Johnson Auto Co.

NEHAWKA -- -- -- NEBRASKA

Max Balfour and Miss Ruth Hinton were guests for dinner last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John.

C. S. Stottier and wife of near Union were looking after some business in Nehawka last Monday and were customers at the Nehawka mills.

The Johnson auto company has put in a full line of new genuine Ford parts and is ready for all business in this line which may offer.

Grandmother Saint John who has been feeling very poorly for some time, is at this time much improved and is getting along fine, thank you.

Miss Gertrude Krepes of Lincoln was a visitor in Nehawka for over Sunday and a guest of Mr. J. M. Johnson of the Johnson auto company.

Mrs. C. F. Chase was a visitor in Lincoln last Saturday where she met Mr. Chase, they returning home together. Mr. Chase remained for the week end.

Ernest Ahrens was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday driving over to the county seat in his auto and looking after some business at the court house.

Misses Velma Wessell and Mary Chappell were enjoying the home talent play which was given last Saturday night at Weeping Water and was of much merit as well.

Banker D. C. West was a visitor in the west end of the county last Thursday in the interests of the convention which was to be held of the county bankers in Nehawka.

W. B. Dale, Oris Malcolm and E. M. Griffin all accepted positions in the Burlington shops at Plattsmouth they having gone to work and are well pleased with their positions.

Carl Chriswiser while working about home was so unfortunate as to injure one of his hands with a pitchfork and which he reports at this time as getting along very nicely.

J. M. Palmer and family were the guests at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. Fred Gorder of Weeping Water for last Sunday and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Misses Flo Wright and Leona Nuernberger two of the teachers of the Nehawka schools, were enjoying the week end at their respective homes in Lincoln, going on Saturday and remaining until the midnight train Sunday.

Feltes and Wool the painters and decorators have just finished a nice bit of interior decorating at the Douglas Cafe and Ice Cream Parlor and have the place looking very nice. By the way, Jack is getting the place in excellent condition.

Peter Frampton had the misfortune to have some marauding porkers get into his potato patch just after he had planted the same and made a meal of the seed which he had so carefully planted. No, he was not feeling so happy over it.

The joy of Mr. and Mrs. James Blake was mingled with sorrow when their little boy born last Saturday died and caused the new found joy to be turned into sorrow. The little one was buried on Sunday and the parents have the sympathy of their many friends.

Mrs. Eugene Nutzman who returned a short time since from Omaha where she underwent an operation for appendicitis and subsequent treatment, has been staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. St. John until she shall have grown stronger which she is with each day.

Henry M. Pollard has had installed in his home by the experts, Verner Lundberg and Frank Boedeker, one of their excellent radio sets which is a constant source of information and pleasure to Uncle Henry and family. They can now enjoy the wonders of the entire continent and still be pleasantly situated at their home without the discomforts of travel.

J. M. Johnson had the misfortune to receive a kick from one of his cars which he was cranking, the crank jerking out of his hand and striking him on the elbow with the effect that the bone was slightly fractured. He under the advice of his physician, is waiting developments as to the outcome of his arm before having it treated permanently, it having been given temporary treatment.

Warren Munn has been busy during the past two weeks putting his sheller and engine in good condition for the coming time when the farmers shall have gotten over their spring rush and will want to deliver their corn which yet remains undelivered. Warren says the wheat is looking pretty fair in this neighborhood and that he is expecting a good harvest. Still he remarked something might yet happen to spoil the crop.

The Rev. E. O. Johnson, who last Sunday delivered his farewell sermon to the church at this place, departed on Tuesday for Tekamah where he went to meet with the district conference of the Methodist church and where he will remain until Thursday returning to Nehawka, he will depart on Friday of this week for Fort Union, Kansas, where he will take up his work with the church at that place.

Mrs. Henry Wenzel of Spencer who formerly lived here and is an aunt of Frank A. Boedeker, is in the Immanuel hospital at Omaha where she recently underwent an operation and since which time has been showing good improvement. Mr. Boedeker and family were up to see the lady on Wednesday and found her resting very nicely and getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances and nature of her operation.

Bankers' Convention Postponed
The convention of the bankers of Cass county, which was to have been held at Nehawka on Monday afternoon of this week, was postponed on account of the rain which made the roads very bad to get over. Preparations had partly been completed for the reception of the bankers but the meeting was deferred until such a time as would make it better traveling. Something was said about the meeting being held on this Friday should the weather and roads be such as to guarantee a good attendance.

Superintendent Will Preach
The Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick, superintendent of this district of the Methodist conference, will be here and deliver a discourse at the church on Monday, April 30, and meet with the board looking to the filling of the pulpit here since the resignation of the Rev. E. O. Johnson. Efforts have been made by some of the members of the church to get Mr. B. Wolph to conduct services at the church Sunday morning and it is not known as yet whether he has consented to do so or not. There will be the Bible school at the usual hour.

Entertained Her Friends
Mrs. M. N. Tucker last Tuesday gave a party to her girl friends at which there was a large number present and the evening was made most enjoyable by games and a dancing party and as well was concluded by one of the finest of luncheons.

Enjoy Mask Reception
Miss Laura Lloyd, who is one of the popular young ladies of Nehawka entertained her many friends last Saturday evening at a mask party at her home in Nehawka at which cards, music and dancing and a most enjoyable lunch were elements which made the evening most pleasant. All present were especially pleased with the excellent vning which this young lady provided for them.

School Notes
Miss Charlotte Graff spent the week end at home.

Eighth grade examinations were given last Thursday and Friday.

The students in home economics are baking bread as part of their course.

A Victrola is being planned by the sophomores for convocation next Thursday.

The freshmen are planning an Arbor day program for convocation next Thursday.

The class in animal husbandry judged two classes of steers at Mr. Giles' last Monday.

The school has lost three of its pupils owing to the moving of Chester Waldo to the country.

Grace Linville and Helen Brandt took the teachers examinations at Weeping Water last Saturday.

The seniors have sent for their commencement invitations which are to be printed by the local printer.

Examinations are being given in the high school this week and report the the fifth six weeks will be given out Monday.

The class in home economics is studying the cooking of meats. Good use is being made of the pressure cooker in this subject.

Miss Leona Nuernberger is planning on attending the banquet of the Iota Sigma Pi fraternity, an honorary chemistry fraternity.

The class in European history is nearly through the text and is going to take up the study of the world war for the next six weeks.

The juniors took in $81.40 on their play and after all bills are settled will have in the neighborhood of fifty dollars for their work. They wish to thank the public for its support.

Miss Wright was obliged to be absent from school Friday as she had to have her eyes seen to and the only appointment she could make was on that date. Her classes had written work assigned them.

Remember the school community program coming May 11th. All the schools in the locality will take part.

Dr. H. B. Alexander has been engaged to give the commencement address this year. Rev. Simpkins will give the baccalaureate sermon.

The most of the children in the 3rd and 4th grades have red heads, that is they have redhead tomatoe plants, given them by Mr. Burby which they are going to grow at the school house till warm weather, then they will take them home and set them out.

The grades are now working on an operetta to be given in connection with a community school entertainment on the eleventh of May. The country schools are given part of this program as they did last year and an enjoyable community affair is prophesied. Keep that date open.

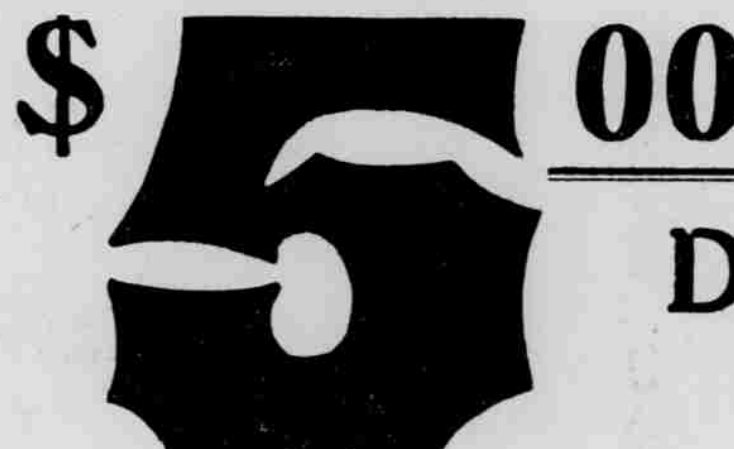

LOSES SIGHT OF EYE
J. W. Magney, of Nehawka, is suffering the loss of the sight of one of his eyes caused by a blood clot on the optic nerve which produced a pressure interfering with his sight. The first disturbance came last Saturday, when he was not able to see from this eye, though the other one seems normal. On Sunday Mr. Mag-ney went to Omaha to consult the oculist, Dr. Gifford, and after a careful examination he was informed there was nothing to do but await developments. The doctor told Mr. Magney that in time the sight might be partially assured, but did not give him any assurance that it would entirely return.

Mr. Magney returned home Monday evening and otherwise than not being able to see from the one eye, is feeling in his usual health.
