FINDS FORDS AND LINCOLNS GO BIG

Omaha Auto Show Brings Out Popularity of These Two Makes, Says Their Local Agent.

Mr. G. K. Petting, local Ford dealer has just returned home from Omaha where he attended the automobile show, is most enthusiastic over the Lincoln and Ford car exhibits.

"The Lincoln car exhibit of the Ford Motor company at once attracted the attention of everyone interested in quality cars," he said. "The Lincoln models show remarkable advances in the construction of fine motor car body work and are distinguished by superior finish. Mechanically the cars reveal a number of refinements and a new conception in finish of the working parts of the motor itself. All developments in the Lincoln tend toward the ultimate perfection in automobile design and construction."

"New improvements in the Ford cars, both open and enclosed models, drew enthusiastic comments. The finish is now of a high quality aspect. The new slanting windshield on the open models is most popular and persons interested in the enclosed types remark upon the excellence of the fabrics used in the upholstery. Indeed, the new Ford models adhere in every way to modern dictates of style. The high excellence of Ford performance is, of course, universally recognized."

Reports coming in to the Omaha branch show surprising sales of Ford cars and indications are that a short-coming will come by early spring. Sales now are running more than 100,000 a month, have been since last April, in fact, January sales totalled 100,118.

"There is no question but what the prospective purchaser of a Ford car will act wisely if he places his order immediately. Then he will be assured of having his car when he wants it for spring and summer driving and will not have to wait."

Mrs. T. L. Ames who has been making her home in Glenwood, Ia., answered the call of the death angel at the state institute last Friday, where she has been sick for some time. Mrs. Ames, nee Miss DeMarie McCulloch, was born July 5, 1848, in Warren county, Ill., and when a girl of 13 with her parents moved to Nevada county, Missouri, where she lived for seven years, thence to Iowa, where she was united in marriage on December 1, 1859, to T. L. Ames, a newly married couple.

They came to Nebraska to live where she has lived most of her life except the time she has spent at the institute at Glenwood, Iowa, where she has been since 1891 working and doing all she could as she always wanted to be busy doing something and worked there nearly two years, with the exception of ten months spent in Mynard.

She was eldest of 9 children all of whom preceded this excellent woman in the great beyond with the single exception of one sister, Mrs. Ira Bosworth of Wabash. There also remains to mourn her departure, Mrs. Frank Marler, an adopted daughter of Murray, also six nieces, Mrs. Tom Colbert and Mrs. Clarence Ohm of Wabash; Mrs. Jesse Jones of Eagle, Mrs. Ben Junkins of Havelock, Mrs. Floyd Chalfant of Grand Island and Mrs. Maude McCulloch of Murray, and three nephews, James and Lester Bosworth of Wabash and Edward McCulloch of Murray and four great nieces, five great nephews and one great grand niece.

Mrs. Ames was a member of the Christian church for the past forty years being a member at one time of the Rock Creek church in this country.

The body was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marler on last Saturday, the funeral being held from their home Sunday. The services being conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union. The interment being made at the Young cemetery. Mrs. Ames' life was one filled with good deeds and loving actions. She worked her full measure of days, being 82 years and nearly eight months of age.

Had a Nice Time
Last Monday found John Farris just completing his fiftieth year and looking at the portals of the fifty-third. Mrs. Farris had baked a fine cake for which she is renowned, and on top of the same were the figures "52" indicating the number of years that John had been in the game.

Radio Worked Inside House
"Curley" Reeves, who is somewhat of a radio fan, has his home at Richters and last Monday evening, having no aerial, attached a wire from a nail on the side of the room to the stove pipe on the other, and was able to get Chicago with this improvised method. We know of another fan who lays a 26-foot piece of lamp cord on the floor under the rug, and with its tunes in such distant stations at Port Worth, Atlanta and Denver.

Mrs. Long at Omaha Hospital
Mrs. Henry C. Long, accompanied by Mr. Long, went to Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for the improvement of her eye sight. Mrs. Long has a growth on her eyes which has impaired her vision and was growing worse, and went to the institution for the purpose of getting relief. On last Friday she had the growth removed and will have to remain in a darkened room with the eyes bandaged for eight days after which she has another bandage placed on them which remains three days, after which she will be allowed to see again. It is hoped she will have her eyes entirely cured.

Gives Birthday Dinner
Last Tuesday evening, Mrs. T. W. Vallery of near Murray invited about thirty relatives to a 7 o'clock dinner in honor of the sixty-third anniversary of Mr. Vallery. The dinner was served in three courses and was as delicious a repast as could be desired. The centerpiece was a large birthday cake baked by a daughter, Mrs. Tom Tilson. Another large white cake with the word "Father" worked in red, was presented to Mr. Vallery by one of the family.

After the dinner the relatives were invited to the parlor where a few musical selections were given by the grandchildren. After a few hours of visiting, all departed for their homes, wishing Mr. Vallery a fine hostess and wishing Mr. Vallery many more such gatherings.

This name is an impersonal one and is taken from the key in which this beautiful melody was originally written. It sounds very much like one of Mendelssohn's "Songs Without Words," as it was written by Rubenstein soon after his return to Russia from study in Germany with Mendelssohn.

It has been set to many different poems, the most familiar is "Welcome Sweet Springtime."

Rubenstein (1830-1894) has been called the "Father of the Russian School." He was a wonderful pianist and made a concert tour in this country in 1872.

Wagner was banished from Germany for 12 years. He was exiled because of certain political statements he made. While absent he wrote Lohengrin and his one comic opera, "The Meistersinger." In the last act of the opera takes place the song contest. By the singing of this song, the young Walter wins the contest and the hand of Eva, the maiden he loves.

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Pruning Grapes and Orchards
Pruning demonstrations were held on the following farms, A. A. Gehring, Wabash, Rudolph Umland, Eagle, Jim Lienzer and Chas. Engelke, Weeping Water, and Jerome St. John, Nehawka. Mr. Hoppert of the extension service was with us and showed the different methods of pruning grapes. The can method seems to be the easiest to follow. Eighty men and women attended these meetings. Write or phone the farm bureau for bulletins 1231, "Managing the Home Orchard" and 62, "Establishing the Home Orchard."

Grow Asparagus
Asparagus should have a place in every home vegetable garden in Cass county. It is the earliest of all vegetables and therefore fills a great need. In the spring most of us crave a change from canned and stored vegetables and asparagus will give us that change. Asparagus is easy to grow and after once it is well established and given good care it will furnish a bountiful supply of early spring vegetable for ten or fifteen years. The plants are usually transplanted into the permanent bed as one year old "crowns" which are simply young plants in the dormant state. These crowns may be bought from seed or nursery men, but may also be raised from seed, sowing the seed several inches apart in the row and cultivating constantly for a year, then transplanting the following spring. One ounce of seed should be sufficient for the farm garden. The palmetto variety is the variety, which seems to do the best, the "crowns" are transplanted. For further information write or phone the farm bureau office for bulletin 937, "The Farm Garden in the North," also bulletin 829, "Asparagus."

Plattsmouth Precinct Meeting
The ladies near Mynard met at the home of Mrs. Will Richardson, Jr., Feb. 27, and spent the day fitting dresses, planning collars, attractive stitches and other finishes. This club has made about twenty dresses. At the next meeting, April 6, at the home of Mrs. Elbert Wiles, all the dresses will be on display.

Girls Sewing Club
Six girls met Saturday morning, Feb. 24, at the home of Mrs. Otto

Spreick and organized a sewing club of six active members and two other girls wish to join at the next meeting. The following officers were elected: Local leader, Mrs. Elmer Johnson; president, Esther Albert; vice president, Leola Hill; secretary, Augusta Spreick. The club voted to meet every two weeks. Mrs. Spreick served a delicious dinner.

Fairview Club Meets
Seventeen ladies met at the home of Mrs. Skyle Miller February 26 and spent the day fitting dresses and planning collars, cuffs and other finishes. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fred Schaffer April 10.

Pruning Demonstration
Thursday, March 1, the men and women of Clover Leaf club near Wabash, met at the home of Mrs. Chas. Earls. The first part of the afternoon, Mr. Hoppert, horticultural specialist from the college of agriculture, gave a very interesting pruning demonstration at the home of Mr. Albert Dehning. After the pruning demonstration we went back to Mrs. Earls' home and Mr. Hoppert discussed the need of green vegetables in the early spring, and advocated the planting of more spinach, asparagus and other greens for the early garden. He also discussed the late vegetables for the garden to be used and stored for winter use. Mr. Hoppert will probably give several demonstrations in the fall on the storage of fruits and vegetables. The next meeting of this club will be April 25 at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and they will take a short course in millinery.

EX-CONGRESSMAN COMING
R. H. Thorpe of Lincoln, who has been filling out the remainder of the term of Congressman C. Frank Reavis, in the First district, is returning home and expects to be a visitor in Plattsmouth as soon as possible after his return and to look over his political fences. The short term has had a taste of the life of a congressman and has announced that in 1924 he will be a candidate for the regular term and will seek the republican nomination. The way to either nomination or election, however, is a long way off and the "boy orator" is apt to find it filled with pitfalls even before he secures the nomination and then he has no inconsiderable task should Congressman-elect Morehead decide to shie his hat into the ring again.
