

THE BIG-SIX SPEEDSTER, COMPLETELY EQUIPPED AS ILLUSTRATED, $1835

$45,000,000 Worth of Studebaker Big-Sixes in 1922

The public paid more than forty-five million dollars for new Studebaker Big-Six automobiles in 1922, buying more of this model than of any other car selling in the same price field.

In the entire world there were only eleven other automobile manufacturers whose total sale of all models equaled the sale of Studebaker Big-Sixes for 1922, and no other manufacturer sold as many cars of the Big-Six class. In addition to the Big-Six, Studebaker builds the Special-Six and the Light-Six in large volume.

For the first quarter of 1923, Big-Six sales showed an increase of 70 per cent over the same period of 1922, evidencing the growing popularity of this model. Big-Six popularity is the result of Big-Six superiority. Materials and workmanship are unexcelled in any car at any price, and unequalled in any car at the Big-Six price.

With its long 126-inch wheel base, big 4 1/2-inch tires, heavy frame, scientifically distributed load, long Studebaker-made springs, the Big-Six Speedster rides more comfortably than most cars selling at much more money. Its 3 3/8 x 5 motor delivers a world of power, plenty of speed and a quickness of getaway hard to equal.

The price is the result of quantity production.

The name STUDEBAKER is assurance of quality. It has stood for high grade transportation for seventy-one years.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

Mrs. Philip T. Campbell, of Omaha, is in the city enjoying a visit here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sayles and family.

H. E. Burdick departed this morning for Ashland where he goes to secure his auto that has been laid up there owing to the bad weather.

Fred Lutz and wife of near Murray were here today for a few hours attending to some matters of business in the city.

FIRST COMMUNITY CONCERT IN AIR

ARTISTS FROM PLATTSMOUTH FURNISH PROGRAM FOR WOAW STATION.

From Wednesday's Daily: Oh, Mr. Gallagher! Oh, Mr. Gallagher! Is it true that Searl Davis left the farm? After all these years of toil Has his little fallen for the city's charm? Oh, Mr. Shean! Oh, Mr. Shean! You have not been misinformed. That's what I mean. Mr. Davis settled down in Nebraska's FINEST town! Oh! In Omaha, Mr. Gallagher? No, in PLATTSMOUTH, Mr. Shean.

Last evening from 9:00 to 11:00 Plattsouth was very much in evidence in the radio world as the talented musicians and artists of this city furnished the program for the first community concert to be broadcast from station WOAW, the Woodmen of the World, in Omaha, to all parts of North America and the waters surrounding it, and the concert came in good and clear to all those who were listening in from out of the other.

The interest locally over the concert was very keen and there was not a place in the city where there was a radio receiving set that did not have a large party of radio fans listening in on the program and after the last number was given the general verdict was—great, both in the excellent numbers given and in the clear and effective manner that it was sent out into the air by Station WOAW which changed from a 360 meter wave length to 527 last night.

The program committee, which was composed of local people selected by the chamber of commerce, had arranged an excellent array of talent and everyone who participated certainly reflected the greatest credit on themselves and the city of Plattsouth and Cass county. E. H. Wescott, Elmer A. Webb, Ed Schulhof, G. E. DeWolf and Searl S. Davis were on the committee and so well did they "do their stunts" that they will find demands for their services in the future.

When the program was arranged the transportation job and other duties that entered into the task of being the manager of the troupe were assigned to L. O. Minor and he was on the job yesterday afternoon rounding up the various members of the company and the scenery, and saw to it that everyone made the trip and returned safely.

The residents of the city had made arrangements to hear the concert at various homes and business houses and when the first notes of the program came through the air shortly after the hour of 9 there were several hundred people in the city listening in. One of the large crowds to enjoy the concert was at the store of Weyrich and he was on the job yesterday afternoon rounding up the various members of the company and the scenery, and saw to it that everyone made the trip and returned safely.

The opening number on the program was "Staccato Caprice" by Vognrich, played by Mrs. Lillian Freese, who is a dealer in radio goods, and for the occasion Mr. Weyrich had secured a power amplifier from Omaha which added to the receiving value of the instruments. There were some eighty persons at this place and also large crowds at the store of James Mazy and the Plattsouth Hardware station, while at the homes of Elmer Webb, A. H. Duxbury, A. B. Hass and other of the radio fans large parties were present to enjoy the rare treat afforded them.

Hass and other of the radio fans large parties were present to enjoy the rare treat afforded them.

One of the numbers very pleasing to the radio fans was the whistling solo "Miss Alice" by Louise Wescott, "Amoureuse Waltz," and also "The Whistler and His Dog," and in these selections Miss Wescott was accompanied by her uncle, E. H. Wescott, at the Baldwin grand.

One of Plattsouth's favorite vocalists, Edna Marshall Eaton, had the distinction of being the first of the artists to have her voice broadcast over the new 527 meter wave length and gave as her numbers "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" by Tate and "A Bowl O' Blue" by Stoughton, and the singer was heard clearly and distinctly in each of these, and to the listening in it was noticeable that the new wave length did away with the interference found in the lower wave length although it was not noticeable in the excellence of the tone qualities. Christine Coughlin was the accompanist in this selection.

Mrs. Roy Cole of Mynard was heard at the piano in "Valse in E" by Moszkowski and in which her playing was at the best and thoroughly enjoyed.

Don C. York gave two very pleasing baritone solos, "Little Me" and "Sonia Miss You" by Burleigh and Smith, and was accompanied by Miss Mable Lee Copenhaver. Searl S. Davis, hailed far and near as the farmer-humorist of Cass county, was the speaker of the evening and gave a three minute rapid fire talk on Plattsouth and Cass county and in his own clever and Davisque manner told of what the city has in the way of advantages as a place of home dwellers and live industrial and business and incidentally touched on the fact that Plattsouth is the one and only town of this name in the whole United States.

Edna Marshall Eaton and Mrs. E. H. Wescott were heard in a charming duet, "The Violet" by Dvorak, the melody being adapted from the well known Humoresque by the same author.

Mrs. A. D. Caldwell, who is well known over this portion of the state as a violinist of artistic ability, added new laurels to her playing by her rendition of Cadman's "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water."

A diversion in the program was given in the vaudeville skit of Messrs. Raymond C. Cook and Percy H. Field, in which their musical stunts were based on the popular melody of "Gallagher and Shean," the lyrics being appropriately arranged for the occasion and particularly applying to the "loud speaker" as they referred to Mr. Davis, who had preceded them on the program. One of the striking numbers on the program was "Come, For It's June" by Foster and "Touch of Your Hand" by Bond, sung by Mrs. E. H. Wescott and her splendid contralto voice was excellent for broadcasting and came in strong and clear. Mr. Wescott served as accompanist for this number as well as for the duet of Mrs. Wescott and Mrs. Eaton.

The whole world can fully realize if they were listening in last night that we raise our talent young here in Cass county as shown by the two numbers of Master Lucian LaRue, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. "The Little Red Schoolhouse" and "Down at the Old Swimmin' Hole," and Master Lucian drew many compliments for his excellent work and unusual cleverness in one of his tender years. Miss Bessie LaTue served as accompanist for her young brother in both of his numbers. Owing to the lateness of the hour and the fact that the Plattsouth delegation of artists were to return on the 11:30 Missouri Pacific train it was found necessary to cut two of the numbers, one of which was the piano solo of Mrs. Christine Coughlin, one of the real artists of the city, but the vast audience had the pleasure of hearing her work as accompanist in several numbers and in the Caldwell trio. The last selection of the Masonic quartet was also omitted.

The concert was closed by the Caldwell trio composed of Dr. A. D. Caldwell, Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Coughlin in "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens.

During the concert many messages were received at Omaha from Nebraska City in which the artists were showered with congratulations and the keen interest shown by our neighboring city was much appreciated. Nebraska City is to give the second of the community concerts on June 5 and Plattsouth people can rest assured they are going to have another real treat.

OWNED ISLAND FOR PAST THIRTY YEARS

And Owners Make Answer to Ouster Suit in Court—Missouri River Formed Island.

From Wednesday's Daily. Another note in the famous "Island" law suit was sounded in district court yesterday when the answer of the defendants, whose ejectment is sought by men now living on the premises, were filed in the office of the clerk.

Heirs of the late Adam Kloos—Mrs. C. C. Adams, Mrs. Fred Sheer and Mrs. A. Z. Johnson—and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bauer file their answers to the petition of the people who are trying to establish their title to the premises.

The answer, filed separately, set up the statement that more than 30 years ago the late Adam Kloos bought the property, then attached to the mainland of Otoe county. They claim it, cut wood and sold it, and, in fact, were in peaceable possession of the premises.

Several years later, the well known vagaries of the Missouri river became manifest in an extraordinary manner one spring and several succeeding springs and in due time the river ran between the Kloos and Bauer land and the mainland, cutting it off entirely and surrounding it by water. The defendants allege they were still in peaceable and notorious possession, ownership which has never been disputed until recently.

In 1918 the island was leased to one Josh Gilson for a chicken ranch. The next year he transferred his lease to Ira Bates. The heirs of Bates are the plaintiffs in the suit who seek to establish their ownership to the land. The defendants aver that at no time did Bates or any of his people have any right, title or interest to the property except such as they may have received through the lease to Gilson.

Mrs. Rosa Sand, owner of considerable property southeast of Nebraska City, across the river from the island, is also a defendant in the suit, having title, she claims, to some 30 acres of the disputed property, and she will probably file her answer to the plaintiff's petition in a short time.—Nebraska City Press.

FUNERAL OF GEORGE MESTRE

The funeral services of the late George Mestre were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the late home and quite largely attended by the relatives and friends of the deceased. In the absence of the Rev. W. F. Graham, pastor at Murray, who is in attendance at the general conference at Buffalo, New York, the services were conducted by Rev. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Plattsouth. The interment was at the Horning cemetery just south of Plattsouth. George V. Mestre was born at Venice, near East St. Louis, Ill., February 7, 1857, and died at Murray, Nebraska, May 13, 1923. He was married to Sarah L. Massey September 4, 1879. To this union was born a daughter, now Mrs. Cora Voden of Chicago.

On February 17, 1886 he was married to Cora C. Smith at Auburn, Nebraska. To this union were born Meddie Mabel, Ina Dell, Leah Jaunita, Wellington Wave, Irene Elizabeth and Edell Harrison. These children with the exception of Ina Dell, who died in infancy, survive their father, and are here today with their mother to mourn his loss.

Mr. Mestre lived at Auburn until last October when with his wife he came to Murray to reside near his daughter, Mrs. Stasky. During the last few months of his life his health declined rapidly. He confessed Christ as his Saviour and expressed his willingness to go to the better land. He was enrolled as a member of the United Presbyterian church of Murray whose members together with other friends in the community extend their sympathy to the bereaved wife and children. A kind, considerate father has been called home by our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well.

WINS ANOTHER GAME

The South Bend baseball team, one of the best in the county, has won their third straight game since the opening of the season, taking the Aivo team into camp last Sunday. The final score was 13 to 2 in favor of South Bend and the followers of the game in that community are well pleased with the result of the excellent work of their team.
