MURRAY -- NEBRASKA

Semi-Weekly Journal, $2 a year. John Urish from west of Mynard was looking after some business matters in Murray last Tuesday.

Frank Herring, from north of Nehawka, was transacting business with the Murray business men. Jarvis Lancaster has been operating a sawmill at the Frank Mrasek home, and doing a very nice business.

James Tilson and wife were guests last Sunday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Burbill near Dunbar.

Robert Troop shipped a car of cattle from the Plattsmouth station one day last week to the South Omaha market.

W. J. Philpot received two cars of cattle a few days since which he is putting on feed at his farm west of the city.

If your name isn't on the Journal's subscription list it should be. $2 pays for the semi-weekly edition for an entire year.

Miss Dorothy Trent, who has been ill with a very severe case of the grippe is now well on her way towards recovery.

Eugene Fitch of north of Nehawka, was looking after some business matters in Murray during the fore part of this week.

Isaac Wiles of Weeping Water was visiting with relatives and also in attendance at the sale of Mr. H. G. Tilson last Tuesday.

Winsford Yonker of near Union was looking after some business in Murray last Tuesday afternoon, driving up in his auto.

W. H. Homan is assisting in the blacksmith shop of M. Rys and is proving of much assistance to this excellent blacksmith.

John N. Larsh and family from east of Union were looking after some business matters in Murray on last Tuesday afternoon.

Last Tuesday W. J. Philpot shipped to the South Omaha market a car of excellent cattle which he has just fed at his farm west of town.

Messrs E. S. Tutt, W. G. Boedeker and E. L. Delll were attending the meeting of the Knights Templar at Plattsmouth a few evenings since.

Dr. G. L. Taylor tested the cows and other stock at the home of Miss Etta Nickles last Tuesday and found all the stock there in excellent good health.

You cannot afford to be without the news of your home community when $2 delivers the Semi-Weekly Journal to your mail box for an entire year.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hallas, and their little one were visiting with relatives and friends in Plattsmouth last Sunday as well as attending church while there.

Joseph E. Wiles and Stephen A. Wiles of Plattsmouth were in attendance at the sale which was held by Mr. Garland Tilson last Tuesday, southeast of Murray.

Messrs. W. O. Troop and C. R. Troop, the latter of Plattsmouth, were shipping three car loads of cattle to the South Omaha market from Murray last Tuesday.

Arnold Mast of west of Murray was assisting in the delivery of a bunch of cattle which Messrs Troop and Troop were shipping to the South Omaha market last Tuesday.

Garland Tilson had a sale at his home last Tuesday which attracted a large crowd of purchasers and with the exception of one team, the property offered brought very fair prices.

Hand the Journal field man a $2 bill and tell him to put your name on the list for a year's good reading. Reaches you twice as often as any newspaper published in Cass county.

Mr. J. A. Scotten, the carpenter, is building a chicken house for Mr. L. D. Hiatt, which will be used by this gentleman and his good wife for keeping a small flock for their own use.

Wm. Highfield, of Plattsmouth, representing the electric light company, was looking after some business matters in Murray last Tuesday and also reading the meters for the people here.

Albert Cotner, of Plattsmouth, and Mr. Tublene, manager of the Nebraska Gas and Electric company, were in Murray last Tuesday, looking after some business matters for a short time.

Last Saturday night there was a good crowd and a good time had by them at the dance, A. S. Graves, of Bellevue, and "Kid" Graves, of Omaha, chanced to drop in and assisted in furnishing the music.

The Journal publishes more Cass county news and reaches your home twice as often as any newspaper in this section of Nebraska. $2 delivers the semi-weekly edition to your mail box for an entire year.

A. Wilber, who has worked for G. M. Minford for the past year, has rented the Frank Grauf farm which is now owned by Mr. George Tams of Plattsmouth and will farm for himself the coming summer.

J. W. Chilton and August Meyers, the latter from Weeping Water, were over in Iowa for a number of days last week where they were looking after some business matters, they both being interested in lands there.

Mrs. Eliza Young who has been spending some time in Lincoln was brought home last Monday evening by Searl S. Davis, who chanced to be in the capital city. Mrs. Young will make her home in her own residence in Murray in the future.

Frank A. Boedeker and Ernest H. Boedeker, of Plattsmouth, were in attendance at the sale which was held by Mr. Garland Tilson last Tuesday, southeast of Murray.

LAST RITES OVER BODY OF FAMOUS SCREEN FAVORITE

Funeral Services For Wallace Reid at Los Angeles Congregational Church Saturday.

Los Angeles, Jan. 20.—The body of Wallace Reid, motion picture star, was to go on its final "location" today. That was the word used to explain his absence to his small son Billy, and that was the word used generally through the town, but it had a different meaning in each case.

To the boy, it merely meant his father was out of town, making pictures at some scene not readily duplicated at the studio.

Billy, who is five years old, and his tiny adopted sister, Betty, will not attend their father's funeral and an attempt will be made to keep them at play at home this afternoon when the last rites are performed for him.

Body in State
The body was to lie in state from 10 o'clock this morning until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Congregational church not far from the center of the downtown business district, but several miles from the Reid residence and from the scintillating in the Hollywood district, where Reid died.

The doors of the church were to be closed for an hour beginning at 2:30 o'clock and at 3:30 joint services were to be held by Episcopal clergy and the B. P. O. E., of which Reid was a member. The Rev. Neal Dodd, pastor of St. Mary's of the Angels, was to read the Episcopal service. He is known as the "chaplain of the movies" and his church at Hollywood is known as the "little church around the corner."

The officers of the Elks were to give the ritual of their order.

Police Handle Crowds
Chief of Police Oakes has detailed a large number of uniformed officers to handle the crowds expected to gather outside the church, which will hold only comparatively small congregations. Active policebearers include Bonnie Frazee, Reid's chauffeur. Others will be William S. Hart, Ed. Brady, Noah Beery, William Desmond and Eugene Pallette. Honorary policebearers will be Theodore Roberts, Jack Holt, Sam Wood, Conrad Nagel, Antonio Moreno and Victor H. Clark, who will represent Jesse Lasky, director of the Famous Players-Lasky west coast studios where Reid was employed.

The body will be cremated at a cemetery in Glendale, a suburb.

Change of Managers at Murray
C. B. Casebaer of Nebraska City and A. S. Birkman of Omaha were in Murray last Tuesday looking after some matters for the Standard Oil company, and also checking out Mr. Richard Wells, who has offered his resignation and will engage in other occupation. Mr. A. S. Birkman will look after the business of the company at Murray for a short time, during which the company will select a man for the position, which will be given on commission, the agent to furnish a truck for the hauling of the gas and oil. A number of people are being considered for the position, but as yet no selection has been determined upon.

For Sale

Hears of Father's Death
C. A. Trent received a few days since word of the passing of his father, who was making his home at Plankinton, South Dakota, and who has been in a state of poor health for some time, and had but a few days before returned from a hospital. The father, I. N. Trent, was seventy years of age and leaves besides his aged widow, seven children to mourn his departure. Mr. Trent, the elder, was born in Schuyler county, Mo., and had lived in Dakota for some time. On account of the illness of his daughter, Dorothy Elizabeth Trent, Mr. C. A. Trent was not able to get away to attend the funeral of his father.

Make a Ruling
The board of directors of the Murray Farmers Elevator company, at a meeting a short time since, passed a resolution requiring the payment of cash from all who purchase grain at the elevator. As from the effects of the hail storm, there will be a large demand for corn here from people who have not raised any, it will be necessary to do this or incur a large credit account which might engulf the company.

The Fence Got in the Way
One of the honored and much respected citizens of Murray was driving along very sedately in his auto, when a post from a nearby fence stepped right out in his way with the result that one of the fenders of his car was crumpled up considerably. No other damage was done, however.

Mr. W. P. Hutchison Very Sick
Last Saturday evening Mrs. W. P. Hutchison suffered a slight stroke which has kept this excellent lady at her home and confined to her bed since. The many friends of this good woman will receive this news with much sorrow.

DISABLED VETERAN IS BADLY INJURED
Washington, Jan. 20.—Clutching a crucifix between his teeth, James Eray, a shell shocked veteran of the war, leaped from the fourth floor of his home tonight, suffering a fractured skull, broken limbs and internal injuries.

Eray's suicide attempt was ascribed to his inability to obtain compensation from the government for his injuries sustained while in military service. He was said to be in a critical condition.

WHEAT FIRES ARE CAUSE OF SUITS

Insurance Company Files Actions Against Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific.

The Omaha Liberty Fire Insurance company filed suits in district court Saturday morning against the Union Pacific railway company and the Missouri Pacific railway company alleging sparks from locomotives caused blazes in Kansas wheat fields that had been covered by policies issued by the plaintiff. The petitions asked for a total of $2,242.11 of the Union Pacific, and $985.89 of the Missouri Pacific.

It is alleged that wheat owned by John L. Nelson, Emil N. Erickson, R. W. McInander and Ed Swanson of McPherson county, Kansas, had been damaged by fires caused by sparks from locomotives of the Missouri Pacific; that the policy holders sold their alleged causes of action to the plaintiff. The petitions asked for the damages after the fire.

Fires in Saline county, Kansas, fields owned by W. W. Gilman and John Bell are alleged to have been caused by Union Pacific locomotives to the extent of $2,242.11. It is said that the company paid sums covering the damages to the owners, who transferred their alleged causes of action against the railroad to the plaintiff corporation.

WOULD LIMIT ALL AUTOS TO THIRTY MILE SPEED

Lincoln, Jan. 22.—No motor vehicle may be operated in Nebraska after July 1, 1924, which has a potential speed of more than thirty miles an hour, under a bill introduced in the senate today by Senator Charles Smith, Fillmore.

All makes of automobiles sold in the state must be inspected by the engineering college of the University of Nebraska, to make sure that their speed is limited. The automobile must further be shown of any device that will permit of tampering with, in order to "speed it up."

The bill places license to sell automobiles in the hands of the Nebraska railway commission.

HAVE INTERESTING MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily
The meeting held last evening at the high school auditorium was attended by the parents of the scholars in the city schools, also not in the number that should have been present. The high school orchestra gave two selections at the opening of the evening and was followed by Dr. J. S. Livingston with a talk on physical care of children in their school years. Miss Wheelock, who has been here looking after the work of examining the school children from the state department of welfare, gave a very pleasing talk in which she explained the work of the department and the need of physical examinations of the children to correct many small defects in the child that might tend to hold them back from proper development in their work and in their success in school. It was very interesting throughout to those who were in attendance.

LITTLE GIRL DOING NICELY

From Wednesday's Daily
This morning, David Allen and son, Harold, of Omaha were here for a few hours looking after matters relative to their auto wreck north of this city on last Sunday evening when their car was run into by that of Murel Greko. Mr. Allen states that his little daughter, Enid, who was so severely injured in the wreck, is now doing very nicely at the Clarkson hospital where she has been placed and it is thought will recover without any serious effects from the injuries and will bear little trace of the severe accident and that Mr. Allen who is also at the hospital, is doing nicely.

PURE BRED BOARS ARE MORE EFFICIENT

(By Joe Haaga, Ass't Sec'y N. D. J. R. A.)

After an exhaustive inquiry the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, United States Department of Agriculture, announced that pure bred livestock has about 40 per cent greater earning power than scrub stock. This figure takes into account all breeds of livestock. In the case of hogs the exact figures are 38.3 per cent. These figures are based on information obtained from farmers who had used pure bred hogs for an average of nine years. About 70 per cent of the females maintained in the herds of the farmers reporting were grades, cross breeds, or scrubs. Had all the females been pure bred, it is probable that the superior earning power of pure bred hogs would have been even more pronounced.

This superior earning power of pure bred hogs is reckoned on the basis of utility alone and does not take into account the increased sale of breeding value of the animals. The superiority of pure bred hogs is due principally to: Better conformation and quality; increased production; more economical production and earlier maturity. From these facts it is readily seen that through use of pure bred hogs our farmers can increase their pork production profits at least 38 per cent even though the sow herd be composed of grades.

By using a pure bred boar the farmer can produce pigs of better conformation and quality. This insures a higher selling price on the market. The pure bred boar will increase production that he sires larger and stronger litters which means more pounds of pork per sow. In addition the progeny of the pure bred boar makes greater gains for feed consumed thus lessening production cost. And finally, the pure bred pigs mature more rapidly and are ready for market sooner.

To those who are not using pure bred hogs at this time, these figures should be cause for action. It shows clearly a loss of 38 per cent in profits due to negligence or lack of information. And it is a loss that can easily be remedied. By adding a pure bred boar to the herd the farmer can insure himself of nearly 40 per cent greater returns in raising hogs for market. These figures are worthy of thought and consideration.
