CAMP GRANT TO GO ON AUCTION BLOCK

One of Final Steps in its Ultimate Wrecking as a Cantonment—1,400 Buildings Sold.

Rockford, Ill., Dec. 15.—Camp Grant, another of the wartime scenes of bustling military activity, soon is to go upon the auction block—one of the final steps in its ultimate wrecking as a cantonment. Between 1,200 and 1,400 buildings and utilities are to be sold, part of a camp that at the height of its operations covered 5,855 acres of land and housed approximately 60,000 men. Three army officers now are making survey of the salvage value of the buildings all located in the area of the old base hospital site.

Buildings in the areas turned over to the national guard of Illinois and the portion reserved for the proposed reformatory for first term federal offenders, are not included in the survey. The Baldwin, Samuelson and Johnson farms are to be returned to their owners. Other properties were bought by the government and condemnation proceedings were necessary in some cases.

It was on May 12, 1917, that the war department submitted to the Rockford chamber of commerce the requirements for a military camp in northern Illinois. The site was inspected by five army officers May 30 and on June 12 the lands were definitely selected. Leases were obtained on 3,301 acres. This later was reduced to 2,249, when property intended for a range was found unsuitable. Subsequently a new rifle range and safety zone were selected and the total area ultimately used was 5,855 acres.

The Eighty-sixth division was trained at Camp Grant. Several thousand negro soldiers also were trained here. Hundreds of thousands of soldiers were discharged at the camp during the war. Several public auctions in the last year disposed of hundreds of dollars worth of camp property.

The federal reformatory project is meeting opposition here. Rockford sent a representative to Washington to appear before the house judiciary committee to protest against a favorable report on the bill, locating the prison at Camp Grant.

W. S. SUMMERS IN TROUBLE

Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—W. S. Summers, formerly United States district attorney at Omaha, Neb., and assistant state attorney general at Lincoln, Neb., was indicted here today on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses. It was alleged that Summers misrepresented himself as an attorney, licensed to practice law in California and accepted a retaining fee.

William S. Summers, at a period something like twenty-five years ago, was a prominent member of the Nebraska bar, holding federal and state offices. His home originally was in Gage county, but he lived for several years in Lincoln and later at Omaha. He was active in politics and his services were in demand as a public speaker during campaigns.

NEBRASKA GRANGE URGES REFORMS

Changes in State and Federal Laws Advocated at Meeting Held in Wood River This Week.

Wood River, Neb., Dec. 14.—The Nebraska State Grange in session here passed a resolution favoring a law allowing states to tax national securities and other properties in the state which are now exempt. The resolution declared that all properties should be put on the tax list and there should be no distinction between tangible and intangible property.

The resolution also demanded that the legislature repeal the law exempting $200 on household goods.

The grange favored the taxing of all stock dividends and opposed government price fixing and guaranteeing of profits. The organization opposed ship subsidy in any form, urged payment in full of all debts by "red nations." The grange also favored the regulation of heavy trucks on public roads, urged public economy, election of president and vice president by direct vote, election of county superintendents of schools by a vote of the rural districts only, as they are deprived of supervision of city and village schools.

George Bischoff of Kearney was re-elected state master and T. H. Holson of Gothenburg, state secretary.

SAYS TEACHERS ARE ILLITERATE

J. G. Masters Tells Teachers Education in Schools is a Case of Blind Leading the Blind.

Norfolk, Neb., Dec. 15.—In an address before two hundred and fifty public school teachers attending a teachers' institute here today, J. G. Masters, principal of the Omaha Central high school, declared that the majority of public school teachers are so poorly trained that it has become a case of the blind leading the blind and ignorance fostering ignorance.

Thirty thousand of the six hundred thousand school teachers in the country have not had an eighth grade education, Masters declared, and one hundred and fifty thousand have not had a high school education of two years and about four hundred and fifty thousand of them are not considered in school circles as having the required minimum training.

More money, said the speaker, was spent in two years for war purposes than all the money spent for education and science since George Washington was president. Poor pay for school teachers, 1,000 per cent increase in the number of students and the decrease in the value of the dollar has resulted in higher cost for education.

The speaker called attention to the large amount of illiteracy in the United States.

The taxpayers can afford to spend tremendous amounts of money on luxuries, and yet discriminate against the training of girls and boys to become good American citizens. Dr. George Condra, Lincoln; Supt. L. C. Lord, York county; Supt. W. G. Baker, Howard county; Supt. Theodore Saam, Council Bluffs Iowa, were among the other speakers at the institute.

ARE CONSIDERING FLOOD CONTROL

Lower Mississippi Valley Constantly Subjected to Hazard Considered by House Committee.

Washington, Dec. 13.—A broader view of the problems of the Mississippi river and its tributaries was urged on the house flood control committee today by representatives of the Lower Mississippi valley, who declared that they were constantly being subjected to the hazards of food waters notwithstanding that their districts did not contribute a "drop of water to the swollen stream."

One after another the witnesses before the committee insisted the problem was one for the nation as a whole. James E. Edmonds of New Orleans, said that years ago the slogan was after the Panama canal, the Mississippi river, but that the dream had never been realized.

The witnesses told the committee of the huge acreage of rice top soil being carried away by the river, while at the same time the country is draining marsh land and irrigating arid lands to provide for the fast growing population. At the same time, they said, an enormous waste of water resources and transportation possibilities was going on.

Great sums were being spent for temporary work which should go into a permanent program, they said, and threats of floods were stifling investment and reducing the purchasing powers of many communities.

BILL TO PREVENT DOUBLE PROSECUTIONS INTRODUCED

Washington, Dec. 13.—Representative Vincent Brennan, republican, Michigan, introduced a bill designed to prevent double prosecution by state and federal authorities of persons for a single violation of the prohibition act.

That such double prosecutions may be conducted was held by the supreme court in a law case decision Monday, the court indicating that congress, if it did not desire such a possibility, should enact a law to prevent it.

At present writing we are not sure whether our Sunday school is to have a Christmas tree and a program or not. There seems to be no enthusiasm for a service of this kind this year. Maybe it is just as well. We have our trees at home for old Santa and his visitors.

The prayer meeting lesson for next Thursday night is a review of the book of Ephesians. Bring your bible.

Regular services next Sunday at the church. Since we are so near the Yuletide season perhaps we might close by wishing you and all your folks a very happy time and old Santa will remember you with some fine presents on his return to you this Christmas.
