BIBLE CLASS ENJOYS A LINCOLN DAY PROGRAM

Judge Allen J. Beeson Delivers Address of the Evening on Life of Great War President.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening the Young Men's Bible class of the Methodist church observed a Lincoln day program that was very much enjoyed by the large number in attendance and carried out in a very pleasing manner the special tributes to the memory of the great national leader of civil war days, and whose choice to the presidency had seemed a dispensation of Providence at the time of the war.

The earlier part of the evening was given over to the usual sing of the members of the class and which brought forth the usual amount of enthusiasm over this feature of the evening.

After the "sing" the class enjoyed a whistling number by Alcee Louise Wescott as well as the recitation by Eugene Bushnell of Lincoln's famous address on law enforcement which is considered as one of the most famous of his many noteworthy addresses.

Judge Beeson in his remarks showed a close study of the life of Lincoln and his application of the various high lights of the life of the great president saved the audience a clearer conception of the nation Lincoln as he was known to the nation in the trying days of the civil war.

His first embarkation into the legal profession, the contest for senator in 1858 with Stephen A. Douglas as well as the period preceding the convention at Chicago in 1860 that nominated Lincoln was discussed very interestingly by the speaker and of his later life as the leader of the nation, the speaker gave a very concise outline.

Mr. Isbell has for the past few years been in extremely poor health and had suffered a stroke some time ago that has made his getting around extremely difficult, but since going to the south he has been feeling better he claimed, and a recent letter from him to the Beeson family was very bright and cheerful and full of hope for his improvement, but he has evidently suffered a change for the worse.

Judge Beeson left this morning for Hot Springs to look after the aged gentleman and assist in his care and will remain there until a change in the condition of the patient occurs.
