CAUSED IN RELOADING OF GUN

Paul Wansat, Older Brother, Loading Gun When Accidentally Discharged Killing Brother.

From Saturday's Daily. This afternoon at the farm of John Parkening near Cullom occurred the accidental shooting of Herbert Wansat, aged 19, of Omaha who was visiting at the Parkening home, he being a cousin of Mr. Parkening.

The death was caused when Paul Wansat, an older brother of Herbert was loading his gun and in some manner the weapon was fired, the bullet entering the body of the younger brother and causing instant death.

As soon as the tragedy occurred a message was sent to this city for Dr. T. P. Livingston as well as County Attorney Cole and Sheriff Quinton, who drove to the Parkening home where the dead boy had been carried after the accident.

DEATH OF FORMER WEEPING WATER LADY IN WEST

The death angel came to Orange Friday morning, December 22, 1922, to one well beloved and for nineteen years a resident here in the home she left today, calling Mrs. Charlotte Smith to her beautiful eternal home where she may join her husband, who went before, three years ago.

Death came suddenly after she had been up as usual and partaken of her morning meal. On January 22, she would have been 80 years of age.

Her sisters, Mrs. Aurel Beach and Miss Charrie Paine, lived at 416 South Glasnell with her and she leaves a brother of Nebraska, but now living in Long Beach, and two sisters and a brother in the east; also a daughter here, Mrs. W. W. Perry, and a daughter, Mrs. Mam Look, of Sedro Woodley, Washington; and two sons, Jaman Smith, of Garden Grove, and Henry P. Smith, of Weeping Water, Nebraska.

Mrs. Smith was a faithful member of the Woman's Relief Corps and the Christian Scientist church. The funeral arrangements will not be made until next week after they are able to hear from the children in the east.—Orange (California) Daily News, Dec. 22.

Mrs. Smith and her husband settled in Cass county in April, 1865, and for many years they made their home in Weeping Water and vicinity, where they are well known to all the old time residents.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT OF NEBRASKA

Mr. Goehner was the father of William Goehner, whose wife was formerly Miss Helen Dovey of this city and many of the Plattsmouth people are well acquainted with the members of the Goehner family.

The deceased was seventy-four years of age and leaves the wife and seven children to mourn his death.

There has been no definite arrangements made as to the funeral services. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Dovey and members of their family will attend the services which are to be held at Seward.

HERE'S A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO THE JOURNAL READERS

We Extend Greetings and Cordial Well Wishes for Prosperity and Success in 1923.

Following the time honored custom of observing the New Year appropriately, there will be no edition of the Evening Journal printed on the first day of the year and therefore we take the opportunity now of extending the greetings for the new year and well wishes to the entire community for the future success of the city and the good health and happiness of its people.

The year now closing has been one filled with many improvements and changes in the city itself. The greatest of the improvements has been that of the replacing of the old rough pavement with a new and strictly modern paving on Main street and the elimination of the natural waterway in the center of the street, and the installing of the new electrolizer system that will in time be extended out in the residence section of the city, and this is one of the things which we can feel has been a great advancement in the year 1922.

The community has suffered thru the industrial disturbances for the greater part of the last six months, and even this is growing better and the business interests of the city receiving an increased support in their various lines of trade.

The year has developed to a point of high efficiency the Ad club, an organization of the merchants of the city who are doing a lot to place Plattsmouth in the front ranks of the Nebraska cities as a real factor in modern business methods and with their Bargain Wednesday sales have made the city known over the eastern portion of the fair state of Nebraska.

We trust that in the year to come all may find the going a little smoother and the skies that for the individual resident of the city are dark and clouded may be brightened by the sunshine of happiness and success.

PASTOR'S DAUGHTER IS MARRIED TO CHICAGO MAN

Wedding Occurs at Evangelical Lutheran Church in Louisville Tuesday Forenoon.

At the close of the Christmas services last Tuesday forenoon at the Evangelical Lutheran church, of which Rev. Theodore Hartman is pastor, the pastor's second daughter, Miss Elsie Hartman became the bride of Frank J. Mann, of Chicago, her father officiating at the impressive ceremony which was witnessed by the congregation assembled.

The young couple was attended by Miss Gertrude Hartman, sister of the bride and Charles Drake. The bride was attired in her traveling gown of black felt crepe and wore a hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride's attendant wore a gown of blue silk taffeta and wore a bouquet of roses. After the wedding a dinner was served to the immediate relatives at the parsonage. The wedding march was played by Otto Hartman, of Arlington, brother of the bride.

The bride and her sister, Miss Lattie Hartman, are trained nurses and made a very enviable record during the late war when they enlisted for service. For the past few years they have been located in Chicago, where they have been following their chosen profession. The room has an important position with the Pennsylvania railroad and is a young man of high character as evidenced by the position of responsibility he is holding. They are a splendid young couple and start out on their life's journey under the most promising circumstances. They will make their home in Chicago, where they have an apartment rented and they left on the evening train for that city.

The bride and her sister and Mr. Mann arrived here the Saturday before and spent Christmas with the family and enjoyed a few days' visit together. On last Saturday evening a shower was given for them at the parsonage and they received a large number of beautiful and useful gifts, mostly silverware and cut glass, which would be easier to take with them to their home. At a late hour, a splendid supper was served to the guests and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all.—Louisville Courier.

FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

From Saturday's Daily. The funeral services of the late Mrs. W. H. Newell were held yesterday from the Newell residence on North Fifth street and very largely attended by the old friends and neighbors of the family to pay their last tribute to her memory. The services were simple as the wish of the departed lady had been. Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Presbyterian church of which the family were members, conducted the service and Mrs. E. H. Wescott sang two of the old and well loved hymns.

At the conclusion of the service the body was borne to Oak Hill cemetery where it was laid to rest. Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart of St. Joseph, Missouri, and James W. Newell of St. Louis were among the relatives attending the funeral from out of the city.

Farm loans now made at 5%—Earl S. Davis, State Bank Bldg.
