I Will Engage in Business!

Having decided to engage in the mercantile business in Union, I have purchased some stock of A. L. Becker and am adding to this of the best and choicest goods in the lines carried.

I shall place a full line of stock and will serve you the best the market affords, while at the same time will make the price as low as possible with safety in business.

Watch this space for an ad in the future and I will offer you the choicest and at prices which will attract all as patrons of the store.

The Corner Store!

In announcing the purchase of the Becker store, we desire to say that—

1—We will conduct the business on the same high plane it has been conducted in the past.

2—We extend an invitation to all the former patrons of the store and as many new ones as possible to give us their patronage, assuring you the best of treatment at all times.

3—We will straighten out the stock immediately and will give some especial bargains in the near future, of which we will advise you in these columns soon.

Again thanking all for their patronage and many kindly well wishes since locating here, we desire to assure you the best of treatment at all times at—or was when he was there last, for he was not able to get any of them out.

W. A. Taylor has been assisting in the making of hay while the sun shines, at the home of his brother, Mr. S. M. Taylor for the past few days.

W. L. Stine just recently disposed of one hundred and twenty acres of land which he has been the owner of, lying near the Missouri river east of town.

Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Planek were visitors for the day after church services, at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Elizabeth Easter southwest of Union.

Little Marjorie Hoback has been visiting in Union with her grandparents and also assisting with the Children's day program at the Baptist church.

Mrs. George Johnson of Burwell, was a visitor here for ever the week end, visiting at the homes of Messrs. W. L. Stine and R. D. Stine while here.

Fred Clark was a visitor in Omaha for the latter portion of last week, going to attend the races which were to be held there, and remained for over Sunday.

Messrs. Wm. Campbell of Plattsmouth and Joseph Thompson of Nebraska City were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Perdue for the day last Sunday.

J. W. Simmons and W. H. Porter have proven themselves decorators beyond dispute as they were the creators of the decorations at the Methodist church for children's day.

King Clarke of Omaha, where he is an operator and a cartoonist as well, was a visitor with his parents in Union last Sunday and also attended the ball game at Plattsmouth.

Carl Meisinger of west of Plattsmouth and Joe McMaken, were in Union last Monday, coming down to get the automobile of Mr. Meisinger which was damaged in the wreck near Union Sunday evening.

W. E. Banning was a visitor in Weeping Water last Monday, where he went to attend a meeting, at which the matter of tuberculosis in cattle was considered and ways devised to avert the ravages of the plague.

Mrs. Mabel Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis were visiting in Omaha last Sunday, they being guests of Mrs. J. C. Miller and also enjoying an outing at Krug park and many other places of interest in the big city.

Sheriff C. D. Qinton of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Union last Monday, he coming to this place to look after the sale of some fixtures which had been levied on to satisfy a claim which was held against Thomas Cromwell.

W. A. Harding was a visitor in Bethany, his home, last Sunday, returning here on Monday morning to take up his work. On Tuesday morning his son, Niles Harding, arrived to spend the week with his father, and will stay for a week.

Things are very quiet at this time about the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks for the reason that the noted conversationalist, their choice parrot, died last week. Will is somewhat at a loss, as he cannot quarrel with the wife and the parrot is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Franzen of Omaha and L. G. Larson and wife, of Plattsmouth were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster, the former being brother and sister-in-law of Mr. Foster, while Mr. and Mrs. Larson are parents of Mrs. Foster.

Attorney Paul Manhardt of Omaha, where he is engaged in the practice of law, was called in Union one day last week, being a guest of Attorney C. L. Graves. Mr. Manhardt formerly resided at Elmwood and later at Auburn, during the time he was a candidate for congress in the primary last spring.

Last Sunday D. B. Lynde and wife and their little one were visiting in Nebraska City where they were guests at the home of L. J. Hall and in company with Mr. Hall and Little, Mr. Lynde attended a ball game at Auburn which was very tightly contested for fourteen innings with the final score 2 to 1 in favor of Nebraska City.

W. H. Sheeley, manager of the Corner store, was called to Omaha last Friday to look after some business matters with reference to his store here. Mr. and Mrs. Sheeley are well pleased with the business which comes to them and are liking Union very well. Their daughter, Miss Sheeley, arrived from the southwest and is assisting with the work of the store.

Miss Bonnie Ellis, who has been teaching in the Union schools for the past two years, accompanied by her sister, Miss Opal Ellis, of Weeping Water, departed last Monday morning for Weleetka, Kansas, where they will spend a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dolan, who are uncle and aunt of the Misses Ellis and where they are assured of an excellent time.

Messrs. Eugene Roddy, A. W. Probst, Charley Irwin and Jack Roddy made up a party, who attended the ball game at Omaha last Sunday, making the trip in the car of Mr. Probst and enjoying the game and especially were they pleased with the good showing made by the visiting team from Wichita. Mr. Eugene Roddy remained over night to visit with a friend and thus escaped getting injured in a collision, an account of which is given in another column of this paper.

Will Entertain Saturday Night There will be given at the Sciota school on Saturday night of this week an entertainment and ice cream supper with the festive strawberry as a portion of the bill of fare. If you want to have a good time come and see the folks and have a most sociable time for they will make the evening one of pleasure. ### Will Spend Month in West

W. O. Burbee and family and Miss Leatha Porter departed this week for the west and will spend a month and in their itinerary will see many places of interest in Nebraska and Colorado and enjoy camping in the mountains of the latter state. They will go via their auto.

The Cat Came Back

This is an assured fact and known by many of the employees of the Farmers store. This is the cat which was seen going south and ran so far in a day that it took it a week to come back, has come back.

Improvements at Farmers' Elevator

The improvements at the Farmers' elevator are going forward very rapidly. Mr. W. A. Harding, manager, and his assistant, Frank Owens, have been busy putting in the foundation for the new ten ton truck scale and the new office which is to occupy a sit east and south of the elevator proper. The foundations are now completed and the work on the superstructure will begin at once and will be done by Mr. Joseph Bauer, who is a most capable carpenter and builder.

Children's Day Observed in Union

By both the churches in Union, Children's day was observed and a large number of people availed themselves of the opportunity of attending to witness the well rendered program and also to contribute to the cause which these entertainments represent.

Married Last Thursday

Last Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Thompson, of Nebraska City, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Josie Thompson, to Mr. Clyde Kastner of Union where she is cook in the Union hotel.

Attend Ball Game at Plattsmouth

A number of the boys interested in baseball in Union attended the game at Plattsmouth Sunday between the Alliance and Plattsmouth shop teams of the Burlington railway, and which it has been decided is the last of the shop league games, the railroad stopping further play because the long distance requires the players to be away from their work too much. The boys pronounce the visitors as being some real ball players and able to hold their own with all comers. The game resulted in a score of 5 to 2 in favor of the visitors, three of their scores coming in the ninth. Those attending from here were Ira Clark, Loy Hatheway, Louis Eaton, King Clarke, Earl Merritt, Sherman Austin and Earl Hathaway of Murray.

Will Hold Annual Picnic

For more than a third of a century the people of Union and vicinity have celebrated each year the formation of the old settlers' association, which has for the past thirty-four years met in an annual picnic and thus afforded an opportunity for all who have desired in the past and are still desirous of meeting their friends each year. At a meeting when a new set of officers were selected, it was decided to hold the annual picnic in the town of Union, where an abundance of good shade and cool water are convenient. The following committees were selected for the coming year: Rev. W. A. Taylor, president; J. T. Reynolds, vice president; C. L. Graves, secretary and J. M. Patterson, treasurer.

Meets with Serious Accident One day last week while Ray Becker was adjusting a hay rope in the cupola of the barn at the Becker home, he slipped and fell, sliding down the roof of the barn and from which he then fell some twenty feet, alighting on his feet. He received injuries which confined him to his bed for a number of days. He was able to be in town on Monday of this week although he complained of being very sore and stiff and was considering the matter of going to Omaha to have an X-ray taken to ascertain the extent of his injuries. He was fortunate in not being more seriously injured and is pleased that he is able to be up at this time.

Judge Todd Buys Business

On Monday of this week, A. L. Becker, who has been in business for a number of years, and who recently disposed of his mercantile line here to W. H. Seelley, and having more than he wanted by the purchaser, moved the remainder into the Morton room, where he has been disposing of them as far as possible unto the date above mentioned when he sold them to Judge L. G. Todd, who is establishing a business there. Mr. Todd is well and favorably known, and has a host of friends and should make good as a merchant here. Mr. Todd besides purchasing the remaining stock of the Becker store, will add new goods and a complete line of first class meats and groceries. See his announcement stating that he has purchased the business and will furnish the best goods at prices which will meet with the public favor. Mr. Todd purchased the fixtures which were in the store, the cash register going to Mr. L. R. Upton.

Citizens Show Patriotism

In every way assisting in the solution of the problems which come to the committee having in charge the entertainment of the visitors who are to come to the annual Old Settlers' picnic, the city and its citizens have agreed to open their grounds for the entertainment of the visitors, thus minimizing the expense of those attending and making the matter as nearly free as possible. For this spirit, the committee in charge of the arrangements for the picnic are truly thankful and desire to so express themselves.

Thompson-Kastner Wedding

The marriage of Miss Josie Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Thompson, of 614 Seventh avenue, to Claude Kastner, was solemnized yesterday at noon at the parsonage of the Christian church at Sidney, Iowa. They were accompanied by the bride's parents and her grandmother, Mrs. L. M. Thompson, of St. Joseph.

The bride was attired in a gray Canton crepe dress and wore a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and brides' roses, a gift from her grandmother. A reception for relatives and a few friends was held at the home of the bride's parents last evening.

Both young people are well known in the city. Miss Thompson until recently was employed as a telephone operator at the local exchange. The groom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kastner and is now employed at the Union Hotel at Union, where the young couple will make their home.—Nebraska City Press, Friday, June 15, 1923.

VISITING OLD HOME

From Wednesday's Daily.
The many friends of Mrs. Kate Mary, formerly Miss Kate Neville, former resident of this city, will be pleased to learn that she is enjoying a short visit back in the old home in Plattsmouth and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Bach, Sr., in the south part of the city. Mrs. Mary has been in Omaha visiting at the home of Mrs. P. A. Welch, an old friend, and in company with Mrs. Welch came down to visit at the Bach home and to meet other of the friends of other days. It has been seventeen years since Mrs. Mary removed to the west coast and many changes have occurred in the city of her birth since that time and many of those she had known in the past gone from the old home surroundings.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SCHLEGEL

From Wednesday's Daily.
The funeral of Mrs. Johanna Schlegel was held yesterday from the Brewer chapel in Omaha and the interment made at the Bellevue cemetery. Mrs. Schlegel was seventy-seven years of age and a pioneer resident of Nebraska and for a number of years residing in Plattsmouth, but for the past twenty-six years has been living in Omaha. She is survived by one son, Alex Schlegel of Wellington, Missouri, three daughters, Mrs. Otto Colliacott of Flint, Michigan, Mrs. Corn Wagner of Florence and Mrs. Myrtle J. Smith of Stratton, California. The deceased lady was a cousin by marriage of Mrs. Eliza Kaufman of this city.

FIND A FLOATER

From Wednesday's Daily.
This morning, Sheriff Quinton and County Attorney Cole were called to South Bend where a floater had been found in the river, lodged against a pier of the Rock Island bridge. It was found that the body was on the Sarpy county side of the river and therefore it was turned over to County Attorney Collins of that county. The identification of the body had not been made at the time the Cass county officials left South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sarter of Everett, Washington, who were here visiting at the home of Mrs. Sarter's mother, Mrs. Libershal and with her brothers, John, Joe and Frank Libershal and Mrs. Henry Meisinger families, departed this morning for their home.

Attorney J. A. Capwell was here today from Elmwood looking after some matters of importance at the court house.
