MURDOCK MEAT MARKET

coln with friends last week, making the trip via the train.

John Scheel was a visitor in Elmwood last Thursday, where he was advertising the sale which his father is to have on March 16th.

Mrs. John Gakemeier departed last Thursday for Dunning, where Mr. Gakemeier is in the cattle business and will remain for some time.

Misses Catherine and Margaret, who are attending school at Lincoln visited over the week end at the home of their parents here.

Myron McDonald was attending the basket ball tournament at Lincoln last Thursday, going to witness the game between Murdock and Brady.

Harold Bronkow is enjoying a new Ford coupe, or would be if the roads were so that he could use it, which he purchased from the Ford dealer at Ashland.

Charles Rau, who has been visiting here for some time past, returned to the ranch near Dunning, where he and John Gakemeier are interested in the cattle business.

Charles Zaar was a passenger to Lincoln on the evening train last Thursday, where he went to attend the basket ball tournament and to encourage the Murdock team.

Fred Tonac was a visitor in South Omaha last Saturday, when the storm came, having taken a truck load of cattle to the stock yards, which he had purchased from people here.

The Y. P. A. of Murdock met in business session last Tuesday and had a good representation of the young people, and did the business of the association up in excellent style.

Mrs. L. Neitzel and granddaughter, Miss Catherine, departed last Thursday for Havelock, where they went to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock of that place.

Max Dusterhoff was a visitor in Omaha during the past week for a few days, making the trip via the train, as the roads were so bad that the going otherwise was almost impossible.

Last Thursday Charles Marshall was looking after some business matters and visiting with his many friends in Murdock for a few hours between trains and returned to his home in Alvo in the evening.

Messrs. Herman Wendt, Gus Bornemeier, Harry Gillespie and Charles Long were enjoying the basket ball tournament at Lincoln last Thursday and Friday, going to see the game played between Murdock and Brady.

J. A. Bauer sprained his ankle one day last week while unloading a load of cement, stepping out of the car with two bags of cement, which fell on his ankle and he has been finding some trouble getting around since.

J. E. McHugh and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bronkow were in Omaha for a couple of days attending the annual spring style show, and report the entire country representative at this gathering. They enjoyed the occasion very much.

Lacey McDonald and James Miller were attending the basket ball tournament which was held in Lincoln during the latter portion of last week. While they were away, Kenneth Tool looked after the mail delivery to the rural patrons.

Leo Rikli shipped a car load of cattle to the South Omaha market one day last week which brought him some very satisfactory prices. Mr. Rikli spent two days in Omaha at the time looking after the matter of the marketing of the cattle.

Mr. Eric Munson, of Knoxville, Iowa, arrived in Murdock a few days since and is working with Max Dusterhoff in painting and decorating. It will be remembered that Mr. Munson, who is an excellent workman, was employed by Mr. Dusterhoff last year.

Ed Guiltorf was a visitor in Omaha for a few days last week, where he was looking after some business matters regarding the sale of the Ramsey tractors and other machinery. Watch this paper for an ad soon announcing the line for the coming season.

Miss Carrie Schaffer of Manley was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaffer of Murdock for a number of days during the past week. The impassable condition of the roads lengthened her visit which was made all the more enjoyable by reason of her longer stay.

Joe Johanson received a message a few days since telling of the death of a brother which occurred at his home at Manning, Iowa. Mr. Johanson departed immediately for Manning, to attend the funeral and to render what service he could in the time of stress for the family.

J. H. Buck, the enterprising blacksmith, who is finding at this time work in his line improving, has just had installed a new electric blower, which saves the pumping of the bellows as he has had to do heretofore. Mr. Buck keeps adding to his equipment in the shop, notwithstanding he now has one of the best equipped of modern blacksmith shops.

Herman L. Bornemeier and wife, living between Murdock and Alvo, are at this time rejoicing over the arrival of a fine young son who appeared at their home on last Sunday and declared his intention of making their home his permanent abiding place. Sure the parents were greatly tickled and the little fellow is finding a pleasant home with them.

Mrs. Oscar Dowler and little son, Richard, who has been visiting at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother E. K. Norton for the past week, returned home a few days since after having enjoyed the stay there as much as during the Norton family. In fact they thought something had been taken from their lives when the mother and little Richard had departed.

Misses Elenor, Martha and Elsie Gakemeier were all in Lincoln last Thursday evening to attend the basket ball tournament, and were very enthusiastic in their support of the team from Murdock, which is composed of Messrs. Freddie Wendt, Martin Strich, Floyd Hite, Carl Tonac, Walter Oehlerking, Marion Schewe and Walter Stoy, in their game with the team from Brady. However, the game, which was one of the prettiest of the tournament, resulted in a victory for the western team, they winning by a score of 14 to 13.

Appreciate the Assistance
The members of the Royal Neighbors of America are desiring to express their appreciation of the kindly offices of their friends and in the assistance rendered in the preparation of the play which they gave last week, "Listen Ladies," and which we were able to make a success thereby.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE.

"PUTTING IT OVER"

The play, "Listen Ladies," which the members of the Royal Neighbors have just put on, is one which has attracted all who were fortunate enough to be present, compelling the verdict that it was by far the best lecture course which they put on during the winter was fittingly the cap sheaf of the entire course. It looks strange that the people of a community purchase a lecture course, paying their good money for it when they can doubly discount the entertainment by one which they are able to produce themselves.

STUDY FOREIGN TRADE OUTLOOK FOR FARMERS

Hoover Proposes Thorough Inquiry Through Commission Whereby Agriculture May Benefit.

Washington, March 7.—Exporters of agricultural products and representatives of agricultural organizations are being asked by the commerce department, Secretary Hoover announced tonight, to serve on a special commission that will investigate the foreign trade outlook for farmers.

Under an appropriation of $500,000 made by congress to investigate what combinations are in existence or in process of formation abroad to hold up the price of raw products, such as rubber, which are imported into the United States in large quantities, and to consider whether new sources of supply can be developed on American soil, the department also was authorized to make a special study of the international trade situation with respect to agriculture.

The commission now being formed which membership would be announced shortly, will plan and direct the investigation.

Agriculture Exports Half
"Agricultural produce comprises about one-half of our total exports," a department statement said. "During the last three years there has been apparently slight overproduction in the United States which seriously affects agricultural prices and the question arises as to how temporary this situation may be and what the future prospects are."

"During the ten years before 1913, our production did not keep up with our consumption, and the increased consumption was reflected in a decreasing margin of exportable surplus to the average of about 6,500,000 tons per annum just before the war. In the ten years since that time production has steadily increased, not only sufficiently to provide for 13,000,000 increase in population, but so that exports have increased to about 17,000,000 tons per annum. In the meantime, the farmer population has not kept pace with the general population, there having been but little increase in the number of farmers."

More Output Per Farmer
"The increased agricultural production is due to nearly 20 per cent increased output per farmer. This is in turn apparently due to steady improvement in agricultural science and mechanical appliances, and is partly contributed to by a run of favorable climatic conditions. The lowered production of Europe, especially of Russia, has contributed to create the enlarged market for this surplus abroad."

"It is proposed that there should be an exhaustive investigation of the facts as to the proportion of exports to the total of each crop, those facts which bear upon the trend of increased production and increasing consumption at home, the gradual shifting in the world's demand for different footings, the tendency of agricultural production abroad, the finance of exports, the bearing of various trade factors upon the whole question of foreign marketing, the better preparation of produce for foreign markets and aids to export, the possibilities of shipment to destination instead of rebanding in foreign countries and various factors in understanding of the changing character of market which the American farmers must meet."

SENATOR NORRIS TO INSPECT IRRIGATION PROJECT
Washington, March 9.—Senator Norris of Nebraska and Mrs. Norris left with the congressional party which will inspect the Colorado river improvement project. Senator Norris plans later to return to Nebraska. His projected trip to Russia does not seem likely to materialize.

The senator feels that his health demands rest during the hot months of the summer and hopes to be able to spend most of it in his cottage in Wisconsin. He has enjoyed excellent health during the winter.

Don't Forget

that the Rolling Pin in your home can be put to more than one use.

And don't forget GOLDEN GATE flour, so that the rolling pin may be put to its proper use producing bakings that will be a pleasure and a pride.

In general appearance all flour is very much alike, but there is a vast difference in the bakings and in its degree of food value and wholesomeness, not mentioning the taste.

Why not have the best, particularly if it costs less because of the fact that it contains no unnecessary middleman's profits or freight expense.

GOLDEN GATE flour is milled from the choicest wheats and is fully guaranteed to meet with your approval or your money cheerfully refunded.
