THE KING'S HAND WITHERETH

And it came to pass, when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him. The altar also was rent.—I Kings xiii, 4 and 5.

For the last three hundred years our ancestors were constantly fighting to get the privilege to vote. Now most of us neglect to do so unless somebody comes around and takes us to the polls in a motor.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Senator Hitchcock, who was defeated on Tuesday last. His presence in the U. S. senate will be missed by the farmers of the grand state of Nebraska, and true friends in general.

We josh ourselves that civilization is advancing and that the spirit of good fellowship is growing; yet, we dare say, right now there are thousands of persons busily engaged in the fiendish occupation of making Christmas neckties.

In Cincinnati a man was fined $5 for stealing a newspaper from a subscriber's front porch. This will "strike a responsive chord" in many a heart. These little things are the really intimate problems of life. If you doubt it, try to start a conversation about the politicians or tariff with the men who has just discovered his daily paper stolen.

A sure sign that the world-wide prosperity is returning comes from Capetown: Directors of the Consolidated Diamond Mines of Southwest Africa are paying dividends again. And they announce that production of the mines will be speeded up to meet "improved demand for diamonds." Diamond buying and prosperity come and go together.

Authors of detective stories have one receipt that never fails to suit the public palate. All that is necessary is to make the dull police detective serve as a foil to the brilliant amateur sleuth. Everyone likes that in a story book. But let him be in trouble himself and the same citizen gets as quickly as possible in connection with police headquarters.

You can figure on accomplishing a lot during the next 60 days. Scientists, after a long study, announce that the human brain does its best work in November and December. Cool weather is a spur to mental activity, hot weather a drawback. You have noticed it is hard to think in a hot room. Brains slow down after Christmas. In March they run at high speed again. The maximum of physical strength comes in April, May, September and October.

In eight months we ship Germany about $219,000,000 worth of goods. This is nearly $141,000,000 more than we buy from her. She has very little gold in her vaults, to balance the books, so the $141,000,000 is largely a credit extended to her. The talk about Germany going bankrupt doesn't seem to worry some of the American bankers and exporters. Apparently Germany has an unlimited charge account with them. International finance is a queer animal, rabbit one day, wolf the next.

PROGRAM FOR LABOR BOARD

Supporters Say Board has Never Been More than Battleground for Contending Interests.

Washington, Nov. 10.—With organized labor avowedly out to abolish the railroad labor board in the forthcoming tilt in congress over extension of its powers, friends of the board are preparing a program of "improvements" for the tribunal to submit to congress as soon as it convenes.

Claiming that the board has never since its creation been more than a battleground for "selfish contending interests," because of deficiencies in the law creating it, these proponents of the board have drafted a two-plied program, enactment of which will be sought to forestall the drastic action desired by labor.

Primarily, a set of fundamental principles, a sort of "bill of rights" setting forth the rights of labor, the railroads and the public in all disputes brought before the board will be asked of congress. This is deemed essential as a foundation on which the board will base its decisions and indispensable for continuity of policy, just as the constitution is the foundation of all judicial decisions and the source of a single standard of administering justice.

The State of Nebraska, To all persons interested in said estate, Notice is hereby given that William H. Wehrlein, the owner of the hereinafter described real estate and interested in such, has filed his petition alleging that Samuel M. Craig died intestate in Cass county, Nebraska, on or about August 4, 1881, being a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, and the owner of the following described real estate, to-wit:

The southeast quarter (SE 1/4) of Section twenty-three, (23) Township twelve, (12) North, Range twelve, (12) east of the 6th P. M., in the County of Cass, Nebraska— leaving as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to-wit:

Mary Matilda Craig, his widow, and the following named children: Margaret I. Craig, Mary Ann Craig, Catherine G. Beaver, nee Craig, also known as C. G. Beaver, Alice F. Craig, Myrtle M. Craig, Ada M. Craig and James M. Craig.

That said decedent died intestate; that no application for administration has been made and the estate of said decedent has not been administered in the State of Nebraska, and that the Court determined that the heirs of said decedent, that degree of kinship and the right of descent in the real property of which the decedent died seized, which has been set for hearing on the 27th day of November, A. D. 1922, at 9 o'clock a. m.

Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 24th day of October, A. D. 1922.

Contractor Has Gained 30 Lbs. on Tanlac

"Tanlac fixed me up so I gained thirty pounds. I have never seen or heard of such a wonderful medicine in all the sixty-three years of my life," declared William Magee, well-known retired contractor, 3,340 Lafayette Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

"About two years ago I had a severe bladder trouble that left me in an awfully run-down condition. My appetite went back on me and my stomach got so weak I could not eat and digest enough to give me any strength. I also had the worst sort of pains across the small of my back, and could not sleep.

"I began picking up soon after I started taking Tanlac, and now I have a fine appetite, sleep like a log and feel great. My bladder feeling has all left me. I could not do otherwise than recommend Tanlac."

NEWLY ELECTED CONGRESSMAN VISITS HERE

Yesterday afternoon R. H. Thorpe, congressman-elect from the First district to succeed C. F. Reavis, moved down from Lincoln to spend a few hours visiting with his personal and political friends in this city.

Mr. Thorpe feels well pleased at the handsome plurality that he was able to roll up in the first district, being, comparatively unknown prior to the primary election and during the campaign made a very successful speaking campaign over the district.

The victory is especially pleasing in view of the fact that John H. Morehead filed suit against Walter Anderson, the republican long term candidate, and also the fact that Mr. Thorpe was pitted against Judge Parriott, one of the leaders of the Nebraska bar in the race for the short term. Mr. Thorpe will leave soon for Washington to be present at the republican caucus called by President Harding and which will convene on November 20th.

Legal Notice

We recently found abandoned a Dodge Brothers touring car which we brought to our garage in Union and are holding the same here for the coming and demand of the owner. This car will be held for thirty days and if not then called for and proved to be the property of the one demanding same, will be sold according to law for the purpose of paying the storage, advertising and other expenses which may be incurred in its care and disposal.

Miss Henningsen, of Bellevue, is the new teacher of the 5th and 6th grades.

M. E. Church

The first big item which is of much interest to the entire community is the launching of the biggest contest in the Sunday school that was ever put on record in the history of Alvo. This is on for next Sunday morning. Every boy and girl of the school ought to be on time ready to defend your best interest. The object of this contest is to increase the attendance at both the Sunday school and the church services and to raise a purse of one thousand dollars to lift the debt on our church. The losing side will surely have to root the peg. So be sure to get in line right on the start. The captains are "rarin' to go."

The next big item is the Ladies Aid bazaar, set for Wednesday, November 22nd. Some thought it was set for another date. The 22nd is correct. Big chicken pie supper in the church basement at night beginning at about 6 o'clock. Don't miss this good rich treat and help the ladies pay off that debt on the parsonage lots. We are looking forward to the early erection of a splendid parsonage in Alvo. One that will grace these fine corner lots opposite the church.

The W. H. M. society sure had many compliments on their "Negro" school program in the church last Sunday night. Fine.

The ladies are alive to their interest. At their next meeting in December they are to relate how they have earned $1 they are to give to further the church work. Let's attend this experience meeting and hear the testimonials of how they came into possession of their dollars.

Some nineteen of the Methodist folks autoed to Elmwood Thursday night to attend the special meetings being conducted by Rev. Sala. Brother Costman sure did hit the high places. But we got there and home safe and enjoyed our shake-up as well as the revival effort.

Rev. and Mrs. Galloway are visitors at the parsonage. The Rev. will preach for us next Sunday morning. He is falling in health just a little since Mr. Bryan's election, but he is still able to preach a good sermon. So be present when he preaches Sunday morning, for he says the Bible is the only book he really knows.

By the way don't forget the Parent-Teachers' association meeting on next Wednesday night at the school house. We expect a full house and real live times. All cordially invited to attend.

That's all. Meet me at the corner community church next Sunday—both forenoon and evening.
