EX-JUSTICE BACKS HARDING ON COURT

John H. Clarke Says Proposal Should be Adopted by Senate by a Viva Voce Vote.

Chicago, April 26.—President W. G. Harding's proposal for the United States to become a member of the world court of justice was endorsed today by John H. Clarke, former justice of the supreme court, in an address here. He declared the proposal should be adopted by the senate by viva voce vote without debate.

Former Justice Clarke, who appeared as a representative of the league of nations nonpartisan association, said that only a small group of senators oppose the world court, some saying it had too much power, others that it had too little power and at least one because he held it to be "the offspring of the league of nations."

No one has yet formulated how participation in the court would be effected, he asserted. As an experienced lawyer, he said he was surprised reservations would prevent any relations with the league.

Supported by Daugherty
Asheville, N. C., April 26.—Attorney General Daugherty, commenting on President Harding's speech on the world court, declared his arguments in favor of American participation were "unanswerable and unassailable."

"Cheap prejudice and misrepresentation," Mr. Daugherty said, "have been played up on the court issue, but an intelligent American people can now consider the matter of American membership in a world court from the standpoint of truth and dependable information."

TO REGAIN FORTUNE AND CITIZENSHIP

New York, April 26.—Princess Frances Gallitzin, whose husband, Prince Dmitri, one of Russia's oldest

The princess said she left her husband in Paris, studying carpentry at the Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt school for exiled Russian noblemen. She came here and found her mother not only very ill but almost in dire poverty.

Her mother, she declared, while economizing to the point of living on a few cents a day, had sold most of the family property.

"She sold five of my best horses for $50 a piece," the princess asserted. "The trust company that handles her affairs had a bill against me for $57,000 for legal advice. It looks as if I had lost almost everything."
