the fall and winter garments. St. Mary's Guild will have many new and clever designs at their Christmas Shop, Dec. 8 and 9.

How Not to Take a Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excess, over eating, becoming overheated and then chilled and getting the feet wet. Then when they feel the first indication of a cold they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over. Weyrich & Hadraba.

Was Able to Vote

Our friend, Uncle James Murphy, who is a man with an iron will and who will not be put down, was able in his new wheel chair to get out on election day and get down town, and with the aid of a number of his friends got into the voting booth, where he exercised the right of elective franchise and cast his vote. We are pleased that this man, who has been pursued by a streak of very hard luck, is able to be out again and mingling with his many friends.

Did the Nice Thing Sure

Lloyd Ruby, who maintains a radio receiving set at his home on the farm east of Manley, brought the apparatus to Manley on election night and installed the same in the Manley school building, where he received the election returns from over the country for the citizens here.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Weyrich & Hadraba.

OBITUARY OF EDWARD DUFFY

The following from the Chariton (Ia.) Lender is a biographical sketch of the late Edward Duffy, father of Mrs. W. H. Wehrbein, and who with whom the deceased made his home for fourteen years: Edward Duffy was born in Maryland, November 3r, 1850, and departed this life November 2, 1932, at the home of a son in Pacific Junction, Iowa, at the age of 71 years, two months and 29 days. On March 22, 1879, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Crawford at Jamesport, Mo. To this union were born three children, all of whom survive. They are George E. and Charles, of Pacific Junction, and Mrs. W. H. Wehrbein of Plattsmouth, Neb. Two brothers also survive, M. P. and Daniel Frederickson of Creston, Ia. Mr. Duffy was a long time member of the Knights of Pythias fraternal order. Years ago he lived in Chariton, where he was well known. For some time past he has been suffering from ill health. The remains were brought to Chariton Saturday evening for interment in the family lot in the Chariton cemetery. A large group of relatives accompanied the remains to their last resting place. The wife died February 28, 1932. The services at the grave were in charge of Rev. C. W. McClelland.

ENJOY PRAISE SERVICE

On Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, previous to the ladies' Missionary society held their annual Praise Service. It was well attended by the ladies of the church and was a service both spiritual and inspirational. The state synodical president, Mrs. R. V. Birkner, was present and gave an address that ought to stir up a zeal for the great cause of missions in any one who heard it. The playlet, "My Lady's Cookbook," given by Miss Ellen Nolling, Miss Helen Wilcs and Miss Milledge Snyder, was well given and a pleasing part of the program. Mrs. H. W. Black added to the program a well rendered solo very fitting to the occasion. Decorations consisting of large chrysanthemums gave attraction to the rooms and dainty refreshments served by the ladies, completed one of the most successful Praise Services the society has ever had. A very substantial offering was given for the cause of the mission work.
