

GOLDEN WEDDING OF WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Upton are Guests of Honor at Community Gathering in Their Honor.

From Friday's Daily—
Fifty years ago on December 11th, Mr. G. S. Upton and Miss Frances Reynolds were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride south of Union, Rev. Bernard Johnson, Presbyterian minister of Nebraska City, officiating, and have spent their entire married life in this vicinity, honored and respected by the entire community.
Their friends kept this anniversary in mind and took entire charge of affairs when the day arrived. It was a community affair and on Tuesday, December 11th, 1923, the guests began to arrive in the morning in automobiles, new wagons and buggies, as they no doubt did on that date in 1873. The guests all brought covered dishes filled with delectable viands which were served when the dinner hour rolled around.
The house was beautifully decorated with yellow roses and chrysanthemums and yellow and white crepe paper was used in profusion.
Miss Josephine Pittman had charge of the dinner and had as her assistants, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Swan and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. James Pittman, Mrs. Frank Chapman and daughter, Ellen.
The bride's table was most attractive. Yellow candles in silver candlesticks added grace to the beautifully arranged service. There were fully 200 guests present to enjoy the delightful occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Upton.
Mr. and Mrs. Upton have two sons, Roy, who lives at Union, and Earl, whose home is in Burwell; six grandchildren, Earl and family were unable to be present. Mrs. Upton had one brother, James Reynolds, and Mr. Upton two sisters, Mrs. Switzer and Mrs. Dr. M. U. Thomas of Weeping Water, who were guests on this occasion.
There were three guests present who attended the wedding 50 years ago. They were Mrs. James Reynolds, Mrs. Switzer and Mrs. James Carper of Lebanon, Kansas.
A picture of the bride and groom taken 50 years ago, and one of Mr. Upton's school mates who attended school at the old Rock Bluff school with him were shown. They were enjoyed and recalled many pleasant experiences that came ringing true through the misty years.
The friends gave the bride and groom money, requesting them to get something that they both could enjoy to recall pleasant memories to them the love of their true friends and tried through the years.

May the autumn of life with its beautiful sunsets and gorgeous coloring bring to them the gladness in more quiet way, perhaps than the springtime did with its birds and flowers.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cross; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bauer; Mrs. Jas. A. Walker, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Copenhaver; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Niday; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frans; Mrs. Elizabeth Easter; Mrs. Rosa Kendall; Dr. and Mrs. M. U. Thomas; Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Galloway; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan; L. R. Upton and family; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swan; Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Nehawka; Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hansell; Mrs. Nettie Stanton; Miss Margie Walker, Murray; Mrs. Frank Pinkle; Mrs. Anna M. Hargus; Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynde; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Banning; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Banning; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Snaverly; Mrs. T. Carroll; Mrs. L. G. Todd; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCarroll; Mrs. Kathryn Smith, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Foster; Miss Ida Freeman; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Swan; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fitch; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moughey; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rhuman; Mrs. L. D. Switzer; Weeping Water.

Card of Thanks
We appreciate the kindness of heart which prompted the kindly acts, the extension of sympathy at the time of the illness and at the death and funeral of our beloved wife and mother; for the floral tokens of love and respect, and to those who so kindly sang at the funeral, and hoping that their grief, when it shall come, may be softened by the ministrations of loving friends.—J. C. Rauth and Family.
SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OLD
From Saturday's Daily—
On December 12, 1848, there arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith at Wabash, Indiana, a fine, husky little son, and the occasion was one of great rejoicing in that pioneer home, a log cabin erected in sight of the Wabash river which was sheltered by the tall and stately sycamore trees, and while the candle light no longer gleams across the waters of the Wabash and the parents have long since passed beyond the vision of the mortal, the young man who was the chief figure on this important date is still with us. This young man was our fellow townsman, William T. mith and he is feeling very well pleased that the years have dealt so kindly with him and that he was able to enjoy this anniversary of three quarters of a century. Mr. mith has lived in Nebraska practically all of the time since 1867 and in Cass county the greater part of the time. He is receiving the congratulations of his friends and of the members of his family. Mr. Smith and wife have in their family circle seven children, twenty grandchildren and one great grand child.

FRED G. JOHNSON FILES FOR SENATE

Lieutenant Governor Puts Up Filing Fee—Seeks Office Now Held by Senator Norris.
Lincoln, Dec. 13.—Lieut. Governor Fred G. Johnson of Hastings, who has announced he will be a republican candidate for the United States senate, regardless of the political plans of Senator Norris, today filed his nomination with Secretary of State Pool.
In the same mail that carried Johnson's $50 filing fee came a fee from former Congressman W. E. Andrews, republican of the Fifth congressional district, who is again a candidate.
Johnson is the first senatorial candidate to actually file, although aspirations toward a seat in the senate have been announced by C. H. Gustafson, whose future actions, however, largely hinge on Norris.
This week has witnessed an increased activity among the candidates at the coming election, Andrews being the fifth to file for an office in the last four days. Previous persons filing include Dan Swanson, who is seeking re-election as commissioner of public lands and buildings; C. D. Robinson, who desires another term as state treasurer, and J. W. Mayer, who is after Charles W. Pool's place as secretary of state.
IS A COMFORTABLE PLACE
From Saturday's Daily—
The new hot water heating plant at the city hall is now in service and certainly makes a vast difference in the atmosphere of the building and adds to the comfort of the persons who are around the building to any extent. The new heating plant will replace the old fashioned heating stoves that have for years about half heated the building and will be appreciated very much by the dwellers on the second story of the building especially where the office of the police judge and the city council chamber is located. In the fire department room there has been ample drying racks for the hose arranged and the hose arranged and the room kept at a temperature that will insure the fire truck being always ready for service. To the observer this seems to be one of the best investments that

GETTING READY TO OPEN

The branch office of the Buel National Detective Agency and the Farmers' Protective Bureau, which is being arranged for here by James Buel, head of the organization in Omaha, will be opened here in the next few days. Mr. Buel has arranged to open his office in the frame building just west of the Donat building and will in all probability be ready next Monday. Mr. Buel has decided to have as his representative here Mr. R. F. Burnett, who has had twenty years experience in the detective work and who will also handle the business management of the office.

CHILD SUFFERS INJURY

From Saturday's Daily—
This noon shortly before 1 o'clock, Juanita, the little four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson, residing on Wintersteen hill, was struck by a passing car and for several minutes it was feared she was severely injured but at the last reports were doing very nicely although rather shocked from the effects of the accident. The child was playing with other children in the streets and had apparently tried to cross the road as a car driven by a man named Small came along and being unable to stop the car the little one was struck and knocked down.
