QUALITY is not always measured by price. High prices may cover wasteful producing and selling methods; some prices are too low to provide good materials and tailoring.

You get a mighty good suit, at a big saving in price, when you buy Clothes Tailored to Measure by Born, because they are sold in great volume and produced under ideal conditions by an organization noted for its skill and efficiency.

A crew of painters for the Missouri Pacific have been painting the station and other buildings in Nehawka which adds much to the appearance of the railway property as well as the town.

Uncle B. F. Hoback is spending the week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Anderson of Union and also attending the Old Settlers reunion which occurs on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Uncle Walker Bates who is visiting for the present at the home of his brother, James Bates at Denver and enjoying a great time there sent a very fine box of cherries to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rough.

E. M. Pollard received twelve Ayrshire cows last week, four milkers and the remainder to be fresh soon. This bunch of cattle are a very fine lot and are as pretty as a picture as well as being the finest milkers in the land.

James and Marion Stone went to Shenandoah last Monday afternoon to attend the Spotted China sale of hogs by the Firlee and company breeders of fine strain of porkers. Mr. James Stone will assist in the sale as well as attend.

Ernest M. Pollard has purchased a new Patriot truck which they will use in the work on the farm and also on the road as they have much hauling to do incident to the proper care of their large orchards and the handling of the fine herd of hogs.

Thomas Mason, Sr., and son Thomas were at Kansas City for over the Sunday called there by the death of Mr. Thomas Mason's sister and aunt of the rural carrier. They attended the funeral and returned home getting here early Monday morning.

A very interesting game of ball was played at the local grounds between the Underwood typewriter team of Omaha and the local team of Nehawka which resulted very disastrously to the local team, the result being six for the visitors to a shut out for the Nehawka boys. Well, do not take it so bad you will win the next time and we are sure of it.

A number of the enterprising citizens assisted in putting up the tents for the chautauqua last Monday and getting the things in readiness for the week's entertainment and worthwhile amusement. Among those who assisted in the work and helped further the interest of the town by their rustling were Messrs. Leo Switzer, J. S. Rough, J. W. Magney, Charles Adams, Henry M. Pollard, C. M. Chriswiser.

Some Spotted Poland Family

We remember last spring when a sow which is owned by Jay Marion Stone, farrowed sixteen nice pigs two of which were accidentally killed at time of birth and one was smothered later, leaving some thirteen which have become a remarkable family, the mother, which now weighs some six hundred pounds, and the litter will run away toward a ton and a half in weight. The thirteen pigs who will be five months old on September 29, will top the scales at about one ton. We looked at the litter last Monday and were shown them by Mr. C. W. Stone who with some have formed a company known as C. W. Stone & Company. The pigs which are hog fat five months of age are all as gentle and tame as kittens and come and almost ask to be rubbed and petted. This litter and the mother will be shown at both the Cass county fair at Weeping Water and the state fair at Lincoln. The above is a picture of the sow and litter when they were two months of age. Nehawka is justly well satisfied with this wonderful hog family.

INSPECTS THE SEWER

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning E. A. Wurl, whose property adjoins the tile sewer on South Sixth street and which has been visited by several overflows from the sewer, made a trip through a part of the sewer and discovered there was something radically wrong as far as he could see with the sewer. The sewer apparently slopes not toward the main big sewer on Main street but away from it toward the alley and at the end was a large amount of dirt and rubbish as well as water standing and which apparently cannot find an escape. This inspection by Mr. Wurl will be asked by him to be verified by some of the members of the city council to look it over. The city engineer had reported the sewer as being in good shape, it is alleged.
