JOE BANNING

Union, Nebraska

Get those good Victor and Puritan flours at L. G. Todd & Co. Also Nebraska flour. Miss Beulah Fell visited with friends in Omaha last Saturday. Roy Youker and family were visiting last Saturday making the trip in their auto. County Agent L. R. Snipes of Weeping Water was a visitor in Union having some business matters to take up with Senator W. B. Banning. John C. McCarroll is also among those who have acquired a new car and this time he secured one for service getting a Ford from the local dealer, Mr. A. W. Propst. Uncle Henry A. Chilcott is sporting a new Ford coupe which he is driving and fiked his new acquisition thinking there is nothing handier in the transportation line than this little boat. Mrs. Nellie Planck of Kansas City was a visitor for the past week at the home of her son, the Rev. H. H. Planck pastor of the First Baptist church and will remain for a longer visit with her son and wife. County Commissioner C. F. Harris is getting his new car this season and secured a Ford making the purchase from A. W. Propst and knowing the value in this class of cars was not making a guess in his purchase. Grandma Fitch of Kenosha, was a visitor in Union last Sunday and a guest at the home her granddaughter, Mrs. Earl Merritt and will celebrate her 86th birthday this coming Saturday having been born on August 4th, 1837. Grandma is a very girl for her age and gets around very nicely.

Highest prices paid for produce. Plenty of fresh fruits.—Todd & Co. Miss Beulah Fell visited with friends in Omaha last Saturday. Roy Youker and family were visiting last Saturday making the trip in their auto. Victor Clarence was looking after some business and also visiting with friends in Omaha last Saturday. W. L. Taylor and family of Omaha were visiting and looking after some business matters in Union last Saturday. C. H. Taylor and family, who departed last week arrived in California on last Monday and will make their home there in the future. Chris Peterson has secured a car and this time he has selected a Ford and thinks he has made a wise selection and he is sure it is adapted to his needs. There will be an election of the Men's Bible class at the Baptist school at the session of the school next Sunday when they will select a teacher for the coming year for the class. There was a large and interesting crowd of the neighbors at Scota church services and a most profitable service was had, the Rev. W. A. Taylor delivering the address. Rev. H. H. Planck and wife and mother, Mrs. Nellie Planck of Kansas City, Mo., who is visiting here, were visitors in Omaha last Saturday making the trip in an auto. Mrs. W. H. Mark entertained the members of the ladies aid society of the Baptist church and the members of the World Wide Guild Girls at the basement of the Baptist church and at which some 35 of them enjoyed the excellent time which this lady gave them. The time for the evening service at the Baptist church has been definitely fixed for exactly 8 o'clock at which time the services will be promptly commenced. The B. Y. P. U. meeting will commence one half hour earlier or at 7:30. The president of the society Miss Mildred Clark, who has been away, has returned and it is expected more active work will be had from this on.

YEGGS LURED TO NEBRASKA FROM ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY

Cross Country Thieves All Find Occasion to Stop in This State—New York Car is Found.

From Wednesday's Daily. Whether or not it is geographic location that does it, Nebraska draws bandits and yeggs from all directions. Cross country thieves starting from California, Washington and New York find occasion to stop in Nebraska as do runners from the Dakotas and the south. A big Haynes touring car, practically new and carrying New York license number 1-420-467, was abandoned Sunday near Fullerton, scene of one of the big store robberies. Two strange men were seen in the town during the day. Local officers assisted by Deputy State Sheriff Fred Benton are working on the case. Disappearance of the two strangers is mysterious. The car did not break down. It carried a supply of oil and gas. The officers know of nothing which occurred to frighten suspect occupants. The car was not discovered until after the strangers had made their getaway.

State Sheriff Carroll is in communication with New York officials in an effort to establish ownership. He is certain that either the car was voluntarily abandoned or that the occupants met with foul play. There is nothing to indicate foul play and the finding of the car puts a quietus to any such theory. He reasons that unless the car was stolen it would not have been abandoned.

A short time ago a Washington car was abandoned in Nebraska but in that case there was a trail to follow. It was abandoned at Franklin and another car stolen. There is nothing to indicate that occupants of the deserted car at Franklin abandoned it for the purpose of stealing another.

Sheriff Quinton of Cass county was in conference with the state sheriff Tuesday in regard to recent bandit activities in the eastern part of the state. He said that a big car carrying four men crossed on the ferry at Plattsmouth at daylight last Thursday. He believes that these are the men who late that night slugged the Elmwood watchman and early the next morning made an unsuccessful raid on the bank at Raymond. He concludes that they were out of Omaha or Council Bluffs.

The Cass county official, because of his long service and because of the fact that his is a border county, knows Nebraska bandit history from direct contact. He believes that the Fullerton store robbers belong to a big gang. His own investigations have brought him to the conclusion that loot taken from stores is not held long in bandit custody. It is taken to one central den, re-labeled, boxed and shipped to market. He contends that the one thriving element to thievery of merchandise is a ready market. If the market were closed, the game would be stripped of attractiveness. Stolen goods, he says, are unloaded in big quantities. The loot is not peddled from house to house.—Lincoln State Journal.

ANDY MOORE IMPROVING

From Wednesday's Daily. The members of the family of Andy Moore were glad to hear that he was improving at the hospital in Omaha for a few hours and found him in the best of shape following his operation of Monday for appendicitis. Mr. Moore has been most fortunate in his operation as he has suffered very little and the operation apparently has been one of the most successful. The host of friends in this city will be delighted to know that he is doing so well.

MARRIED IN OMAHA

From Wednesday's Daily. Announcement has been received here by relatives of the marriage in Omaha of Mr. Edward Kanka and Miss Rose Schmitz, both of that city. The groom is well known in Plattsmouth where he spent his boyhood days and received his education in the high school being a graduate of the class of 1919 of the high school. Mr. Kanka and his bride have both been employed in the headquarters of the Union Pacific at Omaha and their romance developed in their everyday associations there and culminated in the marriage there the latter part of the past week. Mr. Kanka is a brother of Mrs. C. L. Pittman and Joseph Kanka of this city, and many boyhood friends will join in wishing him and his bride happiness and success in the years to come.

HAS A REAL FISH

From Monday's Daily. Yesterday E. E. Mason, who is camping for the summer near the Burlington bridge, made the successful catch of a fine thirty pound white silver cat fish, one of the nicest that has been caught here this season and the fisherman feels a just pride in the fine catch. He has the fish on exhibition at the camp and it is a beautiful sight to the eyes and one of the best fish that has been landed here this season.

The New Studebaker Special-Six Touring Car

Before you buy any car, see the STUDEBAKER 1924 MODELS

Studebaker presents its complete line of 1924 models, announced a week ago, with the conviction that they will increase the prestige of the name Studebaker which, for 71 years, has stood for the best in transportation, quality and value of product.

Into these 1924 cars are built every proved feature in design that makes for the comfort, convenience and safety of passengers, and many refinements that further enhance the value of a line of cars already highly perfected.

It is common knowledge in the steel industry that Studebaker uses only the highest grades of the finest steels. And the same is true of the electrical equipment, instruments, bearings, batteries, upholstery, finishing paints, tires and accessories used in Studebaker cars.

It is equally well known that Studebaker, with $90,000,000 of actual net assets, including $45,000,000 of plant facilities, is unsurpassed in ability and resources to manufacture economically and give maximum intrinsic value for a given price.

Produced under these favorable conditions, the 1924 Studebakers are distinctly the finest cars and greatest values Studebaker ever offered.

These are not careless statements. They are facts that reflect the honesty and integrity of the manufacturer and its product just as they do the truth of Studebaker advertising.

The public has placed its confidence in Studebaker by accepting these facts, supported by the performance of Studebaker cars in owners' use. That's why Studebaker sales for the past six years have increased progressively each year and sales for the first six months of 1923 of 81,880 cars broke all six months' records.

Studebaker never cheapens quality to meet competition. The name Studebaker stands for satisfaction and service.

NEGRO HAS TALE OF HARD LUCK FOR POLICE FORCE

Colored Traveling Companion Claimed Have Robbed Him—Kicked Off of Burlington Train.

From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening while Officers Heinrichsen and Frank Detlef were patrolling the streets in the business section, out of the dark night came an even darker object in a dusky hue of Africa, who poured into the listening ear of the police a story of a comrade's wrong and the various injuries and indignities that he had suffered, culminating with the taking of a $5 bill from his person and then being kicked off a passing Burlington train.

The colored man was very much out of breath when he came up Main street in the very early hours of the morning and on being approached by the police he told how he had been touring the west via the box car route and had fallen in company with another of his dark hue associates and together they had ridden in the empties until last evening when they became engaged in a quarrel over the fact that the one man had a supply of wealth consisting of a $5 bill and refused to divide up the coin with his less fortunate brother and this led to words and action on the part of the member of the party shy of the wealth, who proceeded to take the aforesaid $5 and transfer it to his pocket. The man who had been kicked off the train the late friend proceeded to beat him off. Finally both of the colored men alighted at this place, hearing from afar of the many virtues of the city and its people, and when they were safely away from the train the loser of the bill rushed up to the business section to make an alarm and appeal to the law to secure for him his money.

The police on hearing the tale of woe rushed to the Burlington station and there learned that the second colored man had been seen going up the alleyway on the north side of Main street and a careful search of the alleys failed to disclose the man but later he was found near the railroad yards by the police, apparently waiting for another train and without ceremony the two men were escorted to the city jail to rest for the night and to be sure that they would be safe from doing any damage to themselves or anyone else.
