Henry C. Long was a business visitor in Omaha this week, going up on Wednesday.

T. J. Brendel was looking after some business matters in Louisville last Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Timm and family were visiting and looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday.

Mrs. Ione Hatchett, who has been sick for a few days, is reported as being considerably better and improving.

The Tickler brothers shelled corn at the home of Mrs. Con Bengen north of town, which was delivered at Mynard.

Gust Grauf shelled his corn from near Union, which he delivered at the J. D. Pitman elevator in Murray last Tuesday.

Uncle B. A. Root was a visitor in Union last Monday, accompanying Dr. F. Brendel on one of his visits to that place.

Ralph Holmes, of Plattsmouth was looking after some business matters and visiting with friends here one day last week.

T. L. Murphy, representing the Henry R. Gering drug house in Omaha, was a visitor in Murray on last Tuesday afternoon.

O. A. Davis, the assessor for Rock Bluff precinct, is up and at it and is making the first soft days of spring count in his work.

J. E. Scotten with J. E. Gruber and F. A. Hill the carpenters, are building some chicken houses at the home of Ed Gansner.

J. W. Chilton, of North Platte, was a business visitor in Murray last Sunday and Monday, departing for his home Monday evening.

Forest Rainey who is employed in the Burlington shops in Plattsmouth, has moved to that town so he can be more handy to his work.

Roy Gregg from near Mynard was a visitor in Murray for a short time last Tuesday afternoon, looking after some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Peterson were visiting last Sunday at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Millard Kelsey, whose home is at Millard.

Dr. G. L. Taylor and family were attending church at Plattsmouth on last Sunday, and also were visiting with friends there on Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson, of Union, is reported as being very poorly after an attack of the grippe, but is now showing some slight improvement.

Do not forget our dance and meet us there every Saturday night.—The Home Dance Club. At Peterson's hall, Murray, Neb. 11-Mp.

W. J. Philpot shipped to the South Omaha market two car loads of helters from his feeding lots west of Murray, which brought satisfactory prices.

Albert Griffin, who has been having a very severe time with pneumonia, is reported as showing slight improvement, but is still very critically ill.

L. D. Hiatt was a visitor in Omaha last Tuesday, driving over to the metropolis to look after some business matters for the firm for which he works.

Little Richard Brendel, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel, who has been so sick, is now on the highway to recovery, which is good news for all their many friends.

W. O. Troop and son Robert shipped two cars of cattle to the South Omaha market last Monday. They are not complaining about the prices which they received.

W. T. Schlichtmeier of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Tuesday, having completed the hauling of his crop of wheat to the Farmers Elevator here.

Otto Puls shipped two loads of cattle to the South Omaha market last Sunday which brought the price of $8.70 per cwt. and with a good gain in weight, he did very well.

Nator and Lancaster disposed of 266 bushels of seed potatoes on last Saturday and Monday of this week. This shows that people are thinking of spring time and spring work.

Uncle John Beadle, the janitor at the Murray school, has been in conjunction with the teaching force oiling the floor at the school building which helps to keep down the dust.

The Ladies Aid society will meet at the church Wednesday, April 11, being entertained by Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. B. Good and Miss Bertha Nichols. Mrs. Sporer, leader. Everyone come.

Don C. Rhoden shipped his hogs last Thursday, having a car load which went to Omaha and brought considering the prices which have been prevailing, very satisfactory prices.

Oscar Shrader has been on the sick list, being a victim of the grippe, but according to latest reports is showing some improvement and it is expected will soon have the best of the malady.

Forest Tracey has accepted a position with the Murray garage, as caretaker of the upstairs department, serving the public with gas, oil and the like. Forest will make a good man for the position.

Mrs. Bessie Born, living north of town, is having two additional rooms built to her home, the work being done by Mr. Harvey Grege, assisted by Jesse Chambers. They began the job Tuesday afternoon.

Gus Brubaker, of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, coming down to assist Mr. E. S. Tutt during the absence of Mr. Hiatt, who was looking after some business in Omaha for the day.

Mrs. H. C. Long, who has been in the hospital at Omaha, returned last Thursday to her home here and while her eyes are still very sensitive, she is hoping that soon she will be able to bear the light and see better.

The supper given in behalf of the Murray Public Library, was well attended and the ones having the matter in charge are to be congratulated on the success which they were able to realize from their efforts.

Henry Heebner, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, C. E. Heebner, near Nehawka, returned to Murray last Saturday and is feeling much better and thinks that in the near future he will report for work again.

A message from McCook, telling of the extremely critical condition of Mrs. Ruby, came yesterday attended at once by his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Gruber, on Monday, she departing for the bed side of her father on last Monday evening.

Robert Young, who is seventy-five years old, cut a hedge at his farm during the winter, and made some eight hundred posts, as well as burning the brush and clearing away the fence row. This is showing some of the younger men that there is another fight in him.

Mrs. Elva Harkness, who has been keeping house for C. A. Trent, has accepted a position in the same line with Mr. Gus Split and will keep house there. The position which Mrs. Harkness has occupied with Mr. Trent, will be filled by Mrs. Art Ewing of Bee, Nebraska.

Dr. G. L. Taylor has established his office in the Banning & Nickles building at the lumber yard. He has been kept pretty busy this spring and is well satisfied with the community and town in which he has chosen to practice his profession. See his ad elsewhere on this page.

Both Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Milburn have been having a severe time with the flu, especially Mrs. Milburn, and her condition has been very critical. Mrs. I. M. Davis, of Lincoln, her mother, arrived at the Milburn home last Monday to care for the daughter. It is hoped that all will soon be on the road to recovery.

M. R. Wigginton, who has been an employee of the Missouri Pacific, bid in the extra trick position at the station here and came last Tuesday to take up his work here. Mr. J. F. Potter, who has been here for some time past, departed for Omaha for a few days' recreation, after which he will go to work for the Missouri Pacific elsewhere.

The road from Murray to the high-ways east of town, which was one of the worst, has been placed in excellent condition by Mr. C. A. Trent as the patrolman from the west end could not get over it. The road from east of Murray is now passable, but a few miles just west of Murray is pretty bad as yet, but can be gotten over if one has just the right amount of patience.

First Sale a Success
The great community sale which was held in Murray last week, notwithstanding the very bad roads, was well attended and was a success. It is expected that one will be held every month and that this may make a way for people who have anything to sell to enjoy the privilege.

Has a New Station
W. A. Scott has his gas and oil station now completed and expects to have the same filled with gas and ready to begin serving the public in the near future. He will make an announcement in these columns when he is ready for business.

Announcement
Dr. G. L. Taylor, the Veterinarian of Murray, announces a new office location in the Banning & Nickles building at the lumber yard. The doctor has built up a good business since locating in Murray a year and a half ago and now wants to see his clients drop in and call on him in his new office. 11-Mp.

Found Father in Good Health
J. E. Hatchett, who went last week to see his aged father at Brunswick, Mo., found the father at the age of ninety-four years, enjoying life and most pleased to see his son. Mr. Hatchett visited with other relatives elsewhere and among other places at Kansas City, which he had not seen for a number of years and found that they are most stirring Missouri towns. Mr. Hatchett met people whom he had known as boys but has not seen for much over thirty years, some of whom he knew and others he did not. He remarked that the country seemed greatly changed.

REPORT SAYS HERMIONE LEAVES DOOR FOR GOOD

Ex-Kaiser's Wife Goes to Germany—Separation Final—Rumored for Some Time.

York, England, April 2.—Reports of a serious disagreement between former Emperor William and Princess Hermione, his bride of last November, which have cropped out from time to time since the first of the year, are revived today by the Doorn correspondent of the Yorkshire Evening News. The correspondent states that he has learned "from a singularly reliable source" that the ex-kaiser and his wife have definitely separated as a result of domestic troubles.

When Princess Hermione left Doorn recently she went ostensibly to inspect family estates in Germany, but in reality, asserts the correspondent, she has gone to live with her near relatives.

"The actual separation is over a fortnight old," he declared, "but the secret has been well kept."

The ex-emperor's life is reported to be very solitary and his establishment very simple, for although his private means are still ample, they are not under his control.

In the article the ex-kaiser is described as "one of the most tragic figures in Europe today."

BANK TAXES MAY BE CUT IN SPITE OF LEGISLATURE

State Likely to Lose $80,000 on 1922 Levy—Supreme Court Decision Is Being Discussed.

The effect of the decision of the supreme court of Nebraska in refusing to grant a rehearing in the suit involving taxes of banks for the year 1922 is being discussed at the state house. Some contend it is useless for the legislature to pass S. P. 330, now on third reading in the senate, if its only effect can be to validate the tax against national banks for last year and not validate taxes of state banks for the same year.

If the contention of the banks holds good all banks will pay only upon their stock as intangible property, or at the rate of one-fourth the rate of taxation upon tangible property for the year 1922. If the banks of both kinds are required to pay only one-fourth the rate they formerly paid the state will receive $80,000 less from that source on the 1922 taxes and other taxing subdivisions of the state will receive $670,000 less than the full rate. By escaping throughly of the amount of taxes levied upon them banks will pay $750,000 less than the full rate levy.

In regard to future taxes some contend all bank stock must hereafter be assessed as intangible property, and the law makes a low rate of taxation for that kind of property. Others say the court has not held this, but held that because national banks last year could not be taxed under the federal law more than other moneyed capital it created a discrimination against state banks which are in the same class as national banks. Under a new act of congress national banks cannot be taxed the same as other moneyed capital, but other moneyed capital in competition with banks cannot be assessed at a rate lower than upon national banks.

State Tax Commissioner Osborne is inclined to believe the reins now little use in trying to pass S. P. 330 to validate state and national bank taxes for 1922. The senate revenue committee has not expressed an opinion since the supreme court refused to grant a rehearing in the state bank tax case. The committee proposes to push the bill unless it can be shown that no good can be accomplished. This committee has at all time expressed the belief that under the new act of congress the state can continue to tax state and national banks alike and other moneyed capital not in competition with banks at a low rate. This lower rate must be uniform as to class and by valuation.

The attorney general's department has given an opinion stating that H. R. 330 will come as near validating taxes of banks for last year as any act of the legislature can do such a thing. It has also called attention to decisions of the United States supreme court holding that congress has power to validate taxes. Whether congress has done that in its new act is not stated.

SIFTERS WILL BE IN CHARGE OF FUTURE HOUSE ACTION

Decision Reached Yesterday to Have a Committee Appointed to Pick Good from the Bad.

By an overwhelming vote Tuesday the house finally decided to place a sifting committee in control of legislation for the remainder of the session. The matter came up on a motion by Brown, democrat, for the appointment of a committee to consist of six republicans, six democrats and the speaker.

Smart moved as a substitute that the committee be appointed according to the rules, and after much debate this was adopted. Each congressional district will select two members and present their names to the house for election. The speaker will be chairman and member at large. These names are to be handed in Friday morning and it is presumed that thereafter the work of the house will be controlled by this committee.

It was carefully explained that a sifting committee does not kill bills, but it merely selects from the general file those bills are deemed of greatest importance.

Osertman said the theory was very fine but in practical operation this committee decided the fate of every bill not yet in the committee of the whole and that past experience had shown lots of the bills they put out were fitting in character. He said that the house would have to wait on the senate to act on appropriations, and that this would leave it leisure to do its own sifting from the general file. He said this plan did not hasten adjournment.

Most of the orators were for a committee. O'Malley said that at the present rate it would be June 1 before the legislature finished. The newspapers were right in saying the legislature had not done much and he believed that constructive legislation yet unacted on should be considered. Keck wanted to indefinitely postpone every bill on the general file and then go home, but he was ruled out of order. Hardin said that if the members would get rid of the notion that they have to talk on every little bill that comes up, they could be their own sifters.

Two Men Hurt in a Kansas Tornado

Partridge, Kan., April 2.—Two men were injured and a property damage of more than $50,000 reported from a tornado which struck this village at 5:30 this evening.

The Fowler Mercantile store, the Tharp Hardware store, an old livery stable and a barber shop were wrecked. The roofs of the Partridge State bank, the Maxwell general store, a blacksmith shop and several residences were carried away by the wind.

Partridge was without electric lights and telephone service tonight because of the storm.

Several persons escaped injury when they fled from the hardware store at the approach of the tornado. A heavy rain and hail storm followed the wind.

SAYS MIGRATORY FOWLS CAUSE STATIC IN RADIO

O'Neill, Neb., April 2.—Responsibility for unusual static disturbance seriously interfering with radio receiving sets in north Nebraska the last few weeks at last is believed to be definitely located by Professor M. H. Horiskey, local savant who has spent a lifetime in the study of electricity, and at present engaged in radio research. The vast flocks of migratory fowl at present winging their way to the northward, are responsible, says he.

The atmosphere in the upper altitudes is extremely dry at this time of the year, declares the professor, and the friction of the air against the feathers of the flying fowl creates static electricity, just as it is created when the fur of a cat is stroked the wrong way. As with the cat, the discharge of the static is extremely irritating to the birds, causing them to utter fretful calls and quacks as they fly and these calls uttered simultaneously with the electric discharge are broadcast in various wave lengths with sufficient intensity to set up disturbances plainly audible in mechanical receiving sets in the immediate vicinity and to the serious interference with the programs being received from various parts of the country. In proof of his assertion, Professor Horiskey points out that ducks never quack, geese honk or cranes call, in migrating in wet weather when static is not present.
