Special—a Wm. Fox Special Production—

"NERO!"

M. W. A. Hall, Union, Neb., Saturday Night, Oct. 20th

A Biblical story told in 12-reels; a cast of 33 actors, composed largely of French and Italians, with Jacques Gretillat and Violet Messereau as leading characters. Also a good comedy. Show starts at 7:30 p. m.

Admission 10 and 25c

Mrs. Wm. Allgood was visiting for a short time last week at the home of her parents in Stella.

Dr. Babbitt is not feeling the best these days, but is so he is able to get out a portion of the time.

John W. Lloyd and wife were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

C. S. Stottler and wife were looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday.

R. D. Stine was looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Saturday, making the trip via his auto.

Edward Dowler last Monday took three loads of stock to the market, two going to Plattsmouth and one to Omaha.

Mrs. Louvina Comer departed on last Tuesday for Aurora, where she was visiting with relatives for a short time.

John Wesley Woodard was looking after some business in Nebraska City last Saturday, making the trip via the bus line.

Attorney W. H. Pitzer, of Nebraska City was a visitor in Union last Monday, called here on some legal matters which he had in hand.

John C. Hansel and wife entertained for dinner last Sunday their friend, Mr. W. A. Harding, manager of the Farmers elevator company.

Miss Naomi Maunz, who is attending the university was a visitor at home last Sunday, a guest at the home of her parents, E. J. Maunz and wife.

W. H. Porter and his excellent wife were entertained last Sunday at their home where they had for guests for the midday meal, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Shavey and W. S. Copenhaver and family.

L. W. Crawford, the carpenter, and Ray Galloway were at Julian last week where they placed a roof on a building belonging to Miss Josephine Pittman, which is being used for a barber shop by Mr. F. L. Plaster, the village barber.

Robert Willis, a former business man in Union, and one of the squarrest of men and a man with many friends in Union, now living on a farm near Weeping Water, was looking after some business matters in Union last Monday.

W. A. Harding was kept pretty busy last Friday when he received one hundred and forty loads of corn in one day, this being approximately 7,000 bushels and from two shellers, they being from the farmers of Hans Hanson and Louis Maugay.

A letter from the Rev. George Wash, former pastor of the Methodist church, of Union, tells of the family all being well and that they are progressing very nicely in their new work and new field. The family are located at University Place.

A. R. Dowler is making his recent purchase into a more modern and comfortable place to live, repairing and changing the home and also has torn down the barn and is building another. Mr. L. W. Crawford and Lil Finkle are assisting in the work.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Frank Glaubitz took her son Gerald to the Lord Lister hospital in Omaha, where the little one was to undergo an operation and was joined by Mrs. Glaubitz on Wednesday, who went to be with the folks at the time of the operation.

Ira Clark, the tonsorialist was spending a few hours with a number of his friends hunting ducks on the river last Monday evening, toying with the feathered tribe over night to no effect and they came home with the reply to their friends, "Yes, we have no ducks."

The railroad men who have been running on the Lincoln branch for a long time and who have been away on a vacation are again at their posts. Conductor Perry, who is well and favorably known, spent his vacation in Minnesota, while Engineer Terry, and nearly the same name, spent his leave of absence in his old home state, New York.

Ivy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Younker has been suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis and was taken to Omaha last Monday, where she underwent an operation for relief. Since the crucial trial, the little one is getting along nicely and it is hoped she will soon be able to return home. However, she is still quite ill.

Mr. L. G. Todd was looking after some business in Omaha relative to the store here last Wednesday and also again on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Todd is enjoying an excellent business in the new store and we see no reason why he should not continue to enjoy a prosperous business, as he is very accommodating to the trade and will furnish the best of goods.

John L. Cutright, of Fremont, an attorney, was a caller at Union last Monday, coming to look after some legal matters and while here met Attorney C. L. Graves, who was a former friend of his father, John W. Cutright, who was in the former years connected with the Plattsmouth Journal. Attorney Cutright is located in Fremont, where he is doing a nice business.

James Erwin, who is 86 years of age, last Saturday morning hearing a commotion in his chicken yard, sallied forth and found a large coyote making preparations to have a morning meal on his flock, but the trusty shot gun which was brought to immediate action laid the chicken thief low. With the years of experience, the added years did not in any way impair the sight of this aged citizen when his eye ran over the sights on the gun and the trigger finger pressed the iron, the call had come for Mr. Wolf.

Received Two New Members

Last Sunday at the church services at Wabash there were two new members received into the church by the Rev. W. L. Taylor, who is pastor of the parish there.

There Will be Services

There will be religious services at the Sciota school house the coming Sunday, October 21st, the service beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor will be there and will conduct the services. The interest in the meetings at this place has been very manifest and Pastor Taylor and the wife are anxious to serve the people to the best of their ability. Everybody welcome to these services. Come and help the work along.

Don't Borrow Your News

The long winter evenings are at hand and now of all times you will want to read your own paper. Do not inconvenience your neighbor by borrowing his Semi-Weekly Journal, but have your name added to the ever-growing list of subscribers to southeastern Nebraska's most newsy newspaper. Three times more reading matter than any other paper in Cass county gives you, and the price is only $2 per year.

Chester White Spring Boars for Sale

Kansas Giant Breeding

Also a few sows and litters sired by My Giant. He was third in his class at the state fair, not prepared. Also have some fine September boars and gilts—pairs and trios, not related—the pick of ninety fall farrowed. Come and see them.

Kansas Giant was first aged boar and grand champion. Lugebeek gilt Tuskos sister was second and is sister litter mate to My Giant. She was also first in herd and first get of sire and produce of dam. He refused offer of $1,000 for her. Buy from this blood and you cannot go wrong.

Farmers Store Changes Hands

The Farmers store at Union, which has been run under the management of W. H. Porter for the past two years, is being shifted to younger shoulders in the matter of placing Theodore Oberman in charge of the business. Mr. Porter has been endeavoring for some time to get an appointment of a successor and is highly pleased to have the change come. Mr. Porter and the new manager, Mr. Oberman, with Miss Mabel Reynolds, the saleslady in the store, and Miss Ellen Chapman were busy last Monday taking stock incidental to the change. Mr. Porter, who is one of the best of citizens and a mighty fine man as well, has accepted a position in an Omaha department store in the hardware department. We are sure Mr. Porter will make good in his new position as he has in the one which he is just quitting. We are believing also that the new manager of the Farmers' store will succeed nicely as manager.

Union School Notes

Mike Yost was absent from the primary last week on account of illness.

Eileen Elliott is a new scholar enrolled in the grammar room, coming here from Louisville.

Mary Donnelly Robb was a visitor in the grammar room a few days last week, not having to go to school at Nebraska City on account of the Teachers' institute, which was held in the High school building at that place.

Warren Pearsley was absent last week on account of illness.

October 12th was Columbus day, but was not observed by this school.

Last Friday the school had a fire drill, last week being Fire Prevention week. The seniors hope that a fire drill does not come very often, because they were rather slow in descending the steps, and if a fire would really occur they would not be so fortunate.

Misses Dorothy Moseman and Helen Dowell spent last week end with Miss Edith Moss at her home in Lincoln.

Mary Donnelly Robb also visited the High school the latter part of last week.

Cleoma Paris was absent all of last week because of sickness, but all of the pupils hope to see her back in school again soon.

The Twelfth History class had a debate last Tuesday morning at the regular class period. Five of the pupils took the side of the English and five others took the side of the Colonists in the Revolution. It was a very interesting debate and they all hope to keep their knack of talent, so they may become great orators in later years.

The Home Economics classes have been making preserves, butter and jelly and putting it in jars to sell at the bazaar, which will be given about Christmas time. The girls are very much interested in this kind of work.

The Parent-Teachers' association meeting will be held Friday, October 19th. An interesting program has been arranged.

The tennis and volley ball courts have been completed and all the pupils have been enjoying themselves immensely.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise, apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes, 30c and 60c, at all drug stores.

Hallowe'en novelties for the kiddies at the Bates Stationery and Book Store.

The New Order Of Things!

We have received a great many favorable comments on our new standardized, specialized Clothing prices—$25, $30 and $35. It is more evident to us than ever that this new policy is most efficient in cutting out waste, cutting down overhead, & avoiding confusion in the mind of both buyer and seller, thereby putting Clothing on the wearers back—the maximum for the minimum.

And now we have further strengthened our ability to serve you with the BEST FOR THE LEAST by adding to our stock the famous

Hart Schaffner & Marx Line

Undeniably the largest and best known Clothiers in the world. In this super-quality Clothing we shall be able to give you some suits at $35—others at $40, $45 and $50. "ON THE CORNER"

CASS CO. FARM BUREAU NOTES

Gift goods, party prizes, Children's books, Vantines incense and burners, toilet articles, vanity cases, and many other gift articles at the Bates Corner Book and Stationery Store.

Club Reports

All final club reports to compete for state prizes must be in the office at Weeping Water by October 25th. Now is the time to fill them out and send them in.

Achievement Day Program

The Young Ladies Clothing club of Murray held their Achievement day program Saturday, October 6th. Violet Carroll and Freda Hill demonstrated how to cut true bias and garment bias, how to join bias pieces and how to sew on bias binding. There were songs and yells and a report by the secretary. The leader reported forty-two garments as the number completed by the girls. The visitors gave talks as to the value of the work to the girls and to the community. Six girls have finished the work and will receive certificates of service. The leader, Mary Parks, deserves much credit for her untiring efforts in helping the girls. This club sent an exhibit to the county fair and the girls received first and second premiums on bungalow dress and third on best collective exhibit, Course I.

Wabash Organizes Hot Lunch Club

The boys and girls of the Wabash public school organized a hot lunch club under the leadership of Miss Edith Reese. There are nine active members and several associate members and they expect to begin serving hot lunches about Nov. 1st. The officers elected were Lloyd Richard, president; Neal Dorr, vice president; Arthur Gerdes, secretary.

Alvo Club Holds Meeting

About twenty women met at the M. E. church at Alvo Monday, October 8th. All the women brought their old hats and the afternoon was spent renovating old material and remodeling hats. The correct styles and shapes for different types were discussed. Each lady planned how her old hat might be made over and many interesting hats will be the result of this meeting. October 30 and 31 and November 1 and 2 will be the military school.

Salad Demonstration

Tuesday, October 9, thirty women gathered at the country home of Mrs. Edgar south of Elmwood. In the morning decorative stitches were demonstrated and each lady made a sampler which later will be applied to their own and children's clothing. The afternoon was spent giving out recipes. Each group of women cooked a delicious salad. About fifteen different salads were made. At the close of the meeting the women judged four salads. Everyone went home feeling that the day was well spent. Mr. Lux, publicity man from the Extension service visited the club and he pronounced it one of the liveliest groups he had met. He thinks they are surely making their time count for improved methods.
