Old Man Time has hit a belt or two at the oat bin of the Rehmyer elevator and when it was loaded with a complement of oats it sank a little and finally gave way with the result that the contents and the electric hoist were precipitated in the drive way. Simon in a short time had the grain in another bin and all the litter cleaned away and things looking as usual. He has not as yet gotten the bin rebuilt.

A Good Man Has Gone.

Thirty-one years ago Dr. Lawrence Muter came to Alvo and cast his lot with the new little city and has ever proved faithful to the charge of ministering to the sick of this city and vicinity. The doctor has done everything for every one not asking about remuneration, but answering every call in the name of humanity, which he was pledged to succor. During the entire thirty-one years which he has served this community he has given of his services without stint, and has been a blessing to all, whether they had the price of a call or not. His charges has always been moderate and not such as would warrant him a competency for the after years when his services should cease. Then came the sickness to him and he was compelled to go to a hospital for relief, and after a number of days it was determined that he could not survive. The family were saddened by his call as well as the community which he had served so faithfully and so long. The funeral was held from Saint Paul's church at Lincoln and the interment made at Milford his former home. He leaves the good wife and two daughters to mourn his departure. TWO AUTO ACCIDENTS

Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Mozzer from Beaumont, Texas, accompanied by Mrs. E. P. Betts, Mrs. Arthur Adams, Eva Pearl Adams and Daisy Pearl Schalkoff started for Avoca. Just before they reached Avoca, Mrs. Mozzer when turning out to go around another car, struck the local gravel and her car turned over, causing what might have been a very serious accident. All the occupants of the car were badly shaken up and received severe wounds. Mrs. Betts received many bad bruises as she was thrown through the top of the car. Eva Pearl received a couple of gashes on her arm. Mrs. Mozzer, Mrs. Adams and Daisy Pearl also received several cuts and bruises. Dr. McFadden, of Greenwood was called and he stated that no one was seriously hurt. They are all improving slowly. The car was completely demolished.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roy Siekman and daughter, Velma, started to Eagle. Just as they went to turn onto O street, a mile east of town, a car coming at a high rate of speed from the west crashed into them, wrecking both cars quite badly. No one was seriously hurt. Mr. Siekman received several cuts, some of them quite deep and Mrs. Siekman received several bad bruises.

Mr. Siekman was brought into Eagle, but as the Doctor was out of town, he later went to Elmwood and had the doctor dress his wounds.—Eagle Beacon.

UNION CLUB MEETS

The Extension club of Union met with Mrs. Ed Lewis last Tuesday afternoon, August 20th. Eighteen members and friends were present. The president, Mrs. Rhin, could not be present, but the assistant, Mrs. Cheryl Stibbery presided. It was the lesson, very ably, and all enjoyed the lesson and games immensely. We all enjoyed the "walking of the string" very much and were all anxious to know who would win the prize. Mrs. Arden Ruhman seemed the most skilled in this exercise and earned her "sweet" prize.

Mrs. George Letz, who had attended camp at Camp Brewster last week, gave us a splendid report of every day's happenings and feels her time was well spent while she was there.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Lewis and daughter, Olive, assisted by Kathryn McGarrell, served cooling refreshments which refreshed us and as the hour was getting late, all departed for their homes declaring Mrs. Lewis and Olive to be royal entertainers.—One Who Was There.

America Urged to Join Parley on Calendar

National Committee Reports General Approval for 13-Month Year Proposal

Washington—American participation in an international conference on revision of the calendar is recommended in a report of the National Committee on Calendar Simplification, just submitted to Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of State. The report is the result of a year's investigation by the committee, which is headed by George Eastman of Rochester, N. Y.

The studies were undertaken to aid the United States in replying to an inquiry on calendar simplification made by the League of Nations in 1927. The League has in view a conference on the subject as soon as enough nations have expressed their interest in participating.

The committee recommends that American participation in the conference should not be preceded by definite commitment for any particular system of calendar reform. The committee, however, has collected extensive expressions upon the so-called "Cotsworth" plan which provides for 13 months of 28 days each, with the days of the week always falling upon the same dates. Ninety-eight per cent of the organization committee found indorsed the 13-month plan.

Replies to the committee's questionnaires were received from 1433 organizations of which 1154, or 80.5 per cent favored calendar simplification. A total of 82 per cent favored the Nation's participation in an international conference.

The report expresses the hope that the international conference will be held soon because 1933 is the next date when Jan. 1 falls on Sunday, which would be necessary for inauguration of the new plan. This coincidence of day and date does not occur again until 1939.

"After an international conference has approved a plan of simplification and agreed upon a date for putting it into effect," the report declares, "ratifying legislation in the various countries would be next in order. Such legislation would, of course, legalize the change in dates which would be caused by a new calendar and thus take care of matters of convenience. Within the next few years a simple conversion table legally established would do this."

"The temporary inconvenience of change must be weighed against the permanent convenience and advantages of a better calendar to this and future generations. Within the period since the war the large populations of Russia, Turkey and other countries of eastern Europe have accepted without serious disturbance a change in their dates by conforming to the Gregorian calendar."

MAN ASKS FOR ALIMONY

Miami, Okla., Aug. 20.—Alleging extreme cruelty, F. L. Hallam Monday filed suit in district court for $250,000 alimony and a divorce from Mrs. Anna Beaver Bear Hallam, reputed wealthiest woman of the Quapaw Indian tribe. Hallam, a white man, married the Indian woman at Albuquerque, N. M., in 1924. It was her third marriage.

Hallam lists the property of his wife as including $650,000 in cash, which is held in trust by the bureau of Indian affairs, and enough real estate in Miami and Ottawa county, Oklahoma, to make her total wealth more than $1,000,000. The petition sets forth Mrs. Hallam has a monthly income of $20,000 from lead and zinc ore royalties. In addition, Hallam says his wife is one of the principal heirs to Mrs. John Beaver, another wealthy Quapaw woman.

Several instances of alleged cruelty, including beatings while he was asleep, and a revolver attack, are cited by Hallam.

EMBARGO PUT ON GRAIN

St. Paul, Minn.—In an effort to relieve congestion at Minnesota terminals all grain carrying railroads in the northwest until Wednesday are proclaiming an embargo on rye, barley and oats effective Aug. 23 to Aug. 31.

At the same time Governor Christianson issued an appeal to farmers of the northwest to withhold shipments of barley, oats and rye to avoid clogging transportation facilities. Both action followed recommendations Tuesday by the northwest shippers advisory board.

The embargo will be effective on the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Soo Line, Milwaukee, Rock Island, Chicago & Northwestern, Omaha and the Minneapolis & St. Paul.

Railway officials in explaining their action said all lines have sufficient supply of cars to carry the grain, but that there is virtually no storage space available at terminal elevators and warehouses in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Superior.

AIR MAIL TO DUTCH GUIANA

New York, August 20.—Pan-American Airways announced Monday that air mail service from the United States would be extended on Sept. 20 to Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, and that Colonel Lindbergh would pilot the first ship from Miami.

Colonel Lindbergh was in the Pan-American offices when the announcement of his proposed flight was made and told reporters briefly of his plans.

Last year the flying colonel inaugurated the Pan-American air line to Panama and on that occasion widespread alarm was felt when his plane was unheard from for several hours. He said Monday it was believed such an occurrence could not happen on his flight, because by the aid of improved radio equipment he expected to be in communication every ten minutes during the long flight.

He did not say whether Mrs. Lindbergh would accompany him, as she has on most of his aerial journeys since their marriage.

TRY TO HOLD UP BROKERS

Chicago—Accused of importing a brand new racket from New York, Willie Druggan, brother of the notorious Terry, landed in jail with two companions Thursday and, within three hours true bills were reported to have been voted by the county grand jury against the trio. The action, police said, consisted of "shaking down" now brokerage firms for the right to operate in Chicago.

Willie, with Frankie Fisher, once a murder defendant, and Harry Robinson, an ex-ballit, were trying, according to the charges, to convince two employees of J. O. Bowman & Co. of the necessity of paying them $25,000. A telephone girl called police and the men were arrested.

Zeppelin Starts Across Pacific for Los Angeles

Eschmeyer Takes Advantage of Sudden Improvement in Weather—Day and Half Behind.

Kasumigaura, Japan, Aug. 23.—(Friday)—The globe-encircling dirigible, Graf Zeppelin, a day and a half behind schedule, took the air for her projected 5,740-mile journey to Los Angeles at 3:13 o'clock this afternoon (12:13 a. m., Friday, Omaha time).

The decision to start this afternoon was made after weather conditions, which had held up the flight scheduled for this morning, suddenly moderated. As soon as the weather changed for the better, Commander Hugo Eckener summoned the crew and passengers and the ground crew was called to take the dirigible out of the hangar.

No time was lost at the takeoff, and the Zeppelin rose rapidly and disappeared into the northeast a few minutes after it left the ground.

The change in plans followed lessening of the north wind which had been blowing across the entrance of the hangar, making the handling of the airship difficult and possibly dangerous.

The giant airship first was balked by a mishap as it was being drawn from its hangar yesterday. A rear motor gondola struck the earth and did damage which made necessary repairs, although it was not otherwise of serious consequence.

Today the scheduled start was further delayed because of wind, the direction and strength of which would make handling of the huge ship difficult and perhaps precarious by the ground crew.

Arrangements have been made for the Zeppelin to receive official weather reports three times a day until the eastward flight puts the ship in easy contact with American radio stations. The Tokyo weather bureau pointed out that although fogs must be expected over the north Pacific at this season, these seldom extend upward more than three hundred meters (984 feet) and the airship would not be bothered.

Farm Board to Help Cotton Co-Operatives

Washington, Aug. 19.—The federal farm board announced today it had tentatively agreed to make "certain financial advances" to cotton co-operative associations to assist in the movement of this year's crop.

This decision was reached, the board said, as a result of a number of conferences with officials of the American Cotton Growers' Exchange.

"These associations," the board announcement said, "are now able to obtain loans from the federal intermediate credit banks to the total amount of 65 per cent of the value of the cotton."

"The federal farm board proposes to loan an additional 25 per cent—a total of 90 per cent for the two government agencies—on cotton on which a definite value has been fixed by hedging in the future markets."

"The total volume of advances of this sort to be made by the federal farm board will be limited only by the actual requirements of the cotton co-operative associations. It is expected that the sum involved for this year's marketing operations will run somewhere between five and 10 million dollars."

"The effect of the secondary loan by the federal farm board," the announcement continued, "will be to permit the co-operative associations to make final settlement with member growers when the latter desires to sell his cotton, without forcing that cotton on to the market at a time when buyers may already be over supplied."—World-Herald.

CORN HURT BY LONG DROUTH

Lincoln, Aug. 23.—Continuation of the prolonged drouth, A. E. Anderson, federal and state crop statistician, declared Monday, has further dwindled the Nebraska's corn prospects, although "a fairly good" crop seems assured.

There was marked deterioration, Mr. Anderson discovered, he said, in a trip through the southern half of the state.

"However, if it rains immediately, much of the stand will not be injured beyond complete repair," he asserted.

Northern Nebraska counties, he said, has fared much better and northeastern counties have a chance to make a splendid crop without more rain.

"Cool weather has saved much of the corn and enabled better development than could ordinarily be expected under such a long trying period of dry weather." Today's report added:

Subsoil moisture, Mr. Anderson found, is nearly used up.

A good rain, he asserted, followed by a month of warm weather is what is needed to approximate the state's average production of corn in 1929.

An early frost, due to lateness of the crop, would prove damaging, he concluded.
