

COOK FAMILY HOLDS 10TH ANNUAL MEETING

CITY PARK AT WEEPING WATER SCENE OF GATHERING OF NOTABLE FAMILY.

The tenth annual reunion of the Cook family, one of the largest and most distinguished in the county, was held on Sunday, June 17th, in the city park at Weeping Water where it has been staged for the past two years and in the point of attendance was the largest held since 1913 when the reunion spirit was first brought up by the members of the family.

The automobiles commenced arriving early in the day and soon the attractive and comfortable park was filled with members of the family, both old and young and at 1 o'clock the contents of the well filled baskets were placed upon the tables and dinner served and one such as can only be found in the Cass county homes. The dinner was served in cafeteria style.

Immediately after dinner the members of the party participated in the short business session and at which time the officers for the coming year were named, being: Will Cook, Alvo, president; Mrs. Mae Dreamer, Lincoln, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Roy Cole, Mynard, manager of musical program. A letter from Samuel Huebner of Burlington, Iowa, was read to the audience. In the letter he expressed the deepest regret at not being able to be present at this reunion, but would be with them in thought if not in person.

The program for the day was one of the greatest delight to all of the members of the party and was well arranged. The Cole orchestra of Mynard was present and gave an exceptionally strong program which was interspersed by a number of songs and recitations. Master Elmer Cole and Lois Cole of Brule, also Wesley Cook of Alvo gave pleasing recitations. Vocal solos were given by Alice Barbara Wiley and Raymond Cook of Plattsmouth; Gertrude Valley of Myard and Mrs. Robert Hartman of Perry, Oklahoma. Ruth Dreamer of Lincoln also gave a very charming instrumental number and a piano duet was given by the Burbridge sisters of Plattsmouth which was very much enjoyed and showed a great deal of skill on the part of the ladies. Mr. C. C. Burbridge and daughters also gave a number of xylophone selections that aided in completing the excellent program.

At the close of the program, Robert R. Hartman of Perry, Oklahoma, gave a short talk that was enjoyed very much as it had been seventeen years since he had been here in Nebraska to mingle with the relatives and friends.

Those from out of Cass county attending the reunion were: Philip Cook and wife of Hadar, Neb.; George Cook and son, Ray of Hadar, Neb.; Mrs. Will Wenke of Pierce county, Nebraska; Mrs. I. D. Stone, Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Hartman of Perry, Oklahoma; E. V. Cole, wife and children, Lois and Elmer of Brule, Nebraska; Carl Cole of Brule.

JUNE BRIDE IS GIVEN AD CLUB PRIZES TODAY

Mrs. Grace McCardie and Mr. Leo C. Hite, the Fortunate Couple to Receive Remembrances.

From Wednesday's Daily.

With the skies bright and blue, the roses blooming in the charm of early summer and the singing birds to join in a chorus of joyous happiness, the June bride came into her own today and the winner of the handsome prizes offered by the Plattsmouth merchants was Mrs. Grace McCardie, whose marriage to Mr. Leo C. Hite occurred at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of Rev. H. G. McClusky.

The seekers after wedded bliss were at the court house at an early hour and as soon as the necessary license was secured the taxi donated by the Bauer garage was summoned and in this the bride and groom to be and Edwin Fricks, the master of ceremonies for the Ad club, motored to the Presbyterian manse where the words that made the young people as one were pronounced.

The bride, after the wedding, was presented with the fine $5 bridal bouquet by George Conis and also received the $10 in gold, the gift of the Ad club and with the free license and ceremony and the bridal dinner put in a very pleasing as well as profitable morning.

The remainder of the prizes will be held until tonight in case there are others who desire to take the large circle of warm friends. The bride and groom will be the brides and should Mrs. Hite prove the only bride of the day she will receive all of the gifts.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. R. Hunter of this city and has lived here for a lifetime and possesses a large circle of warm friends. The groom has made his home here for several months and is at present in the employ of the Burlington at the local shops.

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Brush dams will help stop erosion. F. H. Goodfellow of Greenwood says the brush dam does the work that one built in a small ditch that drains fifty acres or more, but through all the heavy rains. Although the ditch did not fill up much because the land is not farmed now, just pastured. A dam was built at the head of a small ditch running back in to the field for Amos Weldon, near Ashland.

Now is the time to begin to think about harvest labor. Harvest has begun in Texas and soon will be here. A. J. Deitrich of Louisville says strawberries will do well on bottom land except when we have a wet spring and then they mildew. He also stated that he would have only one-half crop of berries as the frost this spring killed about one-half the blossoms.

Many are using arsenate of lead No. 1 to 25 gallons of water to spray for potato bugs. Mr. Miller of Weeping Water says he sprayed his potatoes once this spring using arsenate of lead and it is still there. And if he had used Paris Green he would have had to spray after each rain.

Monday morning, June 11, found muddy roads but this failed to keep the women of Maple Grove club at home. About eighteen women came with work baskets well filled and material for a summer dress. Before the day was over every woman present had her dress cut and fitted and plans made for finishing same. The ladies served a delicious cafeteria dinner at noon. Everyone returned home feeling that the day was most profitable.

Twenty-two girls of Rock Bluff precinct and their leader Mary Parks met at the Lewiston church Tuesday morning June 12. The morning was spent planning for sewing bags each girl having material for same. They were taught to draft the pattern and then each girl used her pattern for cutting the bag. Before the meeting closed the bags were nearly completed. All enjoyed a picnic lunch at noon.

Tuesday afternoon the women of the Murray club met at the home of Mrs. John Davis and spent the time fitting waist pattern and cutting and fitting summer dresses. Many attractive dresses will be completed.

Twelve enthusiastic girls met at the home of their local leader, Mrs. R. B. Foster, Wednesday, June 13. The two girls taking course two had some very attractive towels with blue and white embroidery, on display. Problem two, the clothes pin bag, was taken up and all the girls drafted patterns. At noon, Mrs. Foster served a delicious dinner.

The Chilson community club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Domingo Wednesday afternoon. Several of the women cut and fitted dresses and made plans for attractive finishes for same.

The women of Eight Mile Grove precinct displayed their culinary art Thursday afternoon by making and serving different kinds of fruit and vegetable salads. Each woman vied with her neighbor in trying to display the most attractive salad. All looked very tempting and when the time came to test same it was hard to say which was the best. Bulletins were given out containing recipes of the different salads and salad dressings. Another interesting feature of the meeting was a display of children's clothing. About fifteen attractive little tots' dresses and suits were on display, most of them being made over the patterns which Mrs. Legg gave out at the children's clothing demonstration. Everyone voted the meeting a great success.

CLASS OF 1921 OF PLATTSMOUTH HIGH HAS REUNION

"Clover Lodge" Scene of Delightful Get Together Meeting of the Former Classmates.

From Wednesday's Daily.

After a period of two years of life in the world following their graduation from the Plattsmouth high school, the class of 1921 last evening renewed the spirit of their school days in the class reunion at "Clover Lodge," the country home of Judge and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson, and on this occasion were entertained by Miss Grace Beeson, a former member of the class.

The attendance was quite large, twenty-one being present in person, and a number of greetings read from those living at a distance and it is needless to say that the hours passed quickly for the young people. At the class meeting Mason Wescott, class president, who is now attending Northwestern university at Chicago, read the class roll and as their names were called each member responded by giving their experiences since leaving school and the letters from the absentees were read. Letters from George F. Dovey, Chicago; Frank Lister, Burbank, California; Margaret Kennedy, Mercy convent, Omaha; Ada Tulene, Orange, California; Genevieve Goodman, Lincoln and Margaret Spangler residing near this city, were read. Misses Thelma Olson and Wilma Rainey, who are attending Peru Normal, called by long distance telephone to give their greetings.

The lawn of the Beeson home had been very pleasantly arranged with festoons of electric lights scattered over the pleasant greensward and with the large groups of blooming roses made a real fairy like setting for the gathering. Here games of all kinds were played until a late hour when the dainty refreshments were served that added to the enjoyableness of the event.

The class enjoyed having with them two of their former teachers, Mrs. Mae S. Morgan, now a member of the Omaha teaching force, and Mrs. Glenn Dixon McMaken, who had been sponsor to the class in their junior year in school.

The members of the class attending were: Mrs. Fae Chase Martin, Mason Wescott, Carl Schneider, John Suttler, Gustave Brubacher, John Strubela, Claire Hudson, Melvin Johnson, Joe McCarty, Clara Mae Morgan, Alice Pollock, Verla Becker, Kathryn Wadick, Pauline Bajack, Eleanor Hiber, Rose Janda, Fern Noble, Emma Wohlfarth, Clara Trilley, Grace Beeson, Eva Crook of Lincoln.

The class selected Miss Eleanor Hiber of this city as the permanent secretary of the class in this city.

The boosters of the Union locality are planning now for the holding of the annual reunion of the pioneers of Cass and Olmsted counties and which session will be held on August 24th and 25th in the pleasant grove southwest of Union, where it has been located for the past few years.

To see that the re-union was put over in proper shape, officers were selected at the booster meeting a few days ago and are as follows: Rev. W. A. Taylor, president; James T. Reynolds, vice president; Charles L. Graves, secretary and Jack M. Patterson, treasurer.

The first reunion was held in 1889 and since then each year in the late summer months the good people of Union have acted as hosts to the grey haired pioneers of the two counties there and the interchange of the memories of the old days have proven very pleasant to the pioneers and the younger generations have also been entertained fittingly with the pleasures of the present days.
