Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all news items.—Edison

Every child comes into the world endowed with liberty, opportunity, and equal share of the war debt.

A bank's first duty is not to lend money, but to be at all times prepared to return to a depositor his money instantly.

For this purpose the —

Guaranty Fund System of the State of Nebraska

—was organized— and, regardless of circumstances, people who patronize guaranty fund banks have the assurance that they cannot lose their money.

We are a member of this system and are glad to offer this additional service.

A surplus of love and a shortage of money didn't interest "The Flirt." Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kennedy, of Omaha, spent the week end with the folks at home.

W. O. Troop was looking after some business in the county seat on last Tuesday.

Farr Young was delivering some wheat at the Murray elevator last Tuesday afternoon.

See Booth Tarkington's masterpiece "The Flirt," at the Peterson hall Saturday night.

J. W. Edmunds treated his new chicken house to a nice red coat—that is a coat of paint.

A. Gansmer was unloading a car of coal last Tuesday into the bins, for use of his customers here.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoads purchased a cow from her brother, W. O. Troop, which he delivered on last Tuesday.

Otto Wohlfarth from west of Myrard was visiting with Murray friends last Saturday evening.

Hans Christensen was a business caller at the county seat last Tuesday afternoon, making the trip with his car.

Rev. G. L. Taylor was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon, driving in his auto for a short time.

Al Bartlett was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Sunday and was visiting some of his very dear friends while there.

It doesn't hurt to flirt if you don't flirt to hurt.

W. R. Young and George Kerr were looking after some business matters in Murray last Tuesday afternoon.

J. C. Tilson was looking after some business matters at Plattsmouth last Wednesday, making the trip with his team.

Fred Warner is hopping to it in gathering his corn and is finding the yield very satisfactory, it going from 50 to 60 bushels per acre.

The picture, "The Flirt" is for all classes, all members of all families. The players look and act like real honest-to-goodness folks.

Harvey Gregg writes from California where he is now located, that he is working at the carpenter trade there and that times are good.

Last Tuesday Glen Vallery, living northwest of town, was a visitor in Omaha, going to take up a load of hogs for some of his neighbors.

Frank Vallery was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday for a short time while on his way to Oconto, where he was driving on a business trip.

Mrs. Homer Miller and little son visited with relatives here Saturday while Mr. Miller and the older son attended the football game in Lincoln.

Remember to "listen in" on the evening of November 27th, when Murray artists will present a worth while program from Station WOA-W, Omaha.

Mrs. Myra McDonald was a visitor last Sunday at the home of her cousin, Fred Patterson, of Rock Bluffs, where she spent the afternoon very pleasantly.

Thomas Tilson and C. M. Christensen received a car of cattle from the South Omaha yards a few days ago, which they are putting on feed west of Murray.

H. G. Todd is having a new crib built for the present crop of corn on the place where his son Glen Todd lives. Messrs. Scotten and Hill are doing the work.

Mrs. H. G. Creamer and son, Wilbur, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Creamer at Overton for the past week, returned home last Monday evening.

There has been rejoicing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls since last Friday, when there arrived at their home a nice girl, the little one and mother doing very nicely.

He's a walking dictionary: He's an all round pest; He's the greatest hero on the screen; He's the baby brother of "The Flirt."

A program and box social will be given by the pupils of the Murray school at Peterson's hall Wednesday, November 28, 1923. Don't forget the date. We'll be expecting you.

C. W. Pitman, of Medford, Okla., a cousin of D. J. Pitman, of Murray, accompanied by his son Galet, were guests at the Pitman home here for a few days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Hill and wife entertained last Sunday at their beautiful home Messrs and Mesdames Alf Gansmer and Wm. Puls, were all enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly.

Oscar Dowler, living northwest of town, has been feeling quite poorly for some time past and his father, Mr. Wm. Dowler of Weeping Water, has been assisting in the work at the farm for the past week.

Mrs. Mae Loughridge Smith favored the Missionary Society with two delightful vocal numbers at their meeting Friday afternoon. You will have an opportunity to hear her again on the radio program, Tuesday evening, November 27th.

The story of the folks next door, "The Flirt," Saturday night.

G. W. Cheney of Union was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, where he was looking after some business matters for a short time and then departed for Plattsmouth where he was called also to look after some business as well.

Mr. C. J. Reed, brother of Mrs. G. L. Taylor and Miss Margaret Spracklen of Omaha were guests at the Taylor home for a few days last week, and in company with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were attending the football game at Lincoln last Saturday.

Last Sunday being the birthday anniversary of Glenn Perry, some of his relatives, numbering about twenty-six people, assembled at the Perry home to help him properly celebrate the event and enjoyed the fine dinner which Mrs. Perry had prepared.

"The Flirt" was the fashion plate of Capital City. Her father was the best dressed man, on the road to the poorhouse.

C. A. Vallery, who is making his home at Grant, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday, looking after some business matters. Charley has been shipping some corn pickers to that country from here, where they have been giving very good satisfaction.

August Wendt and H. P. Dehning, of near Murdock, were guests for a short time of Mr. C. A. Trent, while on their way to Plattsmouth last Tuesday, where they went as members of the grand jury which convened at the county seat that day.

The profits of the ladies of the Library association from the serving of the lunch at the A. A. Young sale amounted to $20.83 instead of $129 as we stated last week. The ladies also served at the sale of Mr. McQuinn near Union on Wednesday of this week.

Don't forget that "The Flirt" was written by Booth Tarkington, America's best loved and most popular author.

Postmaster Will S. Smith has been kept to his bed by an attack of lumbago, which took this worthy citizen last Sunday and has been keeping him from his work since. However, he is feeling slightly better, but is far from well and suffers considerably yet.

Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel, N. L. Seyboldt and wife and Richard Brendel of Murray, and T. A. Flemming and wife of near Weeping Water were all guests at the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel at Avoca, for the day last Sunday.

Last Tuesday Herman Richter took a truck load of hogs to Omaha for J. W. Berger, West Hill, John Farris and Frank Reed, while with the other truck, Frank Mrasek took a load for Earl Lancaster and W. L. Seyboldt. They all going to the South Omaha market.

Frank Berger believes in getting in early on the delivery question and this week delivered some two thousand and bushels of this year's corn crop, shipping the same through the Farmers' elevator at Murray. The corn seemed very dry for this year at this time, but is in condition to ship.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt, the manager of the H. M. Soennichsen & Co. store at Murray, departed last Saturday night for Kansas City, where they will visit with relatives for a short time. They are visiting at the home of a sister of Mrs. Tutt, Mrs. Emma Nims and children, Waldemar Soennichsen is down from Plattsmouth looking after the store with Thomas Woods during the absence of Mr. Tutt.

Were Married in Iowa

Last Friday Everett Spangler and Miss Ellen Nolting departed for Sidney, Iowa, where they were united in marriage, after which they returned to Nebraska and went to Lincoln where they enjoyed the game of football between the Cornhuskers and Notre Dame, and returned to Murray Saturday evening. Their friends gave them a charivari on Monday evening and all enjoyed a good time. The Journal with their many friends, extends them a most hearty wish for a long and happy life.

Tried a Bluff

Some strangers, who claimed they had sold Jack West some rosin, came to Charles Green and wanted him to pay the bill, but as Charles was not paying some one else's bill he told the parties he could do nothing for them and that they had better get out—which they did.

Synopsis of "The Flirt"

"The Flirt" is the story of the folks next door. It lifts the roof from a middle class house and finds the Madison family of Capital City with a surplus of love and a shortage of money. The father's name is as good as a bond, but it doesn't draw interest.

Cora, one daughter, is selfish, lazy, intolerant—but pretty. Laura, her sister, is a reflection of her gentle mother. Hedrick, the little pest, is a composite of every "baby brother."

Cora's flirtations with the men of the town, the struggle of the father for a living; how he is involved in a confidence game, and the eventual triumph of love, gives the screen what is perhaps its greatest blending of laughter and tears with drama.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our many kind kind friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness during the death and burial of our husband and father, also, for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mrs. W. B. Virgin, Otto Virgin and family, Robert Burr and wife, Philip Keil and family, C. M. Read and family.

MURRAY SCHOOL NOTES

The Murray schools had examinations last week.

The High school pupils will receive their report cards this week. Gladys Mrasek was absent from school Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

The boys of Miss Widhelm's room received their box of candy last week. Clifton Meisinger, Lauren Todd and Iretta Henry were absent last Monday.

The Tenth grade appreciated the entertainment given by the Ninth grade very much. Marie Davis of the Intermediate room was the winner in the Spelling contest last Friday.

The Sophomores were entertained by the Freshies Friday morning. They did fine—with their orchestra.

The program given by the Freshmen consisted of class yells, three piano solos and an original selection by the Green orchestra.

Olive Woods, Helen Graham and Mary Graham were excused on last Tuesday to go to the Sunday school convention at Weeping Water.

Chas. Barrows stayed at the Murray Hardware and Implement company's store Saturday while Mr. Peterson was away.

The High school pupils who have not been absent or tardy during the first nine-weeks' term are Lorene Hatchett, Esther Puls, Lois Scotten and Lester Long.

During the last month 75 per cent of the Grammar room have been in perfect attendance and we would greatly appreciate 100 per cent attendance next month.

Those in Miss Widhelm's room who were neither absent nor tardy during the past month are William Mrasek, Charles Sporer, Lea Davis, Albert Griffin, Mary Graham, Helen Graham, Olive Woods, Richard Friedrich and Clell Gansmer.

RETURN OF FREDERICK DOESN'T PLEASE PAPER

Frankfort, Germany, Nov. 13.—The return of the former German crown prince to Germany is anything but an auspicious omen, and the German people have a right to know why the government permitted it during the present situation, observes the Frankforter Gazette, the leading south German liberal organ.

The newspaper rejects the inference that the homecoming of Frederick William suggests a suspicious relation to the recent Munich "putsch," but it observes that if he finds a "welcome home" sign stuck up on the door of his castle in Oels, it will reflect an untruth, as he is highly unwelcome to the German people in the present perturbed internal situation.

CALL FOR A CAUCUS OF MAJORITY HOUSE MEMBERS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Republican members of the house of the sixty-eighth congress have been called by Representative Wood of Indiana, chairman of the republican congressional committee, to meet in caucus December 1 to take up matters of organization. These include selection of the republican candidate for the speakership, the republican leader, the party whip, and the filling of the republican vacancies on the powerful rules committee.

FUNERAL OF W. B. VIRGIN AT MURRAY

One of Best Known and Popular Residents of Murray is Laid to His Last Long Rest.

Last Saturday at the beginning of the day the angel of death called at the home of Mr. W. B. Virgin and summoned that excellent citizen from the life of labor to the home of rest beyond the skies.

Mr. Virgin has been during the past week assisting Mr. C. C. Carroll in gathering his corn and has stood the work very well though it had made him rather tired at the beginning. When getting up on Saturday morning he had felt rather tired and had sat down in a chair and had apparently gone to sleep as his snoring attracted the good wife who came to him just as his head sank on his breast. She, thinking he had passed away, ran to the neighbors and called a doctor and on her return with the neighbor found Mr. Virgin awake and greeted them while he talked for a short time he grew weaker and in a short time passed away. The funeral was held at the Christian church on Monday afternoon, being a member of this church for a number of years. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union and the interment made in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Mr. Virgin was one of the best of citizens and was respected and beloved by all who knew him.

William Buell Virgin was born in Warren county, Indiana, August 12, 1852, and was united in marriage to Miss Charlotte Tucker April 8, 1875, they coming to Nebraska August 23, 1893, and locating near Nehawka where they lived for some two years and then moved to a farm west of Plattsmouth where they lived for three years and then there they moved to north of Murray residing there 13 years and later taking up their residence in Murray where they have lived for the past ten years. There were born to this couple one son, O. V. Virgin, and three daughters, Mesdames Robert Burr, Philip Keil and C. M. Reed. While he was of a family of ten children there remains but one sister, Mrs. Nettie Masters of Lafayette, Ind.

WOMAN IS KILLED BY A FAST TRAIN

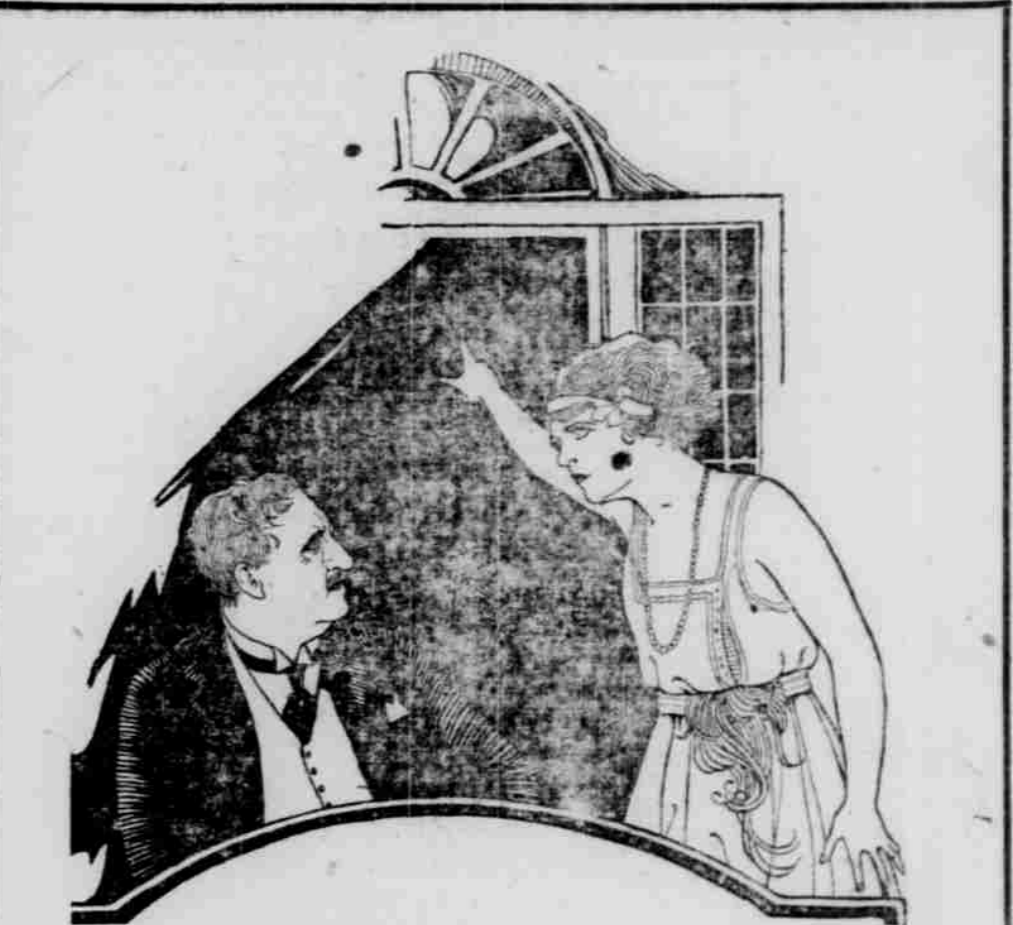

Mrs. C. E. Ettelman of Greenwood Struck by Burlington Passenger Near the Station.

Greenwood, Neb., Nov. 13.—Mrs. C. E. Ettelman, sixty-five, was struck by a Burlington train here this afternoon and instantly killed. Mrs. Ettelman and Mrs. Jake Rayles were on their way to the station to take a local train to Ashland when they saw a train at the station and feared they would miss it. They did not see No. 38, the fast Burlington passenger, and started to cross the track. Mrs. Ettelman was hurled to her death, but Mrs. Rayles did not get upon the track. The body of Mrs. Ettelman was taken to Lincoln by Castle, Roper & Matthews and is being held pending funeral arrangements. She leaves a son, Lee Ettelman of Dubuque, Ia. Mrs. Ettelman was a housekeeper at the home of C. F. Gartner, where she had been employed for five years. She lived southwest of the railroad tracks and was attempting to cross to the east side when struck.

WALTON DENIES CHARGE HE TOOK OATH OF KLAN

Oklahoma City, Nov. 13.—Denial that he ever subscribed to the oath of the Ku Klux Klan or that he paid the initiation fee in the secret organization was made here tonight by Governor J. C. Walton in a written statement to the public.

The executive's statement was in reply to the testimony of Dr. W. T. Tilly, former cyclops of the Muskogee (Okla.) Klan, as made public today by an investigating committee of the lower house. Dr. Tilly was quoted as having said that he administered the Ku Klux Klan oath to the

"I HATE YOU! I HATE YOU!"

"What have you ever done for me? Raised me like a pauper in this rotten old house... and now you won't do the one thing that might make me happy!... I HATE YOU!"

This was his daughter... his Cora! And he loved her so... and this was his reward... his bitter harvest!
