

ALVO DEPARTMENT

Ed Stroemer of DeWitt is spending several days in Alvo. R. E. Reitz and children of Waverly were in town Friday afternoon on business.

Miss Minnie Hirsch of Lincoln is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Susie Rolofsz. Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick entertained the Women's Reading club last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Blanche Moore of Lincoln spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Moore. Mrs. Ruth Dier of Fairbury visited Tuesday and Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Shaffer.

Clifford Dier of Hastings and brothers Milo and Richard of Fairbury, spent Friday with their aunt, Mrs. J. A. Shaffer. Mrs. Anna Stone and son Beryl of University Place and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kitzel were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Brobst and children took Christmas dinner with Mrs. Brobst's brother and family at Benedict. They returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Barry came in Saturday morning from Alvin, Texas, to spend Christmas with the former's sister, Mrs. C. S. Johnson and family.

Miss Clara Dickerson of West Point is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lauritsen and brother Floyd Dickerson and family.

Ed L. Uptegrove and family of Sidney spent several days here recently with his mother, Mrs. E. L. Uptegrove and sister, Mrs. Harry Appleman.

On with the contest! The Parent-Teachers association of Wednesday night at the school house showed their great interest in this new movement by a full house. The program was excellent, especially the exhibits of the toys made by the children.

At this late hour we are in receipt of a letter from old Santa and he expects to visit all the boys and girls at the church on Monday night. The tree and program are ready.

A new enterprise under the auspices of Methodism is on our again. The William Jennings Bryan home in Lincoln is to be converted into a Methodist hospital and we are calling for memberships in this hospital at $1 each.

Misses Gladys Reed and Helen King of Rosalie, Neb., are present visitors at the parsonage. The parsonage folks enjoyed the hospitality of Brother and Sister William Coatsman and family last Sunday for dinner.

The Ladies Aid society met and at the present writing have arranged to put on the best oyster supper in the history of the church. This supper is to be given next Monday night. Price, 25cents.

The Sunday school had a re-election of teachers and officers last Wednesday night and they elected Sister Edwards as superintendent. Sorry to lose Superintendent Coatsman, but it was his request to change.

Everybody seems to be enjoying the holiday season with their many friends and relatives. Smiles and kind words seem to characterize the various groups of people whether on the street or indoors. May this friendly spirit continue to prevail in Alvo community.

The Christmas program given at the church last Sunday night was sure well attended and from the many expressions it was well appreciated. Mrs. Nickels sure did well in leading and directing these workers.

Now last but not least a word on the contest in the Sunday school. Last Sunday the records showed 163 in attendance and a collection of $51. A little bird whispered to the Blue captain, Mr. Taylor, saying: "Blues look out for next Sunday. Prepare to take your defeat." We have the dough in hand and we expect to show you Blues that our machine can fly as a record breaker.

With More Than Words

1923
At the end of each year it the custom for the merchants to thank their patrons for the past favors. It is a fitting recognition of loyalty the people have shown to their home dealers. We, too, thank you most sincerely. But we want our thanks to consist of more than mere words. We want to assure you that our appreciation will be evidenced the coming year by the high quality of our merchandise, by the extreme moderation of our prices and by the excellent service we will render you in 1923.

EDWARD C. RIPPLE, North 5th Street Grocer

Friends the Best Asset!
To our many friends we gladly extend greetings and well wishes at this joyous season when 1922, with its aims, its hopes, its ideals—many of them realized, some unfulfilled—is about to give way to the promising sturdy youngster whom we recognize as 1-9-2-3.
