Mr. R. S. Young was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday. Murray's next radio program will be given on the night of Tuesday, November 27th. Glen Vallery took a truck load of hogs to the South Omaha market on Tuesday for Roy Howard. C. A. Trent and wife were looking after some business matters in the county seat last Tuesday. County Attorney A. G. Cole was a visitor in Murray last Wednesday afternoon for a short time. Lawrence Adleman, of Springfield was visiting at the L. C. Hoschar home last Saturday and Sunday. Messrs Art Troop, C. T. Troop and Will Kruger shipped a car load of hogs to the Omaha market on last Tuesday. Frank Schlichtemeier was looking after some business in Murray and getting a load of oats for the hogs on the farm. Sheriff C. D. Quinton was looking after some official business in Murray and west of town last Wednesday afternoon. Mesdames O. A. Davis and E. S. Tutt were visiting and also looking after some business for a short time in Omaha last Tuesday. C. A. Vallery and wife have been visiting for a few days past at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Vallery. Morton Bartlett and Dr. J. F. Brendel were looking after some business matters for a short time in Plattsmouth on last Friday. Mrs. Christine Coughlin of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray last Wednesday, coming down to give lessons in music to her class here. Herman F. Gansner and wife and Louis Hallas and wife were visiting and also looking after some business matters in Omaha last Wednesday. Joseph Green, the oil man, was a visitor at Lincoln last Sunday and made the trip with his brother-in-law, Mr. J. P. Douglas of Nehawka. W. S. Wetencamp, living northwest of Murray, while in Omaha, purchased a car load of cattle which he will feed on his home farm this winter. Lester Schrader was a visitor in Murray last Wednesday getting some sand and concrete to construct a concrete foundation around his water tank. Miss Viola Kelsey, sister of Mrs. E. L. Peterson was a visitor with her sister for the present week coming from her home at Millard last Monday. Charles Nutz marketed a truck load of his hogs last Wednesday at Omaha, Mr. Frank Mrasek taking the porkers to the market and being accompanied by Mr. Nutz. E. L. Dowler and wife of Weeping Water were visiting for a few days during this week at the home of their son, Mr. Oscar Dowler and wife, northwest of Murray. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rhoden were spending last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rhoden and wife northwest of Murray, and where all enjoyed the day very much. Philip Lambert was a visitor in Omaha last week where he went to paint the home of Mr. Harry Barrows and completed the contract returning home last Saturday. Mrs. E. W. Milburn, who has been at Lincoln for some time assisting in the care of her mother, Mrs. I. M. Davis, returned home a few days ago, the mother being somewhat improved. Mr. Glen Boedeker has just completed a cattle barn on his place east of Murray, which has been constructed by the contractor, Mr. J. A. Seaton and which insures it being a good one. There was no school during Thursday and Friday of last week, as all of the teachers were in attendance at the teachers' convention which was in session at Omaha during that time. The new crib for ear corn which is being constructed at the D. J. Pitman elevator is assuming goodly proportions at this time and will soon be ready for the reception of the new crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hoschar, of Seymour, Iowa, were visiting at the home of Mr. Hoschar's uncle, Mr. L. C. Hoschar, last Sunday and Monday. Mr. Hoschar was formerly the editor of the Seymour paper. Mrs. W. T. Vallery was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. Kittler for a few days last week, where the sisters sure had a good time. Mrs. Vallery also visited with other relatives while there. Dr. J. W. Brendel and wife, of Avoca, were visitors in Murray last Wednesday, Mrs. Brendel visiting here and attending the meeting of the Ladies Aid society, while the doctor made a business visit to Omaha. Postmaster W. S. Smith and the wife were spending a few days with friends at Ong and while there the affairs at the postoffice were looked after by Mr. K. L. Kniss, the carrier of the route, which placed the affairs of the office in excellent hands. The Rev. W. F. Graham and three of his daughters, Misses Helen, Lois and Mary, with Misses Elizabeth, M. Cracken and Alice Woods, were enjoying the county Sunday school convention, which had a two day session at Weeping Water last Monday and Tuesday. Lucian LaRue, the gifted boy singer of Union, has been secured to sing at the American Legion carnival at Plattsmouth Saturday night. Lucian is a great drawing card and holds the distinction of being the most youthful artist from Cass county ever to appear on a radio program. On Wednesday of last week the young people of the high school of Murray enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Howard southwest of Murray. At this gathering all the pranks incident to the occasion were indulged in and we do not know of any that were missing. The Ladies Aid of the Christian church at Murray has consented to serve dinner at the sale to be given at the home of Glen McQuinn near Union on November 14th. Those who are to attend the sale are fortunate in the fact that they are to have an opportunity of getting to eat the cooking of these excellent cooks. Last Sunday at their home in Murray, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained for the day and dinner, Mrs. B. F. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybold of Murray, T. J. Brendel and wife of Kearney who visited here for a number of days over Sunday and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel of Avoca all enjoying the occasion very nicely. Last Wednesday night, while some parties were enjoying the Halloween party at Roy Howard's, some one stole the cushion and one of the real whoops in their buggy and they had to borrow another vehicle to go home in, and when they got there they found the wheel and cushion in the gateway and had to remove them before they could get in the lot. Oscar Nailor was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Wednesday afternoon and while he was away Uncle B. A. Root looked after the business at the store. And by the way Messrs. Nailor and Lancaster are getting the store well stocked with goods which are of the highest quality. Watch for an ad announcing what they have to offer on the coming issue of this paper. Mrs. Ora Crum, of Schoolcraft, Michigan, a sister of Uncle J. W. Edmunds, who has been visiting here for the past week, departed a few days since for her home in the east, after having enjoyed her visit here very much with her brother and niece, Mesdames W. Sporer and A. N. Long. Mr. Edmunds received a letter from her saying that she had arrived at home all right. The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church of Murray will hold their next regular meeting at the parlors of the church in Murray on Tuesday, November 20th. This will be what is known as their "Thank Offering" meeting and there will be given a program which will be arranged by Mrs. Albert A. Young, who is the leader for the occasion and also one of the hostesses. Murray Library Notes Two new books have been added to the library, "The White Flag," by Gene Stratton Porter and "Rufus," by Grace Richmond. The Library association furnished the lunch at the Young sale. They cleared $129.82. Thanks to all who donated. Mrs. Spangler, Mrs. White, Mrs. George Nichols, Mrs. J. F. Brendel and Mrs. Smith served. November 14th, we will furnish the lunch at the sale of Orville McQuinn near Union. We are working hard to get out of debt and add new books to our shelves. We have a traveling library coming from Lincoln. There will be 40 new books for both children and adults. If there is any special book anyone would like to order with the list, call Margaret Spangler, the librarian. Entertained Society The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church on last Wednesday at the church parlors of that church had for their guests for the occasion the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church. A very worth while program was provided and also a delightful luncheon. The ladies of both societies which they were there arranged for some very effective work for the betterment of Murray and vicinity. Narcissus bulbs, 10c each, at the Annex, Bates Book and Stationery store.

MURRAY SCHOOL NOTES

There were present for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner and family, Fred Warner and family, Leonard Terryberry and family, W. S. Wetencamp and Mrs. Wm. Wetencamp. A most delightful time and an excellent dinner was had. Will Feed Cattle Mr. G. H. Boedeker and W. H. Wehrlein accompanied by Uncle Charles Boedeker were looking after some business matters in Omaha last Tuesday when there Messrs. Boedeker and Wehrlein purchased two cars of cattle which they will feed on Mr. W. G. Boedeker's farm where Mr. Wehrlein lives this winter. Hear Father Very Low Last Saturday evening Messrs. Grover and Aubrey Hopkins heard of the very severe illness of their father in Missouri and with their wives hastened to his bedside where they found the aged gentleman very ill. Grover returned to Murray to look after some matters on last Tuesday evening and hastened back to his parent's bedside while the other remained there. Will Play Foot Ball The newly organized football team of the young people of Murray and vicinity has been dubbed by themselves as the "Urbana Cadets" and will demonstrate to the teams of the surrounding territory that they know something about football and how it should be played. Will Install Their Pastor The Rev. William Forrester Graham pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Murray will be installed as minister of the church. The ceremonies therewith will be held at the church on Tuesday evening November 20 at which time the Rev. J. C. McNealey, Rev. J. B. Jackson and Rev. R. Bryan all ministers of Omaha churches, will be here and assist in the ceremonies of the installation. Elder James Brown of the Murray church will read the Edict. MILLIONS LOST IN THE COLLAPSE OF THE MARK New York, Nov. 5.—Between $500,000,000 and $750,000,000 has been lost by American investors thru the collapse of the German mark, the New York Tribune stated today. English investors lost about $500,000,000 and other countries a like amount, the newspaper continued, declaring that Germany not only had repudiated its national debt, but had been the gainer to the extent of about $2,000,000,000. The loss includes the funds of thousands of small investors. It was said, many of them German Americans who bought marks at two cents each, or more, in the belief that they would recover. It also includes money invested in German bonds payable in paper money.

URGES NEED OF MAKING OIL LEASES AT EARLY DATE

If Land is Not Leased as Desired at Once May Interfere With Plans For Immediate Drilling.

A telegram received here today by Rex Young from George L. Kerr, the gentleman who has been here looking after the leasing of the oil lands in this county, states that action on the final leasing of the land here must be made or the promoters of the project of drilling will be forced to abandon the field here in Cass county. There are only a few tracts of land that are as yet not signed up and some of these are in such a position that leases practically must have them before they will be able to go ahead with drilling as a matter of their own protection in the development of the oil. The opportunity is good for a real test of whether or not there is oil in this part of the county and the promoters of the project who have not asked any financial support at all of the citizens of the county, will have to go to a great deal of expense in sinking the well and consequently feel that they should have the guarantees that the leases give before they start work. If the leases are not signed up within the next few days the promoters will probably abandon the field here and consider the matter closed. As it will be of the greatest interest to every property owner in the county in case favorable indications of oil or gas is found, there should be an effort made to secure the leases that will guarantee that the work of drilling will be carried out. Mr. Kerr will arrive here from New York where he has been for the past two weeks in consultation with the financial heads that are backing the proposition and will look over the field again and endeavor to secure the land desired or close up the work here. DEATH OF LADY WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY Mrs. J. E. Voorhees, Formerly Miss Myrtle Meredith, Passes Away at Home in Illinois. From Monday's Daily—The dark shadow of sorrow has been cast over the home of Julian E. Voorhees, where on last Saturday morning the grim messenger of death entered and called the wife and mother, Myrtle Meredith Voorhees to her heavenly home, leaving the husband and three children bereft of her loving care and attention, and the hearts of the people of this community go out to them in their heart-trying loss. Mrs. Voorhees' death brought to an end an illness of more than six months' duration, during the major portion of which she was in the Methodist hospital in Peoria, where everything known to medical science was tried in an effort to save her, and where the most expert care was provided, but it was all without avail. The last several weeks of her life were spent in her own home in this city, where she was under the constant care of a trained nurse, and where she slowly weakened until the end came on Saturday morning, October 29. Funeral services were conducted from the home at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, in charge of Rev. R. M. Burgess, pastor of the Congregational church and the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 8, Wyoming, Ill. Two selections, "The Homeland" and "God be With You 'Till We Meet Again" were sung by a mixed quartet consisting of A. J. Walters, William Wahner, Miss Ruby Russell and Mrs. Florence Colgan. The pallbearers were W. H. Pearl, George Earhart, J. W. Garside, C. L. Peters, Charles Wrigley, E. O. Howler. Myrtle Meredith Voorhees, daughter of John H. and Laura Hill Meredith, was born in Fremont, Nebr., August 21st, 1882. She was united in marriage to Julian E. Voorhees of Wyoming, Ill., on December 12th, 1907. To this union were born three children. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Julian E. Voorhees, and her children, Virginia, aged 15 years; Margaret, aged 10 years, and Garrett, aged 5 years; two brothers, Joe H. Meredith, of Springfield, Mo., and Park Meredith, of White Sulphur Springs, Montana; two sisters, Mrs. W. W. Coates, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. H. M. Tichenor, of Los Angeles, California; two nieces, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, of Chicago, and Mrs. E. E. Garey, of Los Angeles, California, and eight nephews. All these loved ones and a host of friends rise up to call her memory blessed. Mrs. Voorhees was a faithful Christian wife and mother. Early in her life, she joined the Episcopal church of Plattsmouth, Nebraska. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 8, Wyoming, Ill.—Wyoming Post-Herald. As Myrtle Meredith, Mrs. Voorhees for several years made her home in Plattsmouth with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Coates. She had many friends here who will regret to learn of her death. Owing to Mrs. Coates' invalid condition, she was unable to be with her sister during her illness or to attend the funeral. All kinds of paper novelties for the Thanksgiving social gatherings are available at the Bates Book and Stationery Store now. Have you made your selections?

"I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU!" "What have you eve done for me? Raised me like a pauper in this rotten old house... and now you won't do the one thing that might make me happy!... I HATE YOU!" This was his daughter... his Cora! And he loved her so... and this was his reward... his bitter harvest! A scene that you'll remember forever!
