

Down the Home Stretch

Saturday will be the last day of the Harvest Carnival and the last day of the Automobile Contest—the DeLuxe Sport Roadster will be awarded after the contestants committee have made a complete re-count and audit of all ballots and contest records—

The following advertisement explains fully just exactly HOW the remainder of the contest will be conducted—all provisions contained herein in force Tuesday morning—

At one o'clock Saturday afternoon—a committee appointed by the leading contestants—will be given all of the ballots—and other records of the contest—and will make a complete re-count of votes—announcing each candidate's standing—every hour thereafter—until close of contest.

There are ten candidates—each of whom have practically an even chance of winning the Grand Prize—

Which One of them do you want to win?

Anna May Sandin Plattsmouth	Mae Wilson Murray	Mary Sedlak Plattsmouth

Last Saturday was old magazine day—500 votes were given for each pound of old magazines.

Friday will be Old Tire Day

5,000 votes will be given for each OLD TIRE and 3,000 votes for each OLD TUBE—brought in Friday, September 6th.

The two events above are the only ways contestants have been able to obtain votes—except through the sale of merchandise—coupons—or the suit club tickets—therefore—if you have an old tire or so—and wish to help your favorite candidate—just let them know—or bring in the old tires yourself.

Registration at Parmele

Registration will be continued at the Parmele—to all who purchase the $3.00 Admission Cards, which are being sold by contestants at $2.50 each—you can therefore save 50c on a three dollar purchase of good entertainment—the cards can be used by anyone the purchaser chooses to loan their card to—anytime—even after the contest is over—

5,000 votes are given for the sale of each one of these cards—and then—you have a right to register—when you attend the show and your favorite candidate receives 1,000 extra votes for each adult and an additional 1,000 votes for each mile you live from Plattsmouth—up to 25 miles. Registration is one of the biggest features of the contest.

Registration on all purchases made at each store will be continued as it has been—Take your purchase slips to LADIES TOGGERY.

Trade Coupon Votes will remain the same—15,000 votes for each $10.00 Coupon purchased—good at any one of the three stores, or at the theatre—after contest is over—if you do not use them all before.

Extra votes will be given on odd lots of merchandise at Bates Book store—Wescott's—and the Ladies Toggery—according to the following specifications.

There will be absolutely no extra votes given on any article not listed on this page. Extra votes will not be raised or lowered—however, we reserve the right to withdraw extra votes on any or all lots of goods—at any time—by first giving one hour's notice—on the Bulletin Board—before such withdrawal.
