

MURDOCK DEPARTMENT.

PREPARED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE JOURNAL.

The Doctor never worries
About the Ice or Snow—
For he knows when the Tank contains
"Trunkenbolz" Gasoline,
His car will ALWAYS GO.

Our pure Pennsylvania Motor and Tractor Oils are the cheapest because they wear longer—A full line of Hard Oil and Greases.

-GEO. TRUNKENBOLZ OIL COMPANY-

Howard Johnson was in attendance at the sale held at the home of Ed Earnest last Thursday.

Fred Bauer of near Manley was looking after some business matters in Murdock last Thursday.

Henry A. Tool was a business visitor in Plattsmouth last Wednesday, where he drove in his auto.

The Rev. I. Laipply was a visitor at Milford for a few days last week, returning home last Wednesday.

Emil Lau was in attendance at the sale of Ed Earnest last Thursday, which was held near Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Miss Irene McDonald were visiting in Ashland one day last week.

Oliver Klemme has been having his turn with the mumps, but has come out the victor in the scrimmage.

A. H. Oehlerking was in attendance at the sale of Mr. Edward Ernest, both of Elmwood last Thursday.

Richard Tool was looking after some business matters in Omaha last Tuesday, making the trip via the train.

Messrs. A. H. Duxbury, of Plattsmouth and W. F. Diers, of Louisville were the other members of the committee.

Fred Tonack purchased a calf at the Ed Earnest sale last Thursday, which he brought home the same evening.

Harry V. McDonald and Oscar E. McDonald secured their summer's ice supply last week and of a very good quality.

Carl Schlappoff and Herman F. Schweppe shipped a car of cattle together to the market at South Omaha last Wednesday.

Messrs. Henry Bornemeier and Emil Lau harvested their crop of ice last week and got a good supply for the coming summer.

Martin Bornemeier, living south-west of Murdock, has been having an interesting time with the gripe, but is getting along nicely now.

Fred Deickman and son Fred and daughter, Miss Minnie, were visiting and looking after some business matters in Lincoln one day last week.

Miss Bertina Merckle has been assisting in the work at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Rikil, where they have been sick with the gripe.

Highest Cash Price paid for Cream, Eggs and Poultry, with fair treatment to everybody.

John Gray

Farmers' Building, Murdock, Neb.

there and will engage in the concrete mixing machinery manufacture.

The coming of a fine little Miss to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stocks last week was the signal for very much pleasure throughout the families of that line. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stocks, Sr. were blessed with some seven-sons, but no daughter came to bless their home and heretofore the grandchildren have all been boys, and the coming of the little girl was hailed with much pleasure and especially was this manifested in the person of Grandfather Fred Stocks. Of course Father Wm. Stocks was well pleased as was also the fond mother. All are doing nicely.

The young ladies of the Murdock basket ball team gave a reception to the young men of Murdock interested in basket ball last Friday, a week, the gathering being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McDonald, where a most pleasant time was had. Games and music helped make the house glide swiftly by, and a delightful luncheon heightened the pleasure which the evening afforded. Those present at the pleasant gathering were Messrs. Martin Strich, Freddy Wendt, Orville Oehlerking, Marion Schewe, Elmer Miller, Charles Zaar, Floyd Hite, Bryan McDonald and the Misses Haldegard Baumgartner, Hilda Peters, Mary Isabel Tool, Irene McDonald, Ellen Deickman, Clara Scheel, Henrietta Bauer and Martha and Ellen Gakemeier.

Max Dusterhoff made a large shoe, large enough for an old woman to live in, which was used at the play which the school was giving on last Friday evening.

Miss Rhena Towle has been spending a week at the McHugh home, and came with her father and mother, George Towle, who visited here also for one day.

Emil Kuehn was looking after some business matters in Murdock last week and enjoyed the occasion very much, as well as getting some good ideas from the discussions.

The schools of Murdock purchased a beautiful bouquet for the mother of their friends the children as a gift for the school, which they sent to the home on the day of the funeral.

Dr. S. B. MacDiarmid and family came down from Omaha last Sunday to help celebrate the 45th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, who were married February 18, 1878, at South Bend, Ind.

J. J. Gustin was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth and also there as a jurymen during a day or two last week, but was excused as were others of the panel on Wednesday evening.

Emil Kuehn, J. G. Scheel departed last Friday for Ong, where they will visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Glen Bozwell and husband for a few days. Mrs. Bozwell was formerly Miss Anna Scheel.

Theodore Thimgan of Elgin, where he has been living for the past ten years, arrived in Murdock on last Thursday for a short visit with his brothers, Edward and Matt Thimgan and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tool were at Louisville for a short time last Thursday afternoon, where Mrs. Tool was meeting with a committee to formulate by-laws for the Cass County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Wm. Leuchens has, with the assistance of the neighbors been putting up his summer's supply of ice, getting it from Weeping Water creek near Wabash. The ice was very nice, being about fourteen inches in thickness.

The girls' basket ball team of the Murdock school will take part in the state tournament which is to be held at the normal school at Peru in the near future while the boys' team will play in the tournament which will be held in Lincoln in a short time.

W. E. Palmeter, who has been living a few miles north of Murdock on a farm, has rented the same to Mr. Roger and is moving his household effects to Elmwood, where he owns property and will make his home there and will engage in the concrete mixing machinery manufacture.

The coming of a fine little Miss to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stocks last week was the signal for very much pleasure throughout the families of that line. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stocks, Sr. were blessed with some seven-sons, but no daughter came to bless their home and heretofore the grandchildren have all been boys, and the coming of the little girl was hailed with much pleasure and especially was this manifested in the person of Grandfather Fred Stocks. Of course Father Wm. Stocks was well pleased as was also the fond mother. All are doing nicely.

The young ladies of the Murdock basket ball team gave a reception to the young men of Murdock interested in basket ball last Friday, a week, the gathering being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. McDonald, where a most pleasant time was had. Games and music helped make the house glide swiftly by, and a delightful luncheon heightened the pleasure which the evening afforded. Those present at the pleasant gathering were Messrs. Martin Strich, Freddy Wendt, Orville Oehlerking, Marion Schewe, Elmer Miller, Charles Zaar, Floyd Hite, Bryan McDonald and the Misses Haldegard Baumgartner, Hilda Peters, Mary Isabel Tool, Irene McDonald, Ellen Deickman, Clara Scheel, Henrietta Bauer and Martha and Ellen Gakemeier.

Max Dusterhoff made a large shoe, large enough for an old woman to live in, which was used at the play which the school was giving on last Friday evening.

Miss Rhena Towle has been spending a week at the McHugh home, and came with her father and mother, George Towle, who visited here also for one day.

Emil Kuehn was looking after some business matters in Murdock last week and enjoyed the occasion very much, as well as getting some good ideas from the discussions.

The schools of Murdock purchased a beautiful bouquet for the mother of their friends the children as a gift for the school, which they sent to the home on the day of the funeral.

Dr. S. B. MacDiarmid and family came down from Omaha last Sunday to help celebrate the 45th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, who were married February 18, 1878, at South Bend, Ind.

J. J. Gustin was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth and also there as a jurymen during a day or two last week, but was excused as were others of the panel on Wednesday evening.

Emil Kuehn, J. G. Scheel departed last Friday for Ong, where they will visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Glen Bozwell and husband for a few days. Mrs. Bozwell was formerly Miss Anna Scheel.

Theodore Thimgan of Elgin, where he has been living for the past ten years, arrived in Murdock on last Thursday for a short visit with his brothers, Edward and Matt Thimgan and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tool were at Louisville for a short time last Thursday afternoon, where Mrs. Tool was meeting with a committee to formulate by-laws for the Cass County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Wm. Leuchens has, with the assistance of the neighbors been putting up his summer's supply of ice, getting it from Weeping Water creek near Wabash. The ice was very nice, being about fourteen inches in thickness.

The girls' basket ball team of the Murdock school will take part in the state tournament which is to be held at the normal school at Peru in the near future while the boys' team will play in the tournament which will be held in Lincoln in a short time.

PASSING OF MRS. DAVID CAMPBELL

The community was greatly shocked Tuesday forenoon of last week, when word was received of the death of Mrs. David Campbell at her home north of Murdock.

As she had not been ill until within a few minutes of her death the news came as a great shock to her friends and relatives.

The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon, short services being conducted at the house by the Royal Neighbors, of which the deceased was a member, after which the remains were taken to the Methodist church at Ashland, where services were held by Rev. Haskell. The music was rendered by a choir of that place. The church was filled with sympathizing friends and relatives and the floral messages were many and beautiful.

Mr. Campbell spent the greater part of her life in Cass county, always rendering loving service in her home and loving to help others by eagerly sharing their joys and sorrows, which endeared her to a large circle of acquaintances.

Minnie Pauline Bornman was born in the vicinity of Murdock on April 8, 1879. She was married to David Campbell at Plattsmouth on January 2, 1899. To this union were born three children. She died at Murdock, February 20, 1923, aged 43 years, 19 months and 12 days. She leaves to mourn her death her husband and three children, Oliver, Chester and Gladys, of Murdock; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Kraft, of Louisville and Mrs. Augusta Klatt, of Herrington, Kansas, as well as three brothers, Charles Bornman, of Salina, Kansas; Fred of Ashland and John of South Bend.

Mrs. Campbell was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church on March 18, 1894.

Darling Minnie, thou has left us, And our loss we deeply feel; But 'tis good that hast bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

Card of Thanks
We take this means of expressing our thanks for the sympathy and kindness shown us at the time of the death of our dear wife and mother. The kindness of neighbors and friends will be long and gratefully remembered and may they meet with the same loving sympathy. We also desire to thank the R. N. of A., the Woodmen, Odd Fellows and others for the beautiful flowers.—David Campbell and Family.

W. T. WEDDELL
H-w.

Married at Lincoln
Saturday, February 17th, at Lincoln, was celebrated the ceremony which made Miss Lydia Wutchinek, of Murdock, and Albert Billington, of Lincoln, husband and wife. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Esgold of Lincoln. The bride is well and very favorably known to all the people of Murdock and vicinity, who are extending their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life, and for good health and prosperity. The groom is a graduate of Lincoln and a most estimable young man. The newly wedded couple will make their home in Lincoln.

THE CALL COMES SUDDENLY
Mr. Craig Balsh came to the neighborhood of Murdock something like eleven years ago and first stopped at the home of A. A. Lindell, where he has made his home since, but a portion of the time working elsewhere. For more than six years he has worked at the Lindell home. For the past few months he has been staying at the home of Gust Bornemeier where he has looked after the chores and worked also, cooking for himself, as Mr. Bornemeier has made his home most of the time in Lincoln. On Friday of last week he was assisting in shelling corn at the home of Martin Bornemeier and was feeling pretty poorly, his heart thumping very badly, and concluded to go to the house until noon and accordingly went to the home of Gust Bornemeier which is but a short distance from where the shelling was being done. He had entered the house and gotten some fuel for starting a fire and had apparently turned around for a match to light the kindling when he had fallen over and probably expired at once as no evidence of a struggle were apparent. At noon Martin Bornemeier went to call him to come to dinner and on entering the room found the body of Mr. Balsh lying on the floor near the stove as he had fallen. The mother, Mrs. Nora Balsh of Newberry, Idaho, was notified and came here. The funeral was held on Wednesday last at the Callihan church and interment made at the cemetery there. Mr. Balsh was held high by the large circle of friends which he had won by his pleasing manners.

Card of Thanks
I desire to express how much I appreciate the kindnesses of the many friends which I have found in and near Murdock for the kindnesses which they showed at the time of the death of my dear son, Craig Balsh, and for the floral token of love and respect for him. Again I thank you and your friends for your kindness.—Mrs. Nora Balsh.

THE MARCH RED BOOK
They are here at the Journal stationery department and ready for the reading public. Call for the Red Book early. Also the new Argosy, American and all the current motion picture magazines at the Journal.

ADVERTISING IS PUBLIC SERVICE
Newspaper advertising in itself is a public service. It is the shortest route to maximum business, hence the shortest route to the lowest cost.

AMERICAN LABOR BILL DIES
Lincoln, Feb. 21.—The house today, by a vote of 25 to 69, killed the Jacoby bill which would have prohibited the employment of any persons but American citizens on the public works of the state.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21.—A subpoena requiring his appearance in the supreme court here next Friday was served upon William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the antialcohol league here today.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Mr. Anderson will be called as a witness in the hearing on the petition of a group of Troy citizens to have the antialcohol league declared a political organization and, as such, compelled to make a report to the secretary of state regarding its receipts and disbursements.

SEVEN STARS DECLARE INDEPENDENCE OF COMBINE
Film Actors Make Declaration After Meeting at Pickford-Fairbanks' Home.
Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Seven stars of filmdom today signed a "declaration of independence," denouncing what they declared is the growth of commercialism in the movies.

Announce "Artistic Combine"
The stars announced an "artistic combine" to protect "the independent producer and independent exhibitor" and to keep faith with the public.

The pronouncement presages a million-dollar organization, which will act to see that independent stars get adequate returns from their pictures and that their pictures are not sidetracked merely because of a combine of theatre owners or trust-owned theatres, it was declared.

The pressure of all the stars will be applied wherever the evil is found to exist. The new group will not be a producing organization, as several already have contracts which run for some time. Eventually they may produce together, they said.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21.—A subpoena requiring his appearance in the supreme court here next Friday was served upon William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the antialcohol league here today.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Mr. Anderson will be called as a witness in the hearing on the petition of a group of Troy citizens to have the antialcohol league declared a political organization and, as such, compelled to make a report to the secretary of state regarding its receipts and disbursements.

SEVEN STARS DECLARE INDEPENDENCE OF COMBINE
Film Actors Make Declaration After Meeting at Pickford-Fairbanks' Home.
Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Seven stars of filmdom today signed a "declaration of independence," denouncing what they declared is the growth of commercialism in the movies.

Announce "Artistic Combine"
The stars announced an "artistic combine" to protect "the independent producer and independent exhibitor" and to keep faith with the public.

The pronouncement presages a million-dollar organization, which will act to see that independent stars get adequate returns from their pictures and that their pictures are not sidetracked merely because of a combine of theatre owners or trust-owned theatres, it was declared.

The pressure of all the stars will be applied wherever the evil is found to exist. The new group will not be a producing organization, as several already have contracts which run for some time. Eventually they may produce together, they said.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 21.—A subpoena requiring his appearance in the supreme court here next Friday was served upon William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the antialcohol league here today.

DRY LEADER SUMMONED INTO NEW YORK COURT
Mr. Anderson will be called as a witness in the hearing on the petition of a group of Troy citizens to have the antialcohol league declared a political organization and, as such, compelled to make a report to the secretary of state regarding its receipts and disbursements.

CHARGES BANKERS SPURNED BRYAN'S PROPOSAL TO AID

Dr. P. L. Hall Relates "Inside Story" of Banking Situation at Committee Hearing.

Lincoln, Feb. 22.—"The break of Governor Charles W. Bryan with state bankers over banking legislation grew out of the spurning of the governor's offer to work with the state bankers' association quietly, and agree on changes in the bank guaranty law without the publicity that would shake public faith in the guaranty fund."

Detail by detail, Dr. P. L. Hall of Lincoln, dean of Nebraska legislators and former secretary of the state banking board, related the "inside story" to a hundred bankers and legislators tonight at the hearing before the senate banking committee on the committee's substitute for the bankers' bill, which had been opposed by most of the bankers in the course of the evening.

Bankers had been influenced by "the greatest propaganda ever known in Nebraska," Dr. Hall charged. "To take control to themselves." He saw in it an effort centering largely on the keeping of Governor Bryan entirely out of banking affairs, over which the governor now has jurisdiction.

"Following the governor's suggestion to me and by him communicated to officers of the state bankers' association, twelve of the leading bankers of the state met in Lincoln and appointed a committee to draft amendments to the bank guaranty law," Dr. Hall said.

"Peculiar Thing Happened"
"A peculiar thing happened then, gentlemen. Two days later the Nebraska Agricultural Loan association met in Omaha and upset everything that had been done in Lincoln."

"It abrogated to itself all knowledge of banking needs, and it used the bankers' association to spread the greatest propaganda I have ever known to be carried on in this state."

"Meanwhile Governor Bryan had notified the association to call in a dozen of the best bankers in the state and he would let them name any one of the nine applicants for head of the banking department, or he, himself would name any other person these bankers might choose."

"Immediately rumors and reports growing out of this propaganda reached Mr. Bryan. He withdrew his offer to let the head of the department be named."

"This affair is in the hands of Philistines and not Nebraska bankers," Dr. Hall stated. "The meeting broke up after Dr. Hall had finished, without a word of comment on his statements, except from A. L. Schantz, president of the State Bank of Omaha."

"I want it understood that at no time has the state agricultural loan association ever discussed this bill nor has it discussed politics," he said. "Other directors of the association will vouch for it."

No Questions Raised
Dr. Hall told his hearers that the president and the secretary of the state bankers' association, who were present, would vouch as to Governor Bryan's tenders to co-operate. But no questions were raised.

"If the bankers' association bill, House Roll 272, which passed the house, is passed by the legislature, Governor Bryan will veto it," Dr. Hall declared. "If it is passed over the veto, it will be submitted to a referendum of the people."

"Since all the cards are on the table, and since remedial legislation is necessary, there is nothing left to do, but for a committee to be appointed, made up of members of the legislative committee on banking and members of the association and work out with Mr. Bryan a bill that he will agree to," suggested John Tully, Crete, Neb., banker. No action was taken, however, before adjournment.

Dr. Hall told the bankers that Governor Bryan would gladly agree on any reasonable bill, but he would insist that the association forego its stand on a banking commission of the state, and forego its contention that the guaranty fund be handed to the bankers and they alone should have the say as to its disposition.

Dr. Hall outlined his opposition to the bankers' bill as follows:

A commission named by bankers would be only a "smelling committee" and its members would be rewarded and enemies punished.

Bankers would have control of examiners whom they can use for selfish ends.

The guaranty fund belongs to depositors and not to the banks, for the protection of their deposits.

The bill is designed to cripple the banking department itself, for the purpose of embarrassing Governor Bryan.

He commended in general the senate committee substitute bill, which would make the banking commission appointive by the governor and advisory and was drafted with a view to meeting Governor Bryan's approval. Some minor features of the bill were criticized.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

AGENCY FOR THE CURTIS PUBLICATIONS
The Journal stationery department has been designated as the agency for the Curtis Publishing Co. in this city and will in the future handle the Saturday Evening Post, the Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman in amounts to supply the demands of the readers of these publications. The Journal will have a full supply of all of these publications hereafter and they will be ready for the patrons on the day of release.

Real Motor Oil!

Motor oils are used for lubricants, and when they fail in that they are worthless. We are selling REAL OIL, the one that does the best work. See us for your oils. Tires that are well worthwhile, and at prices which will save you money. The genuine Ford parts are used in all Ford repairing.

See us for that new Buick which you are contemplating getting. We always have one on our floors and more than glad to demonstrate the same.

E. W. THIMGAN,

Murdock, Nebraska

BANKERS ARE FOR HOUSE BILL, THEY TELL COMMITTEE

Henry Schneider of This City Among Those Heard Before Senate Banking Committee.

As a result of the announcement of Dr. P. L. Hall that he believed there would be no trouble over a bill amending the banking law if those interested in bills before the legislature would give up the theory that the guaranty fund belongs to bankers instead of to depositors, and will abandon the selection of a group of bankers to appoint special examiners of their own to examine banks at their pleasure to have more or less charge of the guaranty fund, no movement has been made to follow the suggestion of John Tully of Crete that the state bankers' association get together on a bill that will be acceptable to Governor Bryan and bankers, but there is a tendency in the senate to sit up and take notice of the senate banking committee's proposed substitute for S. F. 105 and H. R. 272, says the Lincoln State Journal.

This substitute contains features which are complained of by Dr. Hall. Although Dr. Hall disclaimed speaking for Governor Bryan, his message was delivered in such a manner as to give the impression that the word has come direct from the governor that the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report that the governor will veto the bankers' bill if it is passed by both houses with practically no opposition. Those who doubt, try to convince themselves that if the bill is passed by a big majority of both houses, the governor will veto the companion bills in the house and senate would be vetoed if passed and if passed over the veto will be suspended by a referendum petition and sent to a vote of the electors of the state.

Some profess to doubt the reliability of the report