Prepared in the Interests of the People of Nehawka and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers.

Do You Want Good Hogs?

Here is the place to get a start. I have a few Hampshire sows which will farrow during March. Better see about them at once.

Vilas P. Sheldon
Nehawka, Nebraska

Mrs. Jessie Rice of Nehawka was a visitor in Murray one day last week. Edgar Glaze and wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulton for the day last Sunday.

W. A. Hicks purchased a fine sow with a litter of pigs by her side at the E. B. Stone and sons sale last Thursday.

Edward Murray received a letter from his mother stating she had been quite ill with the flu but was much better at this time.

Mrs. Eva Hammond of Weeping Water was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rough for last Saturday and Sunday.

Little George Troop has developed in to the champion marble player of the Nehawka schools having won 165 marbles without a loss.

Mrs. A. F. Sturm has been visiting in Omaha since last week, being a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, Jr.

John Hobscheidt of near Murray was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday, driving down in his truck to look after some business matters.

L. M. McVey was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday, making the trip via the Missouri Pacific train from Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nutzman were visiting with friends in Omaha one day last week as well as looking after some business matters as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Shrader who have been down with the flu for some time are reported as being some better though not as yet feeling their best.

Mrs. Lillian Shepherdson of near Weeping Water was a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Horton Kurth of Waterloo, Iowa, for a number of days last week.

C. R. Troop of Plattsmouth will soon begin the construction of a modern bungalow on the farm where Mr. William Kruger lives and will otherwise improve the farm.

R. Kettlehut was looking after some business in Plattsmouth last Thursday and while there called on the Journal, advancing his subscription for a couple of years.

J. W. Hobson of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Nehawka for a short time last Monday waiting for a train to Weeping Water where he was going to look after some business matters.

Warren Munn has been busy during the past week shelling corn and has shelled corn for J. J. Pollard, M. G. Kime and Nicholas Opp, which they marketed in Nehawka at a nice figure.

H. D. Betts and family departed a few days since for their home at Chappell after having visited at the home of the parents of Mrs. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Lundberg for the past two weeks.

Orville Todd, who has been taking a course in farming at the state university, returned home a few days since having completed the course and will work with the father during the coming summer.

Superintendent L. W. Burby, who has been having a tussle with the flu for the past week, is now able to be back on the job again and is feeling much better. Thank you, though not quite himself as yet.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer and also Mrs. S. Humphrey, who is making her home with the Palmers, have been having a siege of the flu but all at this time are reported as being better.

Harry Higgins and wife of Omaha were visiting in Nehawka and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John while here and also while in the city they looked after some residence property which they have here.

R. C. Pollard and family were at Lincoln last week enjoying the basketball tournament which was represented by players from all over the state. There was much interest in the teams of Cass county which were battling for first place.

Mr. W. A. Hicks dug a well for Mr. Nick Klausens in which he went down to the depth of 65 feet where he struck solid rock and could go no farther. Mr. Hicks has just returned from a two weeks stay near Olathe where he sunk a number of wells.

Mrs. J. J. Lohnes, who has been staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Troop, departed for her new home at Grant a few days since and was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Troop who goes to assist in getting the household affairs straightened up after the moving and will also visit for a while before returning home.

City Council Adopts Ordinance
The city council of Nehawka at their meeting last Friday evening adopted an ordinance calling for the election for $25,000 for the installing of a water system for the village of Nehawka. The matter of sewerage was also up but was deferred until the fate of the water ordinance would be known. Should the ordinance calling for the bonds for the installation of the water system carry then the matter of the sewerage will be considered, probably favorably and probably unfavorably as the result of the former ordinance shall be known first.

Surprised Their Friends
Albert Anderson the genial and efficient salesman who is in the J. H. Steffans store, and who has his home in the new house which C. M. Christwiser has but recently completed, was surprised by some nineteen of his gentlemen friends who gave this gentleman a shower, as he is to wed Miss Christina Steffans in a short time. The evening was pleasantly passed in song and cards and you know the gentlemen had something to eat as well as smoke.

Had an Excellent Sale
The sale of the excellent spotted Poland China brood sows which was put on by R. B. Stone and Sons proved to be one which met with popular favor and which resulted in many pleased buyers of this excellent line of porkers. The sale amounted to some $2,500 many of them going to a distance.

Both Favor the Ford
Frank P. Sheldon, who has been driving a Ford roadster which he had converted into a light truck, was so well pleased with the performance of the car that he has invested in another of the same kind getting the same from the Lundberg garage. And to be in line or more so, George Pollard has acquired possession of a new Ford coupe which he will use for his traveling in the future.

Entertained the Basketball Team
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pollard who are both quite interested in basketball, entertained at their pleasant home in the edge of Nehawka the basketball teams of the schools of this town and where they all enjoyed a most pleasant time as well as discussing the game which all were interested in. A delightful luncheon was served and which added to the pleasant evening. Miss Flo Wright was in charge of the teams in the absence of the superintendent who could not be present on account of sickness.

After Every Meal WRIGLEYS

Top off each meal with a bit of sweet in the form of WRIGLEYS. It satisfies the sweet tooth and aids digestion. Pleasure and benefit combined.

This is Not All a Joke No, for a varmint, whether whale, bear or dog entered and attempted to eat the Missouri Pacific station but left a portion of it as the appetite diminished before the structure fell for in fact it did not fall at all. Some of the more positive of the wags of Nehawka aver that all was eaten except the safe and stove. Mr. Thomas was at dinner when we called to see the havoc and we did not get to see it.

School Notes
Eighth grade examinations will be held at the school building March 21 and 30.

Maurine Clisney and June Peck have left the district and are missed in Miss Graf's room.

Most of the teachers went home last week. Many of them stopped in Lincoln for the tournament games.

The new library books are cataloged and in circulation now. They have given a new impetus to library patronage.

The class in agriculture is now taking up the study of dairying. More interest should be taken in this subject in the community.

The American history class has planned a debate for March 23. "Resolved that city life is more advantageous than country life."

The seniors have completed the short stories that they have been working on for some time. As a whole they are very satisfactory.

The freshmen are planning a St. Patrick's day program for next Thursday convocation. Last Thursday the time was taken up with singing.

The basketball season is over for this year. It has been very successful for a starter and a good team should be had next year. A full account of the season will be printed soon.

The seniors are going to put on the motion picture entitled "The Power Within" on March 21. It is a story of the fires of faith and the value of love, the two deepest forces in human life. It portrays a man who is captain of his own soul; who falls when he forgets God and rises when he says, "Thy will be done." A Gang comedy will be run with this feature and a fine show will be put on. One night only, so get your seats early.

ENJOYING TOURNAMENT

From Tuesday's Daily.
The four classes of the high school have been planning for the past week a tournament of the basketball teams of the classes and yesterday afternoon the first round of the tournament was played. The sophomores and the freshmen clashed in the opening game and the result was that the sophs won the contest 42 to 24 and seemingly caught the freshmen unawares as they tore through the defense for repeated scores. In the second game the seniors won from the juniors by the score of 26 to 15 and in both games much spirit was shown and the class feeling ran high among the players and the rooters of the four teams.

Wednesday evening at 7:30, the sophomores and the seniors will play for the championship of the school and the juniors and freshmen for the consolation honors and much interest is attached to the games by the class membership.

The Recipe Says!

Use just so many cups of flour, but the degree of success of your baking depends on how good the flour is.

Golden Gate Flour, when handled properly, insures Baking Success.

You cannot measure the quality of flour with a cup, nor can you add to the quality of flour once it is milled.

Quality is determined by the character of the wheat from which the flour is milled, and the skill used in milling it.

GOLDEN GATE flour will please you, once you give it a fair trial, because it is milled from the choicest wheat and with modern equipment by men who are highly skilled in the art of milling.

Treat it as fairly in baking as we have in milling and you will have nothing to regret.
