down.

Just as the meeting was called to order, the front doorbell jangled and the minister excused himself to answer it. In a few moments he reappeared, and walking at his side was Old Solomon Way. He was a giant of a fellow, a trifle stooped about the shoulders, but carrying a certain dignity that hushed the clatter of the lively young people. The minister made no comment, but, seating Old Solomon in a comfortable chair, opened the meeting. The usual discussion followed. Who would trim It? Who would arrange the electric bulbs and see about the battery? Old Solomon listened intently. Per-few words. The minister spoke a courteous sentences to make Old
