"Uncle Tom's Cabin!"

The Miracle of the Screen

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is an epic of the Old South, and embraces one of the most stirring and picturesque periods in American history. As a stage-play, it has graced the boards of American theatres for 75 years. Through the medium of this beautiful drama, probably the greatest human story ever written, countless stars have been made. There is scarcely an old actor or actress living who has not at some time played some part in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The names of "Eliza," "Uncle Tom," "Little Eva," "Topsy," "Simon Legree" and "Marks, the Lawyer" are American household words.

This motion picture, then, is dedicated to the American people so that there may be preserved for all time a classic of American life that takes rank with the works of Victor Hugo and Charles Dickens in their interpretations of other periods in older lands.

Amazing Facts and Figures!

- 19 MONTHS TO SHOOT—A new record was established in the shooting time of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," when the final count of time totaled nineteen months.
- 2400—There were over 2400 minor players and ensemble atmosphere personalities engaged during the period of this production.
- 977,000—In order to select the necessary footage for the successful showing of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," 977,000 feet of film were exposed.
- 3,531—There are 3,531 scenes shown in the fourteen reels of this work. This is almost twice as many as in any other super-picture ever made at Universal City.
- 26,000—The "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company traveled over 26,000 miles on location trips throughout the country.
- HISTORIC "PROPS"—One of the historic "props" and scenes is that of the Mississippi mighty side-wheeler, the old "Kate Adams" on which the boat activities were enacted and photographed. The famous old boat was chartered for nine weeks and rebuilt to conform to the period of the '50's.
- 2,700—The lighting effects on the sets required over 2,700 amperes of direct and indirect current running from 220 volts down to 104 volts for the indirect lighting, to flood the scenes as they were unfolded to the eye.
- TWO MILLION GALLONS—An interesting bit of business was the erection at Universal City of a waterfall over which fell thirty gallons of water a minute into a reservoir of 2,000,000 gallons capacity to effect the ice scenes. This reservoir was refilled daily for 37 days.
- MIGHTY SNOW SCENES—Six hardwood, laminated airplane propellers were worn out during the snow scenes due to the eroding effects of the artificial snow which "chewed" up the propellers used for propulsive force in driving the "snow" into the scenes.
- 400 TONS—It required four hundred tons of gypsum to cover the ground for the ice scenes to intensify the snow effects on the massive set, which covered three acres.
- THOROUGHbred BLOODHOUNDS—The bloodhounds used for the famous escape on the ice-scene were especially imported from England.
- EIGHT MONTHS RESEARCH—Prior to the taking of a single foot of film on the world-famous story, eight months were spent in research work by technicians, who travelled all over the South for historical, geographical and architectural data.
- GENUINE SPANISH MOSS—All the way from the Mississippi forests came fifty bales of Spanish moss to embellish the trees at Universal City in order that this picturesque detail might enhance the verdant scenes and achieve the rich tropical atmosphere of this greatest of all great pictures.
- 200 BARRELS OF PAINT—For the interior and exterior decoration of the buildings there were used two hundred barrels of paints of all colors called for from the Stowe descriptions.
- 65 SETS—There were sixty-five separate and distinct sets built especially for the production. This is most unusual when one considers that the average BIG production includes eight or nine at the most.
- 1,000 TREES—In the horticultural decorations there were 1,000 full grown trees hauled from the mountains of Southern California to Universal City; 10,000 artificial magnolias, oleanders and other famous southern flowers were manufactured and intermingled with the tens of thousands of real southern flowers in order to make the garden scenes and verdure surrounding the homes and outbuildings identical with the Stowe description of these scenes.
- REAL ANTIQUES—Out of a historic New Orleans home there was brought to Universal City a crystal chandelier to decorate the living room of the St. Clare manor house.
- 50,000 PIECES OF CLOTHING—In the wardrobe department there were made and furnished over fifty thousand major pieces of clothing to array the principals and extras in the various scenes. The minor and extra people required 28,000 sticks of grease paint for their respective make-ups.

Farm Forces Open Tariff Fight Today

Smoot Gives Senate Bill at Noon; Capper Sees Many Changes for Agriculture Aid.

Washington, Sept. 3.—With one of the latest party issues—the tariff—to settle once more, the senate will resume work Wednesday after a 2 1/2-months' recess, to complete the emergency legislative program recommended to it by President Hoover.

The house, which started last January formulating the first tariff legislation in seven years and sent the completed measure to the senate in late May, will not meet until Sept. 23. Then it will adjourn over 3-day periods until the senate sends the bill back for adjustment of differences.

The eve of the reconvening of the senate found the democrats and western republicans organizing to limit the revision to agriculture, or—failing in that—to carry on a vigorous drive to wipe out the proposed increase in industrial import levies and in some instances, to reduce existing rates.

Smoot Is Ready.
Leaders of both groups expressed confidence that they had enough votes practically to rewrite the bill to their liking.

Senator Smoot of Utah, tariff spokesman for the regular republicans, said he was "ready for the fight," and the books and statistics piled on his desk as he made the statement indicated as much.

Many senators were rushing to the capital for the initial tariff meeting, Senator Pittman (D.), Nevada, taking an airplane from Los Angeles to Kansas City in order to speed his arrival.

Both Senators Watson of Indiana, and Robinson of Arkansas, respectively the republican and democratic floor leaders, were out of the city, and party predictions were left to their lieutenants.

Smoot said he would introduce the bill and submit the majority report to the senate at noon after the full finance committee, which he heads, had voted the measure out.

See Postponement.
Under the rules, the bill must lay over one day before debate begins, but some senators believed a move would be made to adjourn until Monday to allow senators more time to study the measure amended by the finance majority.

Senator Borah of Idaho, met with eight other republican independents and discussed the bill for an hour, after which he said the "main point is to confine the revision to agriculture."

Senator Capper (R.), Kansas, an advocate of revision for agriculture alone, predicted proponents of the bill would not recognize it when it gets through the senate—Obama Bee-News.

SNOWDEN WELCOMED HOME
London—Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer, and now acting prime minister, arrived in London Sunday from The Hague, where he attended the government's reparations conference. A crowd estimated at 3,000 greeted him and would not allow him to proceed until he had made a short talk. He was well pleased with the outcome of The Hague conference, he said, and believed the agreement to withdraw troops from the Rhineland "the greatest piece of political achievement since Locarno."

"The influence of Great Britain in international affairs has been re-established," the chancellor said "and now our relations with other countries are more cordial now than at any time since the war."

Just before he left the Netherlands, Mr. Snowden received a telegram from Prime Minister MacDonald appointing the chancellor acting premier during Mr. MacDonald's sojourn at Geneva.

MAKES LIQUOR RAIDS
From Monday's Daily—Saturday afternoon the county officers were at Nehawka and vicinity and where they made raids on several places securing a pint of liquor at the home of Lawson Conrad and at the William Doty home there was a quantity of beer as well as other liquor, the latter being claimed to be illegal by Mr. Doty, but the liquor was poured out and the men brought on to this city.

This morning the men were arraigned on the charge of possession and on their plea of guilty received a fine of $100 and costs each.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS
On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Matthew Sedlak residing in the northwest portion of the city, was hostess to a group of the friends and neighbors in a most delightful time which the ladies spent in visiting and renewing their friendships in a most pleasant manner. At an appropriate hour a dainty and delicious luncheon was served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Joseph M. Sedlak and Mrs. James Newasek.

DEFECTS ARE REMEDIABLE
The high percentage of physical defects in the population of this country, as disclosed by physical examination of supposedly well people, and the means at our disposal for partial remedy of these defects was discussed by Dr. B. Carl Russum in an address at the state fair Tuesday under the auspices of the Nebraska State Medical association.

Dr. Russum, director of the department of pathology, bacteriology and preventive medicine at Cheyenne university school of medicine at Omaha, pointed out that the examination of over 700,000 people periodically examined revealed that over 50 per cent had derangements warranting medical or surgical attention.

The speaker said that our partial triumph over such communicable diseases as scarlet fever and diphtheria has increased our life expectancy for all ages up to fifty-two, but after that age our expectancy has decreased when compared with 1900.

Maintenance of proper weight is the best guide of the efficiency of a diet according to Dr. Russum. A deviation of 10 to 15 per cent from average weight is allowable, but more variation is pathological. The usual gain with advancing years is not physiological and is a definite handicap to heart and blood vessels. Weight cannot be kept down by exercise such as golf, for we simply cannot exercise enough. Proper diet is the only method, he declared.

A person is foolish to have all his money in one pocket when he goes to a big city. If any amount he can save part of it by scattering it about.
