brand of the weather which the northwest furnishes.

For certain it is known that two people of Nehawka were not at the Murray beach last Sunday, one was Scott Norris and thirty-four people claim to be the other one. The matter of the identity of the one, other than Scott is still in doubt, but it is expected that it will soon be revealed.

Joseph West and wife formerly of Beatrice where they were in business were visiting in Nehawka at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. West last Sunday and together with Mr. West and wife and W. J. Wunderlich enjoyed a perfect day at the pleasant shady resort along the Missouri river near Langford, Mo.

Mrs. A. J. Tool and daughter, Miss Catherine of Murdock were guests for a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson, where all enjoyed the occasion very much. Mrs. Anderson and Miss Catherine Tool were pupils and teachers at the same school at Firth when Mrs. Anderson was Miss Alma Ost.

Lovell Massie of Beatrice arrived in Nehawka last Monday morning and he with Postmaster Hoback went to the farm of F. N. Massie, where they assisted in the harvesting. This was a little severe on the postmaster who was not overly used to the boiling rays of Old Sol, but still they both did valiant work in the fields as well as at the table.

A. C. Anderson has accepted a position in the lumber yard of A. F. Sturm and with his business ability will be a great help to Mr. Sturm. Mr. Anderson has also accepted the state management of the Whitesell wire stretcher which he is selling over the state and for which he is finding an active demand. It is claimed to be the only stretcher on the market which allows one to stretch to the last post.

It is reported that H. L. Thomas, the genial and very pleasant agent of the Missouri Pacific, was greatly disappointed when he went to the Murray beach for a dip in the cool crystal water when informed that there were no suits large enough for him as the one which he was expected to have worn had been appropriated by a lady well his size or larger. He had a good time watching others swim all the same and expects to have one to take along the next time he goes.

Will Bore For Oil

Thomas J. O'Hara who has been in Lincoln for some time past was a visitor in Nehawka last Sunday during the day between trains looking after business matters and assured the people that in a short time there would be a complement of men with the latest drilling devices tapping the earth in this neighborhood for oil.

Enjoyed a Picnic

Last Sunday Dan Anderson and wife were visiting at Weeping Water where they with other former neighbors enjoyed a picnic which has been the practice of the neighbors for some time. The picnic was held at the home of Arthur Wolph.

Installs a Radio

Last week when John O. Yelser and family came to Nehawka for a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm they brought with them a radio which Mr. Sturm is highly pleased with and which affords him an opportunity to attend services at Omaha with out leaving home. He was much pleased with the service of the First Christian church last Sunday evening which was a musical program with a most strong and energetic as well as broad sermon, entitled "The World Owes No One a Living."

MRS. A. F. BOEDEKER OF NEHAWKA LAID TO REST

Last Saturday at her late home southwest of Murray was held the funeral of the late Mrs. Mathilda Wenke Boedeker, wife of Mr. A. F. Boedeker, who was born near Watertown, Wisconsin, August 31, 1863, where she lived for a number of years. This excellent woman was united in marriage with Adolph Boedeker on March 29, 1885, and have made their home on the farm where she passed away, for a number years. To this union there were born three sons and one daughter, the latter dying in infancy. The sons are Frank A. Boedeker, Edward J. Boedeker and George D. Boedeker all residing near Nehawka. Mrs. Boedeker also leaves three brothers they being Henry Wenke of Spencer, Neb., and William and George Wenke of Norfolk. Mrs. Boedeker joined the United Brethren church in 1895 and had always been a devoted and consistent Christian. Mrs. Boedeker died on the national birthday after but a short illness. The funeral services were held from the late home by the Rev. W. A. Taylor and interment made at the Eight Mile Grove cemetery. Prayer at the cemetery was offered by James Stander of Louisville who has been a lifelong friend of the family.

A HAPPY OCCASION

Thomas Gradoville and wife are rejoicing over the arrival at their home yesterday of a fine eleven and a half pound baby boy, who, with the mother, is doing very nicely and Tom is feeling as happy as a lark over the addition that has come to the family circle and makes two children in the family.

CASS COUNTY IN THE AIR

This, however, does not mean that the county is up in the air in any manner but the talent that thrives in Cass county as greatly as the fine cattle, corn and wheat, is to entertain the whole world via the air route and Station WOAW at the Woodmen of the World in Omaha. Plattsmouth has already given two fine community programs and Weeping Water will be next with a program on Sunday, July 22nd and which will consist of a religious program of songs and an address. This will be a feature that will be much appreciated as a part of the Sunday observance and can be depended upon to be first class as Weeping Water has some very fine church choirs and able ministers in their city.

MURDOCK CAMP FIRE GIRLS TO MEET FRIDAY

The Murdock Camp Fire will hold a public ceremonial at the school grounds at Murdock next Friday, July 13. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend. Honors will be awarded then.

What is nicer than a record of "Baby?"

The Bates Book and Stationery store has just received a fine line of "Baby Books," in which the pictures and sayings of the little one can be kept for the future years. If you have a baby in your home there is nothing nicer.

Perhaps the president of the class has a write up for us. Don't forget! Every church member at church next Sunday.

F. G. Egenberger will write you a policy in the New York Life Insurance Co., and look after your New York Life business.
