PRIEST ACCUSED OF FORGERY OF WHISKY PERMITS GIVES UP Denver, April 9.—Father Walter A. Grace, former pastor of the shrine of St. Ann, at Aravada, sought by federal authorities in connection with the alleged forgery of whisky permits, walked into the office of United States Marshal William A. Dorrison shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon and surrendered to the authorities.

A search which became nationwide began several weeks ago after the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Father Grace.

Shortly after surrendering, he was arraigned before United States District Attorney Granby Hillier and admitted to bail in the sum of $2,500. The bond was made returnable June 15.

Had Exciting Experience Last Saturday evening as William Sporer and family were returning from a visit at Plattsmouth they had a collision with the auto of Arthur Sullivan, who was turning around at the head of Chicago avenue in which both cars were shook up severely. Mr. Sporer and family started on home, not knowing that the radius rod was broken, and had proceeded but a short distance when the rod gave way and the car swerved and made off the ditch at the roadside, with the result that the car went into the ditch, turning over. Fortunately no one was injured other than being severely shook up.

Do You Know About the Catarrh This matter is of particular interest to this city which has one of the large shops of the Burlington system located here and in turn the Burlington is deserving of the support of the community in the matter of freight hauling and the business of the community in the way of shipping between this city and other points.

Express trains deliver what is in need of immediate use several times a day and other lines can easily be sent from the wholesale houses to Plattsmouth by freight with dispatch and safety. With the service available from the Burlington there is no reason why the railroad should not expect and receive the business of the merchants and citizens of Plattsmouth in the way of freight shipments from the wholesale house to this city.

When there are storms or bad weather the railroads put through their trains at a great cost delivering to the consumer or the merchants the articles needed in their lines and if the railroads are expected to do this when the weather makes the roads impassable for other means of shipment, why not give them the business at all seasons of the year.

Another point is that the railroad is a chartered and responsible common carrier. It is responsible for the safe delivery of express or freight shipped over its lines and in case of loss it stands squarely behind the patron of the road in case of loss.

With these facts in mind and also the fact that the Burlington each month distributes something like $70,000 in the city, it is only fair that they in turn should receive the support of Plattsmouth people in the handling of the freight business. The shipping is of course the right of the individual to do as they please but the common interest would seem to dictate that this city give to the Burlington, which maintains the chief industry of the city, its unequalled aid and business wherever and whenever possible.

This is only reciprocity. We expect the Burlington to aid the community and to maintain its shops in this city and why should not the citizens of the community do their part for the railroad. Doing this will help the railroad and indirectly the city of Plattsmouth and its interests.

Need and Necessity for Support of the Railroad that Gives a City its Greatest Support.

Harris Declares Tanlac Ended Long-Standing Stomach Trouble—Gains 15 Pounds.

"I've got to hand it to Tanlac for it has made me stronger and healthier than I have been in many a day," said Jasper Harris, 719 W. 13th street, Kansas City, Mo., well known fireman in the yards of the St. Louis, San Francisco Ry. Co.

"Before taking Tanlac, I had hit such a tough grade I hardly had steam enough to pull it. My appetite was gone, I suffered with stomach pains, heartburn and palpitation and was losing weight. I was terribly bilious and headaches and dizziness made me wretched. My sleep was restless, my back felt sore, and I ached all over so bad it nearly killed me to fire my engine.

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over thirty-seven million bottles sold.

Need and Necessity for Support of the Railroad that Gives a City its Greatest Support.

The greatest of revenue producers for the railroad system of the nation is that of their freight hauling and according to the volume of business done by the railroads depends the extent of their expansion and employment of labor.

This matter is of particular interest to this city which has one of the large shops of the Burlington system located here and in turn the Burlington is deserving of the support of the community in the matter of freight hauling and the business of the community in the way of shipping between this city and other points.

Express trains deliver what is in need of immediate use several times a day and other lines can easily be sent from the wholesale houses to Plattsmouth by freight with dispatch and safety.

MAKING MANY CHANGES

With the advent of spring comes the changes of the householders over the city and which includes the moving of Claude Smith and family to the Peter Herold residence on Granite street and the Charles Hula family that have been occupying this property will move to the Edgar Steinhauer home. The rooms in the Union block formerly occupied by the Smith family will be occupied by Fritz Fricke and wife in the future.

HAS FAINTING SPELL

the city, was taken with a severe fainting spell at her home in the south part of the city and for several minutes her condition caused the greatest alarm to the members of the family but she is somewhat better at this time, however, still in a very weak and serious condition.

Worthless Insurance!

Last summer a hail storm which reached the extent of a calamity visited this section. The Columbia Insurance company, which is represented here by W. G. Boedecker, adjusted the loss just six days after the storm and paid every claim two days later, that is eight days after the storm.

Other insurance companies, with agents from out of the state adjusted the loss about sixty days after the storm and paid the claims six months after.

Now on one thousand dollars of loss, at eight per cent, and that is what one has to pay for money, the delay of the payment of the thousand dollars would amount to $40.00 to each policy holder in case of loss. This would, with the Columbia, almost amount to enough to carry the risk.

Better see Glen Boedecker for your insurance, where the insurance is sure and the adjustments are made and claims paid immediately, and the cost is less.
