Settle Those Accounts

With the closing of the year's business, we must adjust the open accounts, and this is an invitation to all knowing themselves indebted to me to come in and make adjustment of the accounts which you have run during the past.

We have to pay cash for the goods which we purchase to sell you and must start with a clean slate on February 1st, 1923. Do not wait until the last day to attend to the matter.

"The Store Where You Feel at Home."
UNION -- -- NEBRASKA

Mrs. W. A. Taylor was visiting at the home of C. A. Caygill last Sunday.

Hubert Roddy was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Monday.

C. E. Caygill threshed his wheat last week which he delivered to the elevator at Union.

A. L. Becker was looking after some business matters in Omaha during the past week.

A. F. Crunk and C. L. Nickles were unloading a car of hay which they received from Piqua, Ohio.

Dr. E. S. Furay was a visitor at his home in Omaha last Sunday remaining until Monday evening.

Herman Swanson and family were spending Sunday at the home of the folks of Mrs. Swanson at Eagle.

W. L. Taylor and family of Omaha were visiting with the family of Bert Everett near Union last Sunday.

Joe Bauer and Lottie Crawford have just completed an excellent hog house on the farm of W. B. Banning.

J. B. Roddy was looking after some business matters in Omaha last Saturday, returning home on the bus Saturday evening.

L. V. Davis of Elmwood the well digger, was digging a well at the home of Rue Frans during the first part of this week.

Little Marjorie Hoback has been quite ill for a number of days past and was not able to attend school for a number of days.

W. B. Banning was in Union for over the week end last week and returned to his work at the legislature early Monday morning.

F. H. McCarthy, the genial grain man, was called to Plattsmouth last Saturday where he had some business matters to look after.

Constable J. F. Wilson has been cutting wood on the John Lloyd place which is saving coal and also clearing the land as well.

C. F. Morton was called to Plattsmouth during the latter portion of last week to look after some business matters for a short time.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor was a visitor in Wabash last Sunday where he conducted two very interesting services at the Baptist church there.

Ben Raymond will move to Omaha in a short time to make his home while the farm will be looked after by someone who will look after farming.

Leo Roddy had the misfortune to back his car into a ditch on a piece of very bad road east of town and the rear of the top suffered some damage.

The old water tanks which have served well for the Missouri Pacific since the erection of the new stand pipe, have been torn down and are removed.

Mrs. E. B. Chapman, who has been very poorly for some time was taken to Omaha where it was suspected that she would have to undergo an operation.

Ray Frans of the Union Lumber company was a visitor in Omaha last Monday where he was looking after some business matters for the day and during his absence the business was looked after by Mr. W. H. Marks.

Winner Crawford and wife of Harrison arrived in Union last week for a visit expecting to remain for some time. They were accompanied by Thomas Crawford, son of L. W. Crawford, who will also visit at the home of his parents.

Alonzo Lacey, who was well known in the vicinity of Union a few years ago but who is making his home in Omaha, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Walter L. Nichols, Mr. Nichols and their daughter, Miss Dorothy, were guests at the home of Attorney C. L. Graves for last Sunday.

The Hot Lunch club of 1922, which won the championship in the demonstration at the state fair last fall, received its pennant. The pennant has been hung in the assembly room to remain for a time and then it will be placed in the domestic science room. Alma Frans and Virginia Harris represented the club in the demonstrations.

A number of new books were added to the library. Some of the books and their authors are: "The Pathfinder," Cooper; "The Choir Invisible," Allen; "Making of an American," Russ; "The Sketch Book," Irving; "The Vicar of Wakefield," Goldsmith; "Walden," Thoreau; "David Copperfield," Dickens; "Ramaona," Jackson; "Kenilworth," Scott; "Mill on the Floss," Eliot.

The second quarter examinations were given throughout the school on Thursday and Friday. In the high school the same plan of exemption was followed as stated before with the following pupils exempted from all examinations: Seniors, all 100 per cent; Juniors, Vera Upton; Sophomores, Cleoma Faris, Wilda Fletcher, Olyve Mae Ray, Sarah McQuinn; Freshmen, Zola Eaton and Sarah Upton. The names which follow are of pupils who were exempted from some of their examinations: Harriett Cheney, Earl Niday, Mabel Burbee, Rachel Pell, Pearl Deles Dernier, Anna Riecke, Carl Everett, Amos Crook, Elmer Fahrlander, Wymore Fletcher, George Stine, Harry Albin, Harold James, Ronald Dysart and Mildred Clark.

We feel that it is only fair to the pupil who puts forth an effort to see that he is neither absent nor tardy to receive special mention. Below is a list of the names of the pupils who have perfect attendance records for the first semester. Notices of twenty-eight of these pupils reside in the country: Harry Albin, Lucian Banning, Harry Brandt, Rose Brandt, Harriett Cheney, Amos Crook, Pearl Deles Dernier, Zola Eaton, Carl Everett, Fern Everett, Ravina Everett, Cleoma Faris, Wilda Fletcher, George Garrison, Sara Upton, Buelah Niday, Olyve Mae Ray, Daniel Reynolds, Rachel Pell, Ethel Becker, John Beant, Mildred Clark, Elmer Fahrlander, Joseph Lindsey, interested in the Helpers, club entertained them at her home last Wednesday at which time the ladies did a lot of very good work and had a most excellent time as well. Mrs. Lidgett, who is an accomplished cook served a luncheon which was rather a banquet as pronounced by those who were present.

For Sale
Thoroughbred Duroc male, cholera immuned, cheap if taken soon. Papers furnished.—H. E. Warden, Union, Neb.

Some Rejoicing You May Say
That was on account of the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCarroll of a ten and a half-pound girl who with her mother is getting along nicely. They do say there has been at times some grave fears that Harry might wander away when he is in one of his happy moods on account of the arrival. The little miss has been named Mary Margaret and is a fine young lady.

Make Excellent Start
Last Sunday at the organization of the Men's Bible Class at the Baptist bible school there was a goodly number present and much interest shown. Rev. H. H. Planck is to be congratulated for the success he has already achieved and we are in hopes this will be only a starting and the class may grow and succeed. At the Methodist church also a good class was had and all enjoyed the occasion greatly. It looks like a most promising good field for work in this line. Better get all the men interested in the work.

Showing Some Good Pictures
Messrs. Bauer and Simmons who have the picture show in hand, have been having some excellent pictures which have been appreciated by the public who have been fortunate enough to have been in attendance. Look for the announcement of the show which is to come Saturday of this week.

School Notes
Mrs. Joe Banning was a visitor in the grammar room last week.

Miss Ellis and a number of her girls enjoyed a hike Monday evening.

This is the Hall of Fame and the pictures of many a worthy hangs therein.

The pictures of the former graduating classes have been hung in the hall upstairs.

The classes of '20, '21 and '22 have not served their apprenticeship and their pictures are still hanging in the assembly room.

We have a new international dictionary in the high school assembly room. It was purchased with a part of the proceeds of the school carnival held last month.

The 10th English class has passed its task of getting the school notes ready to the 11th and 12th English class. The class wishes it all the "joy" that goes with the work.

Beginning with the second semester there will be a change in the daily schedule of studies. Civics will be taught in the 9th and 11th grades. Instead of general science and agriculture, respectively. Botany will take the place of 10th English.

Through the kindness of George Riecke, 23, the assembly room and the English room boast of three pretty and well made window boxes. The boxes have been filled with ferns, geraniums, wandering jew and other plants and add much to the attractiveness of the rooms.

P. A. A. held the third meeting Friday evening. A large crowd was present to hear the program, which consisted of entertainment furnished by Miss Ellis and Mr. O'Neal's rooms and talks by citizens of the town.

After the program a neat sum of $15.40 was realized from the refreshments which were donated by the patrons.

The Hot Lunch club of 1922, which won the championship in the demonstration at the state fair last fall, received its pennant. The pennant has been hung in the assembly room to remain for a time and then it will be placed in the domestic science room. MUCH SURPRISED AND PLEASD

From Wednesday's Daily.
Last week Walter Wunderlich of the Nehawka bank went to Omaha where he was in attendance at the meeting of the 341 machine gun company battalion which was holding its get together at the Henshaw hotel. There were about thirty-five present of those who fought in France and who were engaged in battle on the eventful 11th of November, 1918, when the truce was called. A friends of Mr. Wunderlich, Martin Jensen, fell wounded and was carried from the field and was thought to have been killed. The victory of war parted the buddies and Mr. Wunderlich had thought his friend dead until he found him at the banquet last Friday. It was a great surprise and a happy one when the friends met after a separation of four and one-half years. They were in the battle of the Meuse and at a town on the river known as Poilly.
