

Friends Amazed at Improvement

"I simply can't estimate the true value of the wonderful Sargon treatment because I feel better than I have in 15 years. The change in my appearance has been so great that my friends look at me in amazement."

"I went to the table just because it was meal time. I never relished even the simplest and most appetizing foods. My nerves were on edge and I could sleep only for a short time in the early mornings. I had suffered with an inactive liver and chronic constipation for 15 years. The poisons in my system had made my complexion almost yellow and I was in a badly run-down condition."

"Sargon gave me a wonderful appetite. I began to relish my meals and even when meals I would be angry. Now, after taking four bottles of Sargon I have to guard against eating too much. My food is giving me plenty of nourishment and strength. I am no longer nervous and I sleep just fine."

"Sargon Pills completely overcame my constipation and cleared up my complexion wonderfully."

"I will be glad to tell anyone what this wonderful treatment did for me."

Nehawka

While T. E. Fulton was away, the affairs of the blacksmith shop was being looked after by W. A. Hicks. Forest R. Cunningham was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Weller who is now on her vacation is visiting in Illinois and will return to her work in a short time.

E. L. C. Gilmore of Ashland was a visitor in Nehawka for the day on last Wednesday and was looking after some business matters.

Rapid work is now being made in the grading of the approach to the new bridge and with but a few days and it should be in condition to afford crossing.

Miss Joe Opp who has been feeling quite poorly for some time past was at an hospital in Omaha for the past week where she has been receiving treatment.

C. F. Harris of Union was a visitor in Nehawka for a time on last Wednesday and was looking after some business matters as well as meeting a number of his friends while here.

Mrs. Martin Ross and young son, who have been at Lincoln since the advent of the son, arrived home on last Wednesday morning. They are feeling fine and are pleased to be at home again.

Rev. Harley Massie of Calloway, who was reported as being so seriously ill at his home in the west a short time since is at this time reported as much better and rapidly returning to his former good health.

Frank M. Massie and wife and Grover Hoback and family of Nehawka and near there were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore for the day and dinner on last Sunday and all enjoyed an excellent time.

Henry Wolfe and wife of near Avoca were visiting for the day in Nehawka and vicinity, they being guests of Mrs. Clarence Hanson and with F. A. Hanson, north of town. Mrs. Hanson being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe, and Mrs. Clarence Hanson a grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Fulton departed last week for Wyned, Nebraska, which is in the extreme northwest corner of this state, where they will visit for some two weeks at the homes of their daughters and families. Mesdames Albert Stoll and Harold Kimbon. They are making the trip via the train.

The Farmers Elevator company of Nehawka, made as its contribution to the feeding of the world, shipped twelve cars of new wheat to market on Tuesday of this week. There has been very liberal offerings of wheat at the elevator during the past two weeks and it is thought that the threshing had only begun.

Charles Bates and James M. Palmer are making some very important repairs on the Nehawka consolidated school building both on the out side and inside, and are hustling the work along in order to have it ready for the beginning of school early in September. Much carpenter work is to be done and following that also much painting.

Mrs. Albert Wolfe writes from Rock Valley, Iowa, where she has been visiting for the past week and where she is to spend another week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Alex Stoder, writes she is having a fine time and she does that the crops there are not looking as well as ours as there was a very severe hailstorm there which injured them very badly.

The excessive rains of late have caused a good deal of seep water to come into the Farmers Elevator and to fill the boat, and thus prevent the use of the elevator. The water was being bailed out by the elevator cups but seems to come as rapidly as it was being bailed away. Mr. Rough purchased an electric engine to assist in getting the water out so he could work.

On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller of San Diego, California, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell, formerly Miss Velma, arrived at Nehawka for a two weeks visit with the parents of Mrs. Miller and other relatives and friends. They were visiting for a time with his parents out in the state. Mr. Miller is employed with the government in the medical department of the Navy.

J. H. Steffens and family departed on last Wednesday morning for Enid, Oklahoma, where they will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder and also spent some time farther south and with many friends in that neighborhood, expecting to be away some two weeks. Mr. Steffens and Mrs. Schroeder are brother and sister. During the time when Mr. Steffens is away Mrs. Albert Anderson will assist in the store.

The members of the Nehawka 4-H club went to Murray on last Wednesday where they spent a three days vacation, and picnic as well as demonstration of their work. This is a county affair and there is expected to be over three hundred members from the various clubs over in the county in attendance at the picnic. There will be also many demonstrations given on various subjects as well as exhibitions of work done at the various clubs and individual members.

With the detour, bringing people and people make business, through Nehawka, a new business house is being established in Nehawka, in the shape of a hamburger stand, a soft drinking place and a confectionary, which will also serve ice cream, is being established just across the street south of the Nehawka school building. The place is the property of Everett Lancaster and wife of Bennett, Colorado, who have but recently moved into Nehawka to supply the want which the coming of the detour has brought.

More Business For Nehawka.

The Omaha Cold Storage company of Omaha is to establish a cream station in Nehawka, and have rented the Sutphan building where they will place their station. Uncle Joshua is making some repairs on the building and will have it in readiness in a short time. It is not known who will have charge of the new enterprise as yet.

Will Visit in the East.

On last Wednesday morning, George C. Sheldon and wife accompanied by their daughter, Ruthann, departed in their new Plymouth sedan for the east, and where they will visit at many places and especially in New York state, where Mr. Sheldon formerly resided. They are expecting to stay for some two or three weeks.

Nehawka Very Lively.

With the changing of the route of the highway No. 75, while the regular route is being paved, is bringing many people and cars through Nehawka. There were many in town on last Tuesday which could not get on their way as the roads were almost impassable. Somebody blundered in waiting to look after putting the detour in good condition before they attempted to turn the travel. The folks did all this caused much inconvenience to the travelers and all concerned. The matter of providing a good road should have been looked after some time ago, but probably more important work was to be done. Anyway the work failed and the inconvenience followed. With freshly graded roads and a world of travel on them and the rain pouring down in torrents, did not make good roads, as some specialists think they were making. The people of Nehawka and those working on the roads did all they could but they did not have the time. As fine a crew of workmen as ever made roads were on the job and did all they could in the limited time they had, and given a few days there will be in an excellent road on the detour. People can complain when they know nothing about the case and probably do not care, but that does not make good roads.

Taking Vacation in Minnesota.

On last Wednesday morning J. P. Cobb, president of the American Exchange bank of Elmwood, accompanied by Mrs. Bess Stretter Aldrich and the children, stopped on their way to Omaha where they were going to take the train for Brainerd, Minnesota, where they are to be the guests of the McClintock Manufacturing company who have also a publishing house and issue a magazine, for which Mrs. Aldrich has written a number of stories and this house is asking her and family to be the guests of the magazine for a number of weeks at the McClintock camp. Mr. Cobb after having taken them to Omaha, returned to his work at the bank at Elmwood.

FIREMEN DO GOOD WORK

The Greenwood Fire department was called to the A. E. Leesley farm south of that city last Saturday and made a record run. The barn, garage and chicken house were to far gone to save but the men succeeded in saving the house.

In appreciation of the effort made by the Greenwood firemen, Mr. Leesley made the organization a present of $50.

The donation was indeed appreciated and will be used to better equip the organization for firefighting.

The little one has been christened Alice Louise.

RAPS TAXICAB LIABILITY LAW.

Lincoln, July 26.—Railway Commissioner C. A. Randall, who, with his colleagues, is enjoined by Douglas county district court from carrying out provisions of the new law that requires taxicab owners to have liability insurance, is perfectly willing to lose the suit.

"I regard that law as unfair to the small taxicab owners," Mr. Randall said Friday. "Its apparent object is to drive the little fellows out of business. If I were to guess what interests were responsible for its enactment, I should name a large taxicab concern and the bonding companies. The act is fine for them, but mighty hard on the other fellows."

The small taxicab operator at Omaha, who brought the suit, owns and runs the vehicles. He told the commission at its recent hearing that a liability policy would cost him $264 a year. Larger firms enjoy cheaper rates because of their volume of business.

Fall Victim Remains Woman of Mystery

Diana Cooper Known by Other Names—Police Question Suicide Theory

Chicago, Ill.—In death today Diana Cooper remained a mystery—whether adventuress or intriguer, she was anything but a woman of commonplace life. One of her men friends, "Dr." Ernest Schnell, was found and taken to the hotel, where yesterday afternoon the woman's body hurtled from a tenth floor window to the sidewalk. It was quickly determined that Schnell was not the man who registered with her as Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Snowden, Springfield, Ill.

Schnell, who speaks with a German accent, admitted a friendship with the woman he knew as Diana Cooper, but who was known in New York as Irene Thorley and who possessed a German passport, giving her name as Mrs. Alma Witzmann. He said he knew little about her private life and his expressed opinion was that she was a woman who had many friends in important places.

Schnell said he is trying to market several patents, and his acquaintance with Miss Cooper was but casual, meeting her now and then.

A coroner's jury was impelled today, but no inquest was held because of the lack of any positive information regarding the woman's life or death. There still was more than a slight question that her death was not accidental or suicidal. Police were seeking support of the theory she may have been lured to the hotel room and thrown out the window by the man who made two highballs in the few minutes he was alone in the room with her, and then departed unnoticed.

Pope is Now Planning Visit to Mountains

Rome—Belief was expressed in some quarters today that Pope Pius would follow his emergence from the vatican yesterday shortly with actual emergence from the new small state into Italian soil.

The pontiff was known today to have felt the heat of Rome's extreme summer. Yesterday's ceremony in the courtyard of St. Peter's was trying, because of the heat, not only to the crowd, but to his holiness as well.

It was understood that his physicians have urged him to spend at least a fortnight on the lofty ecclesiastical retreat at Monte Cassino, where he has desired to go for a long time. There has, of course, been no indication as to what action he will take upon their advice.

The heat wave has been as bad at Milan as at Rome, thus precluding a visit to his former diocese, another project known to be dear to the pontiff's heart.

His exit yesterday from his quarters in the vatican was the talk of all Rome today, the 200 thousand or more witnesses gaining audiences everywhere with their eager first hand accounts of the impressive ceremony.

The witnesses remarked that the close co-operation manifest between the Italian government functionaries and those of the holy see was ample evidence that the lateran treaty really had bridged an old breach and not done so just in name.

Delight among Romans and those visiting here in the event was general.

SECOND TRIP OF McDONALD

New York—Ramsay MacDonald's last visit to the United States was a sentimental journey with almost a tragic end. His return here in October will be to wrestle with grim problems of world peace and Anglo-American naval parity. By important conferences in London with Ambassador Dawes and others the British prime minister began active preparations for his American mission.

Honeymoon memories of thirty years ago in the old New England town of Concord, Mass., brought MacDonald back to America in 1927, but the pilgrimage ended with illness in a Philadelphia hospital. He hurried back to England and where fears continued for his health. At Concord, however, he had called on Miss L. S. M. Perkins, then eighty-three years old, who had entertained him and his bride. Her hospitality never was forgotten. MacDonald's love story is as romantic as his rise to power, but his wife died while he was a struggling labor leader, and as a widower he has had two purposes in life, the rearing of his flock of five children and devotion with religious zeal to the cause of labor.

MacLean Has Big Part in His New Triumph

"Divorce Made Easy" Provides MacLean with Right Material to Make People Laugh.

Whenever Douglas MacLean is featured in a picture, that opens is a success, and as showmen say, "a wow" from start to finish. This has been invariably the case in the past. And it is certainly the verdict of those who have seen and applauded Doug's appearance in his second all-talking film, "Divorce Made Easy" which will be shown at the Parmele theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Divorce Made Easy" provides MacLean with just the right material for his happy faculty of making people laugh. It provides humorous episodes, humorous "gags" and humorous dialog—all funny in themselves, but all vastly funnier in the hands of this capable young man, this dapper youth with the ever-ready smile.

His long experience in legitimate productions prior to his entry into the film world, comes to the fore in Doug's talking picture. He has a pleasant voice and he knows how to use it effectively.

The plot of "Divorce Made Easy" is based upon a scheme whereby a young married couple hope to secure a divorce in order to get a large part of the fortune of the maiden aunt of the husband. Doug obligingly consents to take part in the project, offering his services as the co-respondent. Their plans all go "haywire" amid a flock of fast-flying and uproariously funny situations.

Marie Prevost and Johnny Arthur as the wife and her plotting husband, prove to be excellent all-talking picture actors. Additional support of high calibre is furnished by Dot Farley as the aunt, Jack Duffy as the intrusive old uncle and Frances Lee as the sweetheart of Doug who cannot understand what all the "compromising" is about.

—PARMELE!— Friday and Saturday—Returned by Request "The Covered Wagon!"

The Biggest Picture Ever Made Indian attacks, prairie fires, fording of swollen streams, a great buffalo hunt, dramatic situations galore—all go to make up the story of this great film.

Form Board to Sterilize Defectives

Attention Will Be Centered on Insane Charges of State and Habitual Criminals.

Lincoln, July 30.—A state board for the examination of mental defectives, to operate in conjunction with the sterilization law enacted by the legislature was formulated Tuesday by the board of control.

Dr. D. G. Griffith, superintendent of the state hospital at Lincoln, is chairman; G. E. Charlton, superintendent of the Norfolk state hospital is vice chairman; and other members are Dr. J. H. Babcock, superintendent of the state orthopedic hospital at Lincoln; and Dr. J. H. Burford, superintendent of the Beatrice asylum.

Meet in October.

The examiners, Chairman Westervelt of the board of control announced, will meet for the first time in October when those patients within the scope of the law from each of the various state hospitals will be examined.

According to provisions of the enactment, feeble-minded and insane inmates who are habitual criminals under certain conditions, may be cited by the board for examination and possible operation.

May Appeal to Court.

Four times each year, superintendents of these institutions and the penitentiary and reformatories are required to file with the board the names of persons for examination. In cases of criminals, those convicted of statutory offenses are particularly included within the intent of the law.

Relatives of those cited for examination are notified preliminary to the board's review and may appeal to the courts if they see fit after operations have been ordered.—Omaha Bee-News.

Mrs. Carroll Craig and little daughter were among those going to Omaha this morning where they will spend a short time there visiting with relatives and friends.

Corn Gains Interest of Pits from Wheat

Speculative Sentiment Is Shifted to a New Field Upon Reports of Drouth.

Chicago—The corn belt, dry and parched at a critical stage in the crop's development, borrowed interest Saturday from the firm wheat yields and sent corn into the leadership of the market. Corn traders boosted their price up 1 3/4 to 2 1/8 cents a bushel over Friday's close and revived drooping wheat prices in a sympathetic upward spurt to finish 1 5/8 to 2 1/2 cents better than Friday.

The close was $1.03 7/8 for July corn; $1.06 5/8 for September and $1.00 1/2 to 5/8 for December, ranging 5 to 5 5/8 cents above the close a week ago Saturday. Wheat gained 5 3/4 to 10 1/2 cents during the week, ending at $1.44 1/2 for July, $1.47 3/4 to $1.55 for December and $1.60 for March.

Wheat was declining under the weight of selling orders based on rain in the northwest when crop observers called attention to the critical condition of corn. Damage was already reported in some sections due to a fortnight of excessive heat without rain, and with corn in the tasseling stage. The news carried all grains into higher ground.

Hundred degree temperatures still were reported in Canada and the western states, and the rain was scattered.—State Journal.
