GOVERNOR TO EXERT HIS RIGHT TO VETO

Expresses No Grief Over Report Senate Proposes to Kill Dysart-Mathers Code Bills.

"The contemplated action of the senate committee which will smother the Dysart-Mathers code bills is not surprising to me," said Governor Bryan Friday. The principle in them is so bad from a business and governmental point of view, I could not see how the senate could approve them and place them before the people as the work of the republican party. The bills re-enact the code and brings the departments under the new executive officers. Under the Dysart bill there would be five governors and under the Mathers bill there would be six, with equal power in conflict with the constitution. The bills might have the political merit of getting hold of all patronage heretofore vested in the government, but at the sacrifice of the business of the taxpayers.

Governor Bryan had heard that Speaker Mathers had ruled that items in appropriation bills that are in the governor's budget must be voted upon separately and receive a three-fifths vote to pass. The governor is also informed the attorney general holds a vote as to the whole bill governs and if the bill receives fifty-one votes the anti-budget items are carried with the bill. The governor said log rolling and an attempt to deprive him of his constitutional powers is apparent. He proposes to exercise his constitutional power to veto any item in an appropriation bill. The budget law appears to make it plain that if an appropriation not in the budget receives a three-fifths vote the governor cannot veto it, yet an older provision of the constitution empowers the governor to veto any item in an appropriation bill.

CAPITOL PROBE BY LEGISLATURE IS NEARING AN END

Committee Adjourns Until Monday When Balance of Testimony Will be Given.

Lincoln, April 6.—The legislative investigation into charges of negligence and incompetency filed against Bertram G. Goodhue, architect for the new statehouse, by George E. Johnson, state engineer, is nearing an end.

The committee adjourned until Monday morning. Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Goodhue asserted that testimony and arguments would be concluded in a few hours Monday.

Yonkin on Stand W. L. Yonkin, clerk of the works, and Mr. Goodhue's personal representative on the job, occupied most of the morning in answering charges of changes in plans made by Johnson. Yonkin, an architect himself, asserted real negligence on the part of an architect would be failure to constantly study plans and endeavor to discover changes for betterment from an artistic as well as a financial viewpoint.

Yonkin admitted there has been mistakes. However, he asserted in any job of such magnitude there were certain to be errors and he challenged proof that he or Johnson in the statehouse job were as few and comparatively small from an economic standpoint as on any job vying with the task under way at Lincoln.

Walls Will Last Charles Olson, a contractor, asserted the statehouse wall would stand for 1,000 years. His testimony was in rebuttal to testimony of James Webber, another contractor, yesterday, that because of large joints and failure to lay stones so one overlaps another sufficiently, would result in stones falling out within 20 years. On cross-examination by Johnson, Olson asserted a few stones in the wall were poor in texture. There was much argument and testimony over the charge of Johnson that Goodhue had a "closed" bid on architectural materials. Johnson asserted that should the statement of Goodhue be true the material contracted for the first section of the building be more artistic and realistic than that of another firm, the state could have forced down the contract price of accepted material if Goodhue had permitted competition.

NATURE'S WARNING!

Plattsmouth People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come mysteriously. But nature generally warns you. Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is abnormal. If there are settlements and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty, painful. It's time to fear serious kidney trouble.

It's time to use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have done great work in Plattsmouth. Ask your neighbor! Theo. Starkjohan, retired farmer, Locust and Ninth streets, Plattsmouth, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for many troubles and backache and they have proven to be all that is claimed of them. Whenever my back feels a little lame and my kidneys are not acting as they should, I take Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days and they never fail to do me good. Doan's cannot be equaled and anyone having kidney trouble should take them for they are very reliable." (Statement given Febr. 23, 1916.)

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, or on May 12, 1920, Mr. Starkjohan added: "The cure I had from Doan's Kidney Pills has been a lasting one. I still have faith in Doan's and if ever I should need a kidney remedy again, I would use them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Starkjohan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CAN'T BE CHRISTIAN AND GOOD REVOLUTIONISTS TOO

Sacramento, Cal., April 5.—The scorn of the Industrial Worker of the World for religion today was testified to by W. E. Townsend, former I. W. W. leader and now a police officer of Los Angeles, in the trial of three I. W. W. members on a charge of violating the state criminal syndicalism law.

"The I. W. W. holds religion is the curse of the world and teaches there is no God, heaven or hell," declared Townsend, while being examined by Assistant District Attorney W. V. Cowan. "You can't be a Christian and a good revolutionist."

Townsend testified that the I. W. W. members refer to Jesus as "Jerusalem Slim," and teach that He was an agitator, the same as they are. Continuing, he said: "They say the only difference between Christ and the I. W. W. of today is that Christ rode a jackass and the I. W. W. ride a freight train."

HERRIN DEFENDANTS ARE FOUND TO BE NOT GUILTY

Verdict of Acquittal is Returned for All Six Accused of Participation in Mine Massacre.

Marion, Ill., April 6.—All six of the defendants in the second Herrin riots trial were found not guilty after the jury had deliberated six hours and fifty-five minutes. In order a verdict had been reached was received by Judge D. T. Hartwell shortly after 11 o'clock, when the jury was called in. Foreman C. E. Caughlin silently handed a sheet of paper to the judge.

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Hugh Willis not guilty," Judge Hartwell read. Similar verdicts were read for each of the other defendants in the following order: James Crown, Oscar Howard, Phillip Fontanetta, Otis Clark and Bert Gales. In giving instructions Judge T. D. Hartwell indicated four possible verdicts for each of the six defendants: Guilty as charged in the indictment, with sentences of death, a life term in the penitentiary, an indeterminate term in the penitentiary of not less than fourteen years, or a verdict of not guilty. Mr. Glenn did not ask a death penalty, but said "no crime in the history of the world ever more fully merited hanging."

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and told him to use it freely."—C. P. Rayler, Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he came in and said he was straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment; I want it in the house all the time for it cured me." MARRIED AT CLAY CENTER

The many friends of the contracting parties were surprised on the first of the week to learn of the marriage of Miss Alma Oehlerking, well known young lady of Murdock, and Mr. Charles Marshall of near Alvo.

The wedding occurred on Saturday, March 31st, at Clay Center, Nebraska, and was performed at the home of the Rev. J. H. Oehlerking, uncle of the bride, who pronounced the words that made the two young people as one. The ceremony was attended by Mr. Henry Oehlerking, father of the bride and Mrs. Mary Marshall, mother of the groom. The bride is a daughter of Henry Oehlerking, well known resident of the vicinity of Murdock and has grown to womanhood in that locality and is a graduate of the high school of that place. Since her graduation she has been engaged in teaching in the public schools. The groom is a son of the late E. E. Marshall and is farming near Alvo at the present time.

On Tuesday evening there was a large number of the friends and neighbors gathered to greet the young people who had returned from Clay Center and later in the evening the members of the Christian Endeavor, of which both of the young people were members, gathered to assist in the extending of the congratulations to the newly weds and gave them a complete surprise. These young people have the hearty good wishes of a large circle of friends for their future happiness.

TEMPERANCE TICKET WINS OUT AT WEEPING WATER

At the election Tuesday, the temperance ticket won out in the election of their candidates over the citizens' ticket. Workers were out on both sides and autos were kept busy until the booths were closed gathering in the ones who didn't care to walk to the polls in the interests of their little city.

The citizens' ticket won their ticket in the school district by electing their ticket men which were tried and true men fighting for their colors according to their lights.

W. Earl Towle was elected with 223 votes and S. J. Ambler with 205 votes. These gentlemen were already board members and a change was not necessary.

In the first ward S. J. Marshall won by a vote of 57, over J. W. Swindle, 60 votes.

In the second ward John Crozier won the long term with 125 and Earl Towle for the short term with 128 votes.

Now that the favorites were winners, get behind them and let them show their worth.—Weeping Water Republican.

Indigestion and Constipation

"Prior to using Chamberlain's Tablets, I suffered dreadfully from indigestion. Nothing I ate agreed with me and I lost flesh and ran down in health. Chamberlain's Tablets strengthened my digestion and cured me of constipation." writes Mrs. George Stroup, Solvay, N. Y. Weyrich & Hadraba.

CHECK ARTIST GETS NINETY DAY JAIL SENTENCE Quick Work in Handling Case and Man is Now Resting in County Jail Until July. From Friday's Daily The dip of Lee White into a career of crime was short and sweet as the young man is today resting in the county jail as the enforced guest of Sheriff C. D. Quinton for a period of ninety days. The young man last Saturday issued a large number of bogus checks in this city on the various merchants and made his getaway to Chicago where he was arrested on Monday night and Sheriff Quinton departed for that city Wednesday night and last night returned with the young man and this morning he was given his sentence which is certainly a rapid process of handing out justice. Sheriff Quinton on reaching Chicago at once called at the Cook county jail and interviewed the prisoner he was seeking and the young man expressed a great willingness to come back to Nebraska and two hours after the arrival of the sheriff he was on his way back to Plattsmouth with Mr. White.
