COUZENS OR A DEMOCRAT IS ALTERNATIVE

Howell Given Support But Leads Move For Michigan Man to Head the Committee.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Old guard leaders acknowledged they had been ignominiously defeated in their fight to continue Cummings, of Iowa, who is regarded as "safe" by the railroad interests in the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee. Cummings reached the peak of his vote on the first of today's ballots, getting 43 votes. From then on his strength dwindled until the fifth, when he got only 38.

The insurgents were prepared to go on with the balloting in the belief that a movement toward Couzens might set in and insure his election. Old guard leaders, however, begged for delay until tomorrow, explaining that they desired time to "get together" and see if a compromise could not be arranged. The old guard finally reached the conclusion that it will go ahead with Cummings for a little while longer, and if forced to accept Grandin Fitch as their choice.

Smith's chances for election lie in the possibility that the group, which is now supporting Couzens may swing its entire strength of seven votes to Smith and thereby give him a majority. Some of the insurgent leaders oppose such action, however, explaining that Smith "has had his chance" and has failed of election.

But if it becomes necessary for them to go in a body to Smith to prevent Cummings' election, they will do so.

Couzens was projected into the fight after the first ballot of the day had been taken. Cummings had received 43 votes, Smith 39, Howell of Nebraska 6, and Couzens, 1. The Couzens vote was cast by Howell, while the latter had the votes of Brookhart, Frazier, Magnus Johnson, Ladd, Norris and Shipstead.

In the house, the progressives already have won a victory in the fight for liberalization of the rules, which was clinched today by the election of Nelson of Wisconsin, insurgent leader, to the rules committee in place of Tibson of Connecticut, choice of the old guard. The insurgents voted with the regular republicans to adopt the committee re-organization without debate, voting down the democratic opposition, 178 to 208.

White Bus Company is Defendant in $25,000 Suit—Driver Charged With Negligence.

Stella Rue's $25,000 personal injury suit against the White Bus line came to trial before District Judge Broady Monday forenoon. The injuries are alleged to have been received April 21, 1922, when the plaintiff, a passenger in a bus running between Lincoln and Dunbar, which went off the road a few miles west of Eagle.

Miss Rue in her petition states occurred the bus was negligently and carelessly being driven at an excessive rate of speed, she claiming that it skidded off the road into an embankment with such force that she was thrown out of her seat and her neck and body badly twisted and injured.

She states that she was in a hospital for thirty days after the accident and that she was unconscious for five days. Her medical expenses are listed as amounting to $422.50.

The White Bus line in its answer denies that Miss Rue paid the necessary fare for her transportation to Dunbar and claims that any injury she might have received during the trip was due to her poor physical condition. They state that the cause of the bus skidding off the highway was due to loose dirt placed on the road by county road workers and was not due to the negligence of the driver of the bus.

They also state that Miss Rue became excited when the bus skidded and jumped to her feet, bumping her head on the top of the bus. They state that none of the other passengers were injured in the accident and say that she is personally to blame for anything she might have suffered.—Lincoln State Journal.

AMERICANS ARE DETAINED IN THE CAPITAL OF MEXICO

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 17.—A large number of Americans are being detained in Mexico City by President Obregon for fear that if they attempt to leave they may come in contact with rebel forces, according to advices received here today by Judge L. B. Camp. The Americans, the advices state, are in no danger.

The information was received by Judge Camp after he had asked a relative who is in the customs service on the border, to help him locate his grandson, who is thought to be in Mexico City and with whom attempts at communication have failed. This relative in a telegram to Judge Camp, said there are many Americans in Mexico who desire to leave but are not being permitted to travel for fear they might come to harm.

The telegram adds that this is principally because it is expected that the rebels will soon engage the local forces around Puebla and other towns near Mexico City.
