ELI M. SMITH,

Union, Nebraska

Will Stine and daughter, Letha, drove to Weeping Water last Monday to visit Mrs. Lena Keene, her married daughter, who lives in that city.

Dr. T. P. Cogan, the dentist, cannot make his regular visit in Union on November 10th, but will be here on Saturday, November 24th, at Dr. Race's office.

R. D. Stine was looking after some business matters in Nebraska City last Tuesday afternoon and making some purchases at the wholesale houses of that city.

D. C. LaRue, who has been appointed district deputy superintendent of the Modern Woodmen, is busy rounding up members for the opening of the new lodge which occurs in the near future. He reports fine success.

There will be services at both the churches in Union on the coming Sunday to which all members of the respective churches are urged to be present and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come and worship with the churches and you will be welcome.

Grandma Stine, who has been confined to her bed for the past few days with a gripe, is reported much better.

Ludie Crawford was in Nebraska City last week on business pertaining to his trade as contractor and carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Pardus and son of Auburn, were visitors over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Allgood, of this city.

Mrs. Joe Banning has been looking after matters at the store while Mr. Banning was looking after some matters at the farm.

Alex Eaton was kept pretty busy last week in the matter of unloading a car load of sand which the Union lumber yard received.

Ben Albin, who is farming near Union, reports that his corn will run from five to fifteen bushels more to the acre than he supposed.

Floyd Wilson from Rock Bluffs was a business visitor in Union last Tuesday afternoon looking after some business matters for a short time.

Rev. Planck, of the Baptist church, preached on the duty of giving to and supporting the cause of Christianity Sunday. He treated the subject with great delicacy and finesse.

Jim Hamilton, who was injured sometime ago while working on the M. P. section, is not much improved, and has been taken to the St. Louis hospital for extended treatment.

Mr. W. H. Porter was a visitor for a number of days in Union during the present week and was getting things in readiness for moving to Omaha where he has a good position.

Mrs. Henry W. Banning and daughter, Miss Pearl, will depart in a short time for California where they will expect to spend the winter at a small town near Los Angeles.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church, of Murray, have consented to serve dinner and lunch at the sale of Orville McQuinn which will be held on the place now occupied by Mr. McQuinn on Wednesday, November 14th.

J. W. Banning and the family were visiting at the home south of Murray with Mr. Banning's mother, Mrs. Henry W. Banning and Miss Pearl Banning. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Banning driving over from their home at Alvo in their car.

DOWLER BROS.,
The Auto Men Union, Neb.

Dr. Race was called to Nebraska City last week on professional business.

J. D. Bramblett was looking after some business in Plattsmouth one day last week driving over to the county seat in his Star car.

Mrs. U. S. Town and her two sons, Charles and Edward have completed the gathering of their crops of corn and the boys are now assisting in securing the crops of neighbors, Edward assisting C. F. Morton and Charles assisting Charles Hathaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Oberman the manager of the Farmers' Mercantile company of Union are to occupy the Mrs. M. A. Taylor property which will be probably a little large for this gentleman and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ellis the Jeweler of Weeping Water and by the way one of the prominent citizens of that rustling city, were visiting in Union last Sunday being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis LaRue, Mrs. LaRue being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis.

Mrs. A. L. Becker and daughter, Miss Clarice, have been visiting a number of days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Becker of Wichita, Kansas, and on last Tuesday Mrs. Becker returned home after having had an excellent visit and Miss Mary stopped at Kansas City where she is visiting with relatives and friends for a short time longer.

Last Sunday evening there were held at the Sciota school services at which there was a well filled house of interested listeners to the gospel presented by the Rev. W. A. Taylor. There will be services there again on November 18th to which all are extended a very cordial invitation to come and enjoy the services and assist in the singing as well.

Are One Hundred Per Cent

The school at Union enjoys the distinction of being the only school in all the places where the liberty bell savings have been instituted that has won one hundred per cent of the enrollment in their savings. This in itself is an education worth while and is sure a compliment to the instructors which wisely advised the pupils in regards to their savings and thrift habits.

The high school received ten dollars for the school for their one hundred per cent and the other departments five dollars each which makes twenty-five dollars in all.

Entertain Their Friend

Misses Mary and Eva Everett, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Everett on last Wednesday evening entertained some twenty-five of their friends at a Halloween party given at the home of their parents. The home had been decorated for the occasion and presented a very pretty appearance with the autumn leaves the pumpkin and the black cats mingling with the witches. The evening was passed in music, telling of stories, conversations with ghosts and witches. All present had a most pleasant time.

Will Play Ball

The girls basketball team of Union are to play with the girls basketball team of Alvo and the boys basketball team of the Union school are to play a like team of the Alvo school at the school gym at Union on Friday tomorrow night of this week.

Union School Notes

On Halloween night, October 31, the high school held a party in the gymnasium. Everything that is in a Halloween party was there. It is needless to say that everyone enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Ten dollars was presented to the athletic fund by Mr. Cobel who offered us that sum if our high school started fifty savings accounts. We got the money.

Three other basketball games are scheduled for some time in the future. Watch for the dates.

For the past two weeks the opening exercise periods have been devoted to giving high school and basketball yells.

The high school opened its basketball season on November 9 when they played both the boys and girls teams from Alvo. A great deal of enthusiasm is shown in this work. This might be stimulated by a larger attendance at our games.

A very welcome vacation was extended to the Union school students when the faculty went to the association on Nov. 1-2. However, we were all glad to return to our much liked school work on the following Monday.

The new pump which has been giving us service for about nine days is working excellently and provides sufficient water for our unusually thirsty students.

The manual training boys are now working in the new manual training building which was transformed from the old power house.

Quarterly examinations were held on the eighth and ninth of November. These were our "greatest trouble" for a while.

Lucian LaRue to Sing

Lucian LaRue, the gifted boy singer of this place, has been secured to sing at the American Legion indoor carnival in Plattsmouth on Saturday night. There will be dancing and other attractions and plenty of fun and amusement for everyone.

GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Taylor near Union was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Wednesday evening last when a number of the friends of the family joined in a surprise on Mr. Taylor whose birthday anniversary was being celebrated. Mr. Taylor was born November 1, 1861, and the friends made the occasion one that he will long pleasantly remember and at the conclusion of the evening the guest of honor was wished many more such happy occasions. The members of the party came with well filled baskets which disclosed a tempting array of the good things prepared by the ladies of the party and served as the basis of a fine luncheon. Those in attendance were Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Taylor, R. M. Taylor, S. M. Taylor, W. L. Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swartz and daughters, Ruth and Velma; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoback and daughter, Marjorie and son, Donald; Miss Lelia Hoback, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, Messrs. Aida Taylor, Howard Taylor, Harold Ward and Max Meade.

LADIES GIVEN SURPRISE

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Union were very pleasantly entertained by Miss Gussie Robb and Mrs. W. B. Banning at the Robb home in Union and the time spent in the usual business session and the social features that make these gatherings so interesting. There were no indications of the refreshments that usually mark these gatherings in evidence and the ladies were all ready to adjourn their meeting when they were requested to stop for a moment at the Banning home just adjoining that of the Robb family. Here the ladies found the dining room beautifully arranged in the Halloween decorations and a very enjoyable luncheon waiting them and they were certainly well taken in by the pleasant surprise that their hostess had prepared for them.

NEW TYPE SKULL IN PRE-HISTORIC MAN

Scientists Find Food For Study in Discovery at Santa Barbara of Skeletal Remains.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Nov. 4.—Homo-Barbarensis—the Santa Barbara man—lived in an era long after the Neanderthal and Heidelberg man and not in either the paleolithic or neolithic ages, according to scientists who flocked to Santa Barbara today to investigate the discovery of J. P. Harrington, a Smithsonian institution worker, who announced recently the finding of a pre-historic skull on the site of Burton mound in this city. Among the geologists who inspected the finds were Dr. Robert F. Hill, a retired geologist of the Smithsonian institution; Dr. W. S. Kew of the United States geological association; and Ralph Arnold, Los Angeles scientist.

Close examination of the hard crust beneath which the skulls were found by the visiting scientists, these men asserted, brought out signs of great age, presumably from 5,000 to 8,000 years. The crust, however, bore faint signs of charcoal, which would tend to show that the shell-like substance was once the floor of an Indian kitchen and not a deposit made by the ocean, according to previous theories, Dr. Hill and Mr. Arnold both said.

The scientists agreed that the skulls belonged to a type not hitherto known to anthropologists, and said that they would form a new link in the history of the American Indian from the time of the first arrival of Asiatics to the North American continent.

"The remains of the early Santa Barbara man," Mr. Arnold said, "of course must be studied very carefully before any accurate opinion as to their age can be expressed. It seems certain, however, that Dr. Harrington has unearthed evidences of a type of early American Indians of which no other records are available. From an examination of the nature of the ground in which they were buried I believe that the skulls were of men who lived at a very remote time, possibly several thousand years ago. The decomposition and fossilization of the shells in the hard crust which covered them undoubtedly required centuries. The formation is unlike any other in this geological vicinity."

Dr. Stark, who is widely known among paleontologists, while expressing surprise at the thickness of the skull and the pronounced supra-orbital ridges found on the skulls, was reluctant to make any estimate as to the age of the skulls.

TURNING ON THE SPOTLIGHT

Attention has been called to the habit some automobile drivers have of turning spotlight on the engineer of a passing train.

Recently a driver traveled along a highway running parallel with the railroad track with his spotlight shining for a long distance, directly in the eyes of the engineer of an approaching train.

The effect was so blinding as to make it impossible for the engineer to keep proper lookout for the highway crossing. While this action on the part of the driver was probably intended for a joke, it is easy to see that it might have caused serious consequences.

Let's pass the word to drivers of automobiles that such practices increase the chances of accidents not only at railroad crossings, but at other places where the safety of passengers depends upon the constant vigilance of the engineer.

Pass the word to your friends.

DALE IS SENATOR; KENTUCKY NAMES FIELDS GOVERNOR

Result of Election Leaves Lineup in Congress Unchanged—Ohio Defeats Old Age Pension.

Election Results

Vermont—Elected republican to United States senate and one republican congressman.

Kentucky—Elected a democratic governor.

Ohio—Defeated an old age pension system.

Maryland—Elected a democratic governor.

Mississippi—Elected entire democratic slate, including democratic governor.

Detroit—Re-elected Mayor Frank E. Doremus.

New York—Elected Tammany ticket in New York City, but denied Governor Al Smith's appeal for democratic legislature.

Chicago—Elected one democratic congressman and about equally divided local judicial and county officers.

Only One Senator Chosen

Complete returns show that former Representative Dale, republican, was elected yesterday a senator from Vermont, to succeed the late Senator Dillingham, also a republican. This was the only senatorial election in the country, and gives the republicans a majority of six in the senate.

Incomplete returns indicate the election of William J. Fields, democrat, as governor of Kentucky and give Governor Ritchie, democrat, of Maryland, an early lead. $40,822 to 28,435 for re-election. In the only other gubernatorial election H. L. Whitfield, democrat, was named governor of Mississippi without opposition.

Seven of nine vacancies in the house of representatives were filled, the only possible upset being the apparent election in the Twenty-fourth New York district of former Representative Parrich, republican, who was defeated a year ago by J. Vincent Gary, democrat, now dead.

The democrats retained congressional seats in the Eleventh and Sixteenth New York, second North Carolina and fourth Illinois districts, while the republicans held their own in the Thirty-second New York and second Vermont districts. On the face of these results the lineup in the next house will be republicans, 225; democrats, 205; socialist, 1; independent, 1; and farmer laborite, 1—a republican majority of 17, with two vacancies still to be filled.

The republicans retained their majority in the New York assembly by a narrow margin, but in an incomplete returns indicating that the democrats had lost at least six seats up state.

In a number of states mayoralty contests shared in the public interest with various state wide referendum proposals. In Philadelphia the republicans elected W. Froeland Kendrick mayor by an overwhelming majority, while in Detroit Mayor Doremus, formerly a democratic member of congress, was re-elected.

OMAHA MAN ROASTS ALL LEGISLATURES

Pays Corporation Tax and Says Liberty is Scarcer in U. S. Than Under the Russian Czar.

Secretary of State Pool has received the following letter from E. A. Higgins, representing Morrill Higgins company of Omaha, in reply to a letter relative to the payment of the annual occupation tax due from the company to the state:

My dear Mr. Pool: We are enclosing herewith report for occupation tax and check covering fee and penalty for which kindly forward us the proper receipt.

We note you take the position that any law enacted by our duly elected embryo law makers is sacred and needs the defense of no man. Take a hitch in your trousers, Charley. What we ought to do is repeal 50 per cent of the present enacted law and adjourn the state legislature for 20 years and you know it as well as I do but perhaps in your position it wouldn't be good policy to say so.

About all these fellows do when they get together is follow some bell weather grafting politicians who have scores of bills to assess new kinds of taxes and create more political jobs or follow some "holier than thou" reformer who has a string of bills to legislate us into the "Kingdom of Heaven."

If it wasn't for the fact that the great American public holds as sacred only the fundamental laws based on justice, equity and the ten commandments, and ignores the rest of the unjust tyrannical "thou shalt not's" written into our statutes by fanatics, mainly, this country would long ago have been seething in revolution. It may come yet if they ride their hobby laws too hard.

This country now has less liberty than Russia in the days of the czars. If they keep on restricting our liberties and raising our taxes something is going to "bust" wide open before long.

Thanks for the invitation to visit your office. Don't think I am directing any criticism at you personally as I know by reputation you are a really good scout.—Lincoln State Journal.

WANTS A WOMAN TO BE PRESIDENT OF THE U. S.

Washington, Nov. 5.—A woman, elected by men, ruling the United States from the White House. With her eyes set on this goal, Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, president of the national women's party today launched the party's long heralded campaign for enactment by congress of a constitutional amendment according equal rights before the law between men and women.

"I expect to live to see her elected and to attend her inauguration," Mrs. Belmont said, when asked when this country would bow to woman's rule.

From the old mansion in the shadow of the capitol which Mrs. Belmont purchased for the party last year as a "watch tower" over congress, the clarion call went out today from Mrs. Belmont to party members to assemble in Washington November 17-18.

Most every school demand in the way of stationery, pencils and ink may be had at the Bates Corner Book and Stationery Store. The very best grade of history paper for 75c per ream.

Mrs. T. L. Short came down from Omaha last evening, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bates and Mrs. T. B. Bates back from the metropolis, and will remain here for the next few days.
