TAFT'S HIGH ESTIMATE OF HIGH COURT

Speaks at Unveiling of Monument to Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice After Civil War.

Cincinnati, O., May 30.—Attacks made by "radical republicans" on the jurisdiction of the supreme court in civil war and reconstruction days were reviewed by Chief Justice Taft here today with the comment that the verdict of the country in retrospect had been in favor of the position maintained by the court and against the attitude assumed by its critics.

Speaking at the unveiling of a monument to Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase, Justice Taft said that while the highest court undoubtedly had made mistakes in Chase's time, and at other times, the effect of its record as a whole had been to reaffirm the sound foundations upon which it was built.

"The people are now glad," he said, "that the guarantees of personal liberty were maintained by the court against the partisan zeal of the then majority.

"The chief justice made no direct reference to proposals recently made in congress to curb the power of the court, but he recalled that bills proposing to abolish the court's right to declare the laws of congress unconstitutional were introduced just after the civil war and were defeated.

"During the incumbency of Chief Justice Chase," said Justice Taft, "popular feeling was strongly aroused against the court. From time to time, by reason of its jurisdiction and its proper exercise, the court cannot help becoming the stormy petrel of politics. It is the head of the system of federal courts established, avowedly to avoid the local prejudice which non-residents may encounter in state courts. More than this, the court's duty to ignore the acts of congress or of the state legislatures if out of line with the fundamental law of the nation, inevitably throws it as an obstruction across the pass of the then majority who have carried the invalid legislation. The stronger the majority, and the more intense its partisan feeling the less likely is it to regard constitutional limitations upon its power, and the more likely is it to enact laws of questionable validity. It is convincing evidence of the sound sense of the American people in the long run and their love of civil liberty and its constitutional guarantees, that in spite of hostility, thus frequently engendered, the court has lived with its powers unimpaired until the present day."

Mail Service Delays Election

Last Saturday the board of education of the Murdock Consolidated school district, met and decided to call an election as the result of a petition which has been circulated and formulated a call for an election for the issuing of bonds for the purpose of constructing a school house, but owing to the inefficiency of the mail service the notice did not reach the printer until after the paper had been published and in many instances appearing in the hands of the readers. This did not allow the required 20 days to intervene from the publishing of the notice until the election. Therefore, the board met again on June 1 and called the election for June 26 instead of as had been intended the 16th of June. The notice now appearing will be over the required minimum time specified and will avoid any chance of an error in length of time required by law. Remember the date and consider the matter and appear on June 26 to vote as it looks best to each of you.

Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere, Can be Relied Upon.

When you see Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you most always find the recommender a resident of Plattsmouth. It's the same everywhere—in 3,900 towns in the U. S. fifty thousand people publicly thank Doan's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Plattsmouth recommendation. Then insist on having Doan's. You will know what you are getting.

Mrs. Charles Mason, 312 Third street, says: "I have had quite a bit of experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I used to have attacks when my back would be so lame and weak, it bothered me a great deal to be around on my feet. My kidneys were so disordered at times, and I felt miserable and had no ambition. A member of my family who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results advised me to try them, which I did with the best of results. In a short time I felt like a different woman. I get Doan's at Fricke's drug store and use them occasionally when I feel tired in my back and they always quickly relieve me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mason had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK REVIEW HAS BUOYANT TONE

SHOWS INCREASES IN BANK SAVINGS, BUILDING OPERATIONS AND BUSINESS.

ALSO LIVE STOCK MARKET

Cattle and Sheep Have Increased in Number—Unemployment is a Thing of the Past.

The regular monthly review of the federal reserve bank at Kansas City for April covering conditions in the Tenth Federal Reserve district, which includes Nebraska, paints an encouraging word picture of the future of commercial, industrial, live stock and agricultural interests in the middle west.

Cattle and sheep on the ranges have increased in number, hog production has been stimulated, the wool crop has been contracted for at good prices and with the exception of winter wheat the outlook for all grain crops is good, the report states.

Set New Record

Building operations in all the cities of the district and setting a new record in value and extent, public improvements are being carried on in large volume, and the problem of unemployment has solved itself, according to the report.

The volume of wholesale and retail trade has increased, bank savings have grown, the volume of banking business is larger, the amount involved in failures has decreased and everyone reports collections better than for some time.

Leads in General Improvement

The report shows Omaha and Nebraska keeping step with, if not leading, other cities and states in the Tenth Federal Reserve district in the general improvement.

The high points in the bank report for the entire district, which includes Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Missouri and Wyoming, are as follows:

Cattle on long grass pastures fully up to normal in number.

Sheep on the range have greatly increased.

Lamb crop is exceptionally large. Wool crop has been sold at around 50 cents a pound.

Little Unemployment

Building activity has been the largest on record since January 1. Very little unemployment is reported.

Volume of wholesale trade increased 19.1 per cent over same period of 1922.

Bank savings increased ten per cent or from $90,000,000 to $100,000,000.

Total volume of bank business increased 16.7 per cent.

Extent of building operations increased 55 per cent.

Retail trade increased more than 8 per cent.

Receipts of cattle at six large markets were the largest April receipts since 1919.

Grain Receipts Increase

Receipts of grain at principal markets show large increase. Crop conditions in Nebraska are given as favorable in general except that rain has retarded the spring work.

Pastures are in splendid condition, more cattle are being fed than for several years, the spring crop of pigs is larger than last year and the live stock industry is on a firmer basis than for the last two or three years.

The Nebraska winter wheat crop is estimated at 23,674,000 bushels, as compared with 27,600,000 in 1922. Eastern Nebraska will have a good winter wheat crop. Western Nebraska will have little wheat.

More Corn Acreage

Acreage planted to corn in Nebraska and the entire district has shown an increase and prospects are good.

Western Nebraska has a large acreage in sugar beets, oats and barley, and other crops probably will show increased acreage and yield.

Omaha's April record in every respect compares favorably with that of other cities in the district.

Flour production increased as compared with that of April, 1922, the total this year being 65,022 barrels.

PURCHASES NEW HOME

Joseph Hiber, Jr., yesterday completed the details of the purchase of the residence property of Hon. W. H. Newell on North Fifth street and will soon occupy the new home. The deal was consummated through Fred G. Egenberger the rustling real estate dealer, and is one that is pleasing to all of the parties concerned as it gives Mr. Hiber and his estimable wife a fine and attractive home and releases Mr. Newell from the care and worry of the property as he will make his home elsewhere in the future. Mr. Newell will make his home at St. Joseph, Missouri, and in Florida for the greater part of the time in the future and this will relieve him of the need of attending to the residence property here.

DEMPSEY IS IN THE PINK OF CONDITION RIGHT NOW

Just Keeping in Shape and Could Step Into Ring Tomorrow, Say Reports from Camp.

Great Falls, Mont., May 31.—Jack Dempsey wants to be fine when he boxes the fast-moving Tommy Gibbons July 4th at Shelby. But not too fine.

The champ is taking the last week of May off. He will head a fishing party to the lakes—relax and rough it.

Jack finds he hasn't enough surplus weight to train on.

He made that mistake once before. When he fought Bill Brennan it took him 12 rounds to knock him out. He was too fine.

Dempsey is in shape right now. He could fight tomorrow.

People wonder why the champ isn't fat and all out of condition after being idle from the ring two years.

The reason is this—Dempsey trains instinctively all the time.

Strangely enough—being entirely ignorant of the rules laid down for college athletes—he hit upon practically the same system they use in his own natural way.

We were sitting on the edge of the training camp ring on the banks of the muddy Missouri.

"I begin my training with my teeth and keep my system clear down to the tips of my toes.

"The stomach is the key to perfect health.

"My diet rules are simple and natural.

"I eat lots of fruit and vegetables.

"Once a day I like a well-done roast of beef or veal. Also I relish salads with plenty of olive oil. Olive oil is one of the best tonics for the stomach there is.

"Boxers while working hard, are likely to be constipated.

"When a man is in condition he has natural appetites.

"When a man is out of condition he has unnatural appetites. That is why you have to watch yourself.

"I never have been a heavy eater. One good meal a day and two or three light lunches are all I care for.

"As to my drinks, I sometimes take coffee with my breakfast. Then I drink a lot of buttermilk. That's good stuff.

"I have always followed the old time habit of drinking a little beer or ale. It is supposed to be strengthening.

"I don't think a boxer should drink much of it, though, except when he feels he is getting stale or if he is rounding into shape too fast.

"A bottle of beer will take the edge off of a fellow when he is too fine.

"Another thing—when you are shaping up too quickly it is best to

FLOODS MENACE BURLINGTON LINES

Further Heavy Rains Fall in Beaver Valley—Loss in Bridges is Heavy Over the Lines

Lincoln, May 30.—Further heavy rains last night and this morning along the Beaver valley, in southwest Nebraska, have aggravated the flood situation which has prevailed there for nearly a week, according to advices reaching here. Burlington railroad reports said heavy rains fell at Trenton, Benkelman and Culbertson Tuesday night. Water ran over the main line of the road near Trenton.

General Manager Flynn and General Superintendent Lyman of the Burlington went to the McCook division of the road Tuesday night to assist in keeping traffic moving over the flood menaced lines. Rains following the first flood in the Beaver valley have made the rebuilding of the broken railroad along streams a difficult task. The St. Francis (Kan.) branch of the road is still out of commission and it may be several days before traffic can be resumed, officials said.

Reports from valley counties along the Republican river say the loss from the flood in county bridges, county roads and farm property will be high. In Furnas county alone, it was said, the loss will be nearly a quarter of a million dollars. Franklin county estimates the loss in bridges at $50,000.

Bridge Loss $60,000

McCook, Neb., May 30.—Red Willow county's largest item of loss by the floods in the Republican river is the cement reinforced steel bridge at Bartley which represents a loss of $60,000.
