GREAT BASKET BALL GAME HERE LAST EVENING

Hastings, One of the Fastest in the State. Loses to Plattsmouth By Score of 27 to 25.

From Saturday's Daily. In a game that was close and exciting from the start, the Plattsmouth high school basketball team last night won from the Hastings high school by the score of 27 to 25 in a hat-raisng finish that required an extra five-minute period to complete.

The Hastings team is reputed one of the fastest in the central portion of the state and plays Omaha Technical high school tonight and is considered one of the class A teams of the state.

The game last evening saw the Plattsmouth team battling from the start with fury and determination and filled with the spirit of fight to carry off the honors of the game. Koubek was one of the outstanding figures in his strong guarding of the visitors and held them at many times from scoring while Krefel was more fortunate in his basket tossing than in the Nebraska City game and scored the decisive basket in the last few seconds of the extra time period.

In the opening half the struggle was a tie almost all the way thru, first one and then the other would gain a point only to be tied again and at the close of this half the Plattsmouth team stood two points the good, 13 to 11.

The closeness of the game continued all the way through the second half and both sides scored some long and sensational baskets in this section of the game which kept the rosters on their feet cheering. As the game drew to the close both teams exerted themselves to the utmost and it seemed that Plattsmouth would have a small margin but the Hastings team was able to snag a goal which left the tally 21 to 21 when the whistle was blown.

An extra five minutes was allowed to give the teams a chance to break the tie and right away both teams scored of the extra time. Krefel dumped the ball into the basket for the winning score, but the hard-fighting out-staters with a long throw again tied the count. In the very last few seconds of the extra time, Krefel dumped the ball into the basket for the winning score that gave the locals the honors of the evening.

The lineup of the locals was Koubek and Gradoville, forwards; Krefel, center, and Warga and Wasley, guards.

Preceding the big game of the evening, the freshmen of the high school took the sophomores to a decided cleaning by the score of 12 to 2 and for the greater part of the game it looked as though the sophs were doomed to a shut out until Svoboda poked over a field goal which prevented a whitewash.

The next game of the high school here and which will close the season will be that with Creighton Prep school on next Friday evening and will be one of the big games of the year.

CARS HAVE SMASH-UP

From Saturday's Daily. This noon S. A. VanWinkle was coming east through the alley with his Ford and turned into Fourth street at the same time that the car of Joe Campbell who resides south of the city was also going north and as a result of the collision both cars were more or less damaged. The front right hand wheel of the VanWinkle car was completely torn off and the fenders badly bent while the rear fender on the left hand side of the Campbell car was badly dented and mashed. The responsibility for the accident was disputed by the parties who were driving the cars.

DEATH COMES TO YOUNG MAN VERY SUDDENLY

Edward G. Lutz Passed Away Last Evening After Short Illness From Pneumonia.

From Saturday's Daily. Last night shortly after the midnight hour, Edward G. Lutz, who has for several months been a resident of this city, answered the final summons and passed to his reward after an illness of several days duration due to pneumonia and flu.

Mr. Lutz was at the time of death twenty-two years of age and had Fairbank, Nebraska, for practically his entire lifetime, and was a member of the national guard company in that city. He came to Plattsmouth several months ago and entered the employ of the Burlington at which he continued up to the time he died.

His sickness began about ten days ago Mr. Lutz was married and had arranged to start housekeeping here with the view of making his permanent home in this city and had everything arranged to start out in the new home when he was stricken down. He came from his work in the shops to the room of his brother-in-law in Coates block where with Mrs. Lutz he was to enjoy a family meal and while at lunch was stricken with the attack of pneumonia and from which he never recovered, being compelled to remain there until the end last night.

The body was taken this afternoon to the old home at Fairmont for interment where the funeral will be conducted by the national guard. A delegation of former service men here acted as pall bearers for the fallen soldier to the station.

The deceased young man was a nephew of Mrs. J. P. Falter and Mrs. P. H. Meisinger of this county, and to those who knew him he was held in the highest esteem as a straightforward and trustworthy young man in every sense of the term.

FUNERAL OF MRS. R. T. PROPST AT SO. OMAHA

On Tuesday, February 20th, from the M. E. church at 25th and E streets, South Omaha, was held the funeral of Mrs. R. T. Propst, the services being conducted by the Rev. C. L. Frensch of Ralston, which she was taken in death at the age of 37 years, 2 months and 4 days.

Mrs. Propst had made her home in Ralston for the past fourteen years and was well known and beloved for her kindly disposition by everyone who knew her. She was reared to womanhood in Cass county on the old Taylor farm south of this city, and made that her home until her marriage to Mr. Propst on June 18, 1908.

This union were born four children, Dorothy Evelyn, Violet Florice, Robert Taylor and an infant daughter, all of whom survive, as well as her mother, Mrs. W. A. Taylor (who is making her home in Oklahoma and was unable to attend the funeral); two brothers, Charles E. Taylor, of Waukomis, Oklahoma, and Wm. H. Taylor, of Gordon, Nebraska; and three sisters, Mrs. G. W. Pugsley, of Persia, Iowa; Mrs. E. O. Friong, of Steamboat Springs, Colorado; and Mrs. J. L. Stamp of Plattsmouth.

The esteem in which this estimable lady was held is shown by the unusually large floral offering from friends as well as wholesalers and business associates of Mr. Propst. Members of the Ralston Woman's club attended the funeral in a body. Mrs. Propst having been a prominent member of that organization.

HAVE REAL EXPERIENCE

R. B. Kirkham and bride, formerly Miss Dolly Henry of Streator, Ill., arrived Monday from their wedding trip to Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul. They will be at home to their friends after March 1, in the Jack O'Connor cottage in the south part of town. Monday night a number of Dick's Legion friends kidnaped the bride and groom and gave them a gorgeous joy ride through the streets of the city. The vehicle used was a "Packard" wagon, vintage '56, which was attached to a truck, the wheels of the wagon being generously loaded with tin cans, cowbells and other implements calculated to awaken the dead. After the parade the bride and groom were returned home, none the worse for the experience.—Bell Fourche Post.

The groom is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Beal of this city and a nephew of John Kirkham.

CELEBRATE FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Last Thursday evening, February 15, while Mr. and Mrs. Will Langhorst were sitting by the fireside and enjoying the peace and quiet of the evening, they were greatly surprised when they heard soft serenades of love coming to them from without. They opened the door and were greeted by serenaders who were their beloved friends and neighbors of a couple decades ago.

As the guests assembled, Miss Edna Miller softly played that melodious old German song which all sang, "All is Well, For God is Love."

The evening was spent in conversation and music. Special musical features were: violin solos by Mr. Ricketts and songs by the ladies quartet, Mesdames Schlapf, Rosenow, Miller and Thimgan.

The anniversary cake was baked by Mrs. Carl Schlapf. It was a large Angel food, appropriately decorated and bore 40 candles which signified the anniversary year. Delicacies, cake, pickles and coffee were served by the guests. A beautiful rug was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Langhorst as a token of the esteem and love which the guests held for them.

The guests were wishing the Langhorsts many more milestones in their happily wedded life. Mr. Frank Rosenow, with his beautiful bass voice led the song, "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again."

This was a fitting climax to the evening and the cherished memory of the Langhorsts as they go on life's way sharing its sunshine and its shadows. May America have more such homes as this!

The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schlapf, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miller, Mrs. D. Miller, Frank Rosenow, Mr. and Mrs. August Oehrling, and their families; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luetchens, Mrs. Ed Thimgan and children and Mr. Ricketts.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

TO ALL INTERESTED PARTIES

Notice has heretofore been sent out by this commission, designating March 2 as the time and Lincoln as the place for a general hearing on intrastate grain rates in Nebraska, and for investigation of specific maladjustments on interstate rates which might warrant the seeking of relief from the interstate commerce commission.

Certain conferences are being arranged with regard to these matters, both as to intrastate shipments and interstate shipments, with a view to ironing out the maladjustments and the securing of a reasonable level of rates where such level now appears unreasonable. These conferences have interfered, and will interfere, with the preparation of exhibits in the general investigation. It seems desirable, therefore, that the hearing designated for March 2 be postponed to a date which will be announced later. Please be governed accordingly.

CORN AT A DOLLAR AGAIN!

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 22.—'Corn will sell for $1 a bushel next year,' Dr. David Friday, authority on agriculture economics, predicted here.

Dr. Friday, president of the Michigan agriculture college, based his prediction on the exceptionally small crop expected in 1923 in face of an almost certain large increase in domestic and foreign demands.

He was called here by railroads as a witness in the interstate commerce commission hearing on the request of fourteen western states for a 10 per cent freight reduction on grain and grain products.

Dr. Friday painted a word picture of prosperity for the farmers in 1923 rivaling the good times and high prices immediately preceding and following the war.

That of the ten million automobiles in use, the seating capacity is 47,000,000?

That in the last year, the mileage of rail passenger facilities totaled 47,000,000 miles?

That the average number of passengers per automobile is two, and the average mileage per car is 5,000, making a total of 100,000,000,000 automobile passenger miles per year or more than twice as much as is covered by the railroad?

That the greatest transportation medium in the country is the highway?

That the highway has become one of the permanent cornerstones of our economic structure?

That the efficiency of this fundamental social, industrial and commercial function rests solely upon the traffic initiative and intelligence of the people?—Nebraska State Monthly.

THREAT MADE TO SUE PRESIDENT HARDING

Washington, Feb. 21.—Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, said today that information had been given him that some of the twenty-eight bureau of printing and engraving employees, dismissed about a year ago by order of President Harding, had decided to bring an action against the president for defamation of character.

"The immunity against malicious slander does not clothe the executive," Senator Caraway told the senate. "Wisely or otherwise, the constitution clothes us with the right to express opinion in a debate in the senate and the house and not be required to answer elsewhere, but such immunity does not run with the president of the United States, and I feel certain that what never happened before in the history of this country is going to happen now—that one of these discharged employees is going to sue the president of the United States for willful, malicious defamation of character, and the president, like any other citizen, is going to the bar of justice in a court room in the city of Washington and answer that charge.
