Have Splendid Time

Last Sunday being rally day at the Methodist church bible school there was a large number of scholars out to enjoy the occasion and to listen to the excellent program which had been prepared. There was one hundred and one in attendance which swells the attendance over the hundred mark.

Worthwhile Rally Day

Last Sunday being the culmination of the campaign which was to end with the rally day of the Baptist bible school proved well worth while work had been done and an excellent program was given which was enjoyed by those present of which there were over a hundred present. The interest taken in the school is very pleasing to the officers and teachers of the school. The superintendent of the school has promised that when the school should amount to over one one hundred that he would provide a picnic for them. Now should they have over the even hundred the coming Sunday they will have their glad day. Better get out to Sunday school all of you and bring some one with you.

Celebrate Anniversary

Last Wednesday evening was a pleasant gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dewart's when their daughter, Miss Winona, planned a surprise in honor of their 23d wedding anniversary. At the hour of 8 o'clock the lane leading to their home was filled with cars carrying friends and neighbors who wended their way down to the house and Miss Hanson played the wedding march and they were once more joined in the bonds of wedlock. A time was then spent in visiting after which a dainty lunch was served to those present. As the hour was getting late the friends and neighbors turned homeward after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dewart many more anniversaries and hoping they may all be able to be present.

Union School Notes

Last Wednesday the III history class accompanied by Miss Moss, went to Omaha to attend the historical parade.

With the aid of a number of high school boys, Mr. Southworth leveled a plot of ground on the north side of the school house. This space is to be used in playing tennis.

James Boardman was promoted from the fourth to the fifth grade.

Frank Warden and Lucille Heads were absent from school last week on account of sickness.

Alma Frans and Dorothy Cowles were high school visitors of Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Southworth motored to Nebraska City Thursday afternoon for the purpose of securing an orchestra leader. Mr. Grandall has kindly consented to come up next Tuesday to get us started.

Dorothy Foster and Melvin Todd attended the historical parade in Omaha Wednesday.

The sophomores gave the freshmen their initiation on last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Copenhaber entertained the seniors last Friday at their home.

A HAPPY EVENT

The friends of the C. E. Pratt family will be pleased to learn of the good fortune which befell them in the arrival at their home in Hastings of a fine little son on October 7th, who tipped the scales at seven and three-quarter pounds and had been christened John Warren Pratt. The mother and all concerned are doing nicely.
