RETURNS FROM SOUTH DAKOTA

From Saturday's Daily—
Sheriff and Mrs. Bert Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Svoboda and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aschenbrenner, have returned from an auto trip to South Dakota and which included visits at Canistota, where there have been a large number going to visit the healers at that place and the party also visited at Marion, South Dakota, where there are bone and nerve specialists. While at Marion several of the party were given treatments and feel very much improved as the result of the special treatments. At Marion the doctors are caring for only the nerve and bone cases and do not take cases involving the necessity of operation or surgical attention.

Cass County Bankers to Meet in This City

Annual Meeting Will Be Held on Saturday, October 12th—Local Bankers Hosts

The Cass County Bankers association will meet in their annual session and social gathering in this city on Saturday, October 12th, the decision being reached at a meeting held last evening at Weeping Water and at which there was a representation from all of the banks of the county.

The Plattsmouth State bank of this city was represented at the meeting by Frank A. Cloidt, cashier and Carl Schneider and J. Howard Davis and the Farmers State bank by T. H. Pollock, president and R. F. Patterson, cashier.

The decision to hold the meeting at Plattsmouth is in the plan of alternating the gatherings once a year among the various towns of the county and the local program will be looked after by the Plattsmouth bankers.

The officers of the county association are Carl Ganz of Alvo, president and H. A. Guthman, Murdock, secretary.

This is the first time in several years that the county bankers have held their annual meeting here and a fine program and entertainment will be planned by the local bankers for their friends from all sections of the county.

APPREHEND YOUNG MAN

From Saturday's Daily—
While Sheriff Bert Reed and Constable Tom Svoboda were en route home from a motor trip to South Dakota, they ran onto a young man whom they have sought for several weeks and unsuccessfully, and the man was at once placed under arrest.

The man was Glen Price, against whom a complaint for the removal of mortgaged property was made several weeks ago and he has successfully eluded the officers until the accidental meeting near the town of Beemer.

The last heard of the young man was when he was picked up at one of the northern Kansas towns, but released before the Cass county officers could notify the Kansas authorities of his being wanted.

At the time he was found near Beemer, Price was along the road fixing a tire on the much sought car, and before he realized it the sheriff and constable had stopped and had him under arrest. He was taken on into West Point and lodged in jail and this morning Sam Reed motored to the Cumming county metropolis to secure the young man and bring him on to this city, where he will face charges of having removed a car on which Glen Morse held a mortgage.

RETURN FROM VACATION

From Saturday's Daily—
Lee J. Mayfield, publisher of the Louisville Courier and Mrs. Mayfield and Dr. and Mrs. Worthman and daughters, who have been spending the past month on the Pacific coast in a sightseeing trip, returned home last evening to Louisville and while tired from the long trip had a real time and one that they will long pleasantly remember.

Shifting in Golf Association is Possible

Change in Southeastern is Forecast by Nebraska City Players—Too Much Territory

The demise of the Southeastern Nebraska Golf association, sponsor of an annual golf tournament in this part of the state, is seen after this year by many Nebraska City golfers.

Petty dissensions at tournaments, lack of interest by many towns in the association, and the impossibility of some of the more distant golf clubs to send men to the annual championships may prove the undoing of the organization, according to some members of the Nebraska City club.

The organization was perfected at Auburn years ago, where the first tournament was held. Following that meet, in the last few years, new towns have been persuaded to join, until now the membership stretches from as far north as Ashland to as far south as Falls City.

Players from neither of these towns have entered the tournament being held now. They found the distance prohibitive. Business men said they could not leave work to spend the week playing golf in Nebraska City, for that is almost what they would have been compelled to do.

For that reason Nebraska City golfers see the formation sometime in the near future, of a southeastern Nebraska and southwestern Iowa organization containing fewer clubs than the present association, and not including such a vast territory. It has been suggested that Hamburg and Shenandoah, comparatively short distances away and with live-wire clubs, be sounded out for a membership in the new organization. Nebraska City, Plattsmouth, Auburn, Weeping Water and Syracuse would be among the towns of the present association to be included in the new one.

At any rate some sort of a meeting will be held here Sunday following the tournament. Just what will be done is a conjecture, but many players are in favor of a complete reorganization of the association with a view toward a more compact group. They point out that the present tournament could not be called unsuccessful, but they believe some of the more distant clubs should be dropped and other nearby ones included.—Nebraska City News-Press.

WEDDED ROAD ROUGH

Yesterday County Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon to unite in the bonds of wedlock Eva E. Lindley, of Lincoln, and Lee Roy Cooper, giving his residence as Eagle. The ceremony was performed in the usual pleasing manner of the genial judge and was witnessed by Miss Jessie M. Robertson and Miss Lillian White. After the ceremony the bridal couple departed on what the court expected would be a happy honeymoon and it was with considerable surprise that the Judge this morning discovered the bridal couple awaiting him as he arrived at the office and instead of a happy nuptial morn the bridegroom was in the hands of the law.

The bridal party had driven as far as Weeping Water on their journey homeward, when Mr. Cooper was arrested by Marshal Dowler of that place on the charge of driving a car while intoxicated. The marshal accompanied the bridal couple to this city where the charge was filed against Mr. Cooper and he was given a fine of $30 and costs and suffered the forfeiture of his driving license for the year.

While here, the groom was sober, but somewhere on the journey homeward apparently had acquired a load of the booze. It was claimed by the bride that the trouble was occasioned by the groom having partaken of a hamburger, and that he was sick instead of drunk.

MANY APPLY FOR LICENSE

County Treasurer John E. Turner and Deputy Treasurer Ruth Patton have been very busy the past week over the county, receiving the applications of those who would drive autos after the 30th day of September, when the new law requiring licenses for all persons driving a car will go into effect. The law has prescribed a very severe penalty for its violation and a check of the auto drivers will be made as soon as possible after the law is in effect and it behooves those who are driving cars to get their licenses and be on the safe side.

In several cases over the state there has been question as to the law raised, but as similar laws are in effect in other states, the Nebraska law will probably be sustained, at least as far as the requirements of a license is concerned. In this county there has been a very large number already receiving their licenses and getting all ready for the operation of the law.

Don Pittman in Finals of the Golf Tourney

Defeats Feistner of Auburn Decisively—August Cloidt in President Flight Finals.

From Saturday's Daily—
Plattsmouth golf club members are to play in the finals of the Championship and President flights of the Southeastern Nebraska golf tournament at Nebraska City on Sunday morning. The matches will start at 10 o'clock.

In the championship flight, Donald Pittman, medalist of the tournament, will enter the finals with Fred Oetgen, of Nebraska City, as his opponent, while in the President's flight, A. W. Cloidt of this city will battle Dr. Young of Syracuse for the final honors in this class.

In the semi-finals Friday, Pittman had little trouble in disposing of his opponent and won easily and with his rare form shown in the tournament, should come home with the cup, although his opponent is one of the best of the Nebraska City golfers. Oetgen is to have a busy day, as he is to play for the golf championship in the forenoon and in the afternoon will pitch for Nebraska City in a baseball game.

Mr. Cloidt was opposed Friday by Rev. F. M. Drullinger, of Auburn, and the local player led the former pastor through the game and defeated Rev. Drullinger 2 up for the coveted honor of playing in the finals of the tournament.

It is expected that a very large number of the local golfers will drive down Sunday to watch the finals and cheer on the Plattsmouth players in their bid for the Southwestern title in the respective classifications.

Those from this city who wish to play over the Nebraska City course can do so even if not registered in the tournament, by paying the customary green fee.

WILL PAY OFFICERS SALARY

From Saturday's Daily—
Their board of county commissioners at their session here yesterday voted to pay the sum of $50 per month for a school attendance officer for the county and also to allow the sum of eight cents a mile for necessary mileage. The salary will be set for a six months period while the plan is being tried out as a part of the general plan of state wide probation and truant supervision which has been advocated by E. M. Pollard, head of the state welfare department.

FUNERAL OF A. MATOUS

From Saturday's Daily—
The funeral services of the late Andrew Matous were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home on South Sixth street and were very largely attended by the old friends in this city as well as a number from Omaha, who came to pay their last tributes to this splendid gentleman, who had been called to the last rest at the close of a long and useful life.

The beautiful and impressive Episcopal service was celebrated by Father Stanley Jones, rector of St. Luke's church, and who gave a short tribute to the departed and to the family spoke words of comfort and hope for the future rejoining of the ties separated here on earth.

During the services, the male quartet, composed of Frank A. Cloidt, Raymond C. Cook, L. O. Minor and L. D. Hiatt gave two numbers, "Jesus, Savior Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages." The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery and the pall bearers were selected from the friends of many years standing, they being H. M. Soennichsen, James Rebal, John E. Kirham of this city and Joseph Mik, William Holly and Peter Drozda, of Omaha.
