Woman's Club Has First Meeting of the Year

Very Interesting Program Given at the Meeting Held at the Home of Mrs. J. A. Capwell

From Tuesday's Daily—The Plattsmouth Woman's club held their first meeting of the club year last evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Capwell on park hill and with a very large number of the ladies out to enjoy the first gathering and to discuss the plans of the coming year's work.

The plans for the year were discussed at some length by Mrs. E. H. Westcott, the club president and the ladies have a large number of most interesting studies and activities to face them during the fall and winter when the club will be functioning in all departments.

The ladies discussed the plans for the county convention to be held at Eagle on October 10th and also the state convention at Norfolk on October 22 to 24th inclusive.

The meeting was captured by a fine program that was both entertaining and instructive. James and Cecil Comstock being featured in a trumpet and piano number while Miss Jean Hayes was heard in a very charming vocal selection that this gifted lady presented in her usual delightful manner.

The main feature of the evening was the talk given on the subject of "The Constitution" in which Miss Jessie M. Robertson covered very thoroughly the history of the adoption of the constitution, the various articles that entered into the making of the organic law of the land and which proved a real treat in giving a clear outline of the constitution and its workings.

At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served and in which Mrs. Capwell was assisted in serving by Mrs. Fred Lugsch, Mrs. Bert Coleman, Mrs. C. C. Cotner, Miss Amelia Martens and Mrs. J. C. Peterson, Jr.

HELPS IN GOOD WORK

The baseball park is being temporarily arranged for the use of the high school athletic department as a football field, as it was found impossible to get the tourist park in readiness for use as an athletic field by the opening of the football season, the first scheduled game being on October 4th and two practice games will be held prior to that date.

In the work of cleaning up the park and getting it safe for the football warriors to battle over, the school authorities have had the assistance of several citizens and notably among these have been C. L. Wiles and Dr. O. Sandin. Mr. Wiles has been in to lend his own personal labors and as well donated two teams to help get the grounds in shape, taking this time from his farm work, while Dr. Sandin has been at the grounds for the past two afternoons helping get the ground in shape to play on. These two men as well as those assisted otherwise in the work are making it possible to enjoy high school football here this year.

H. J. Spurway, Bank Receiver, Files Suit

Action Filed in the Federal Court at Lincoln Against Officers of the First National Bank.

An action was filed in the federal court at Lincoln Tuesday by H. J. Spurway, receiver of the First National bank of this city, in which he seeks to call to account the former officers of the bank for their methods of handling loans in the last few years of the bank's existence.

In a lengthy bill in equity filed in the office of the U. S. district court, the plaintiff sets forth a number of instances in which he claims the affairs of the bank were handled in a negligent manner and alleges that that rates were repeatedly violated.

The plaintiff asks that the stockholders and depositors of the bank recover from their defendants their losses insofar as the latter are liable. A similar case was filed some time ago against the defendant officers by Fred Buerstetta, a former receiver of the bank, which was dismissed by the Rev. E. C. Fintel on Tuesday and the new action filed by Mr. Spurway, the present receiver of the bank.

Work on New Viaduct to be Started Soon

City Council Authorizes the Signing of Contract With the Burlington for the Work

From Tuesday's Daily—Last evening the city council advanced farther toward the attainment of a highway to the new Missouri river bridge when it passed the ordinance that would allow the city to enter into the contract with the Burlington for the actual work of building the viaduct.

All of the councilmen were on hand when the meeting started and the councilmen were kept busy discussing city affairs until near ten o'clock when it was decided to call it a night and adjourn.

A petition was received from A. F. Meisinger asking permission to cut into the curb along the street and construct a driveway into his lot on 9th and Granite street and which was referred to the street, alleys and bridges committee with power to act.

A petition was also received from W. E. Gillespie in which he asked that the city place a curbing along the new paving on Mark street in the west addition to Oak Hill cemetery. Councilman Tolene, the chairman of the cemetery committee under whose direction the paving was done, stated that there had been no curb placed elsewhere and that the grass and dirt would gradually take up any of the rough places along the ground adjoining the paving and he did not believe that it would cause any washing onto the lots. The communication of Mr. Gillespie was placed on file.

The depository security for city funds was offered by the Plattsmouth State bank and the Farmers State bank, the Plattsmouth state offering some city warrants which had been placed in the First National bank of Omaha in escrow for the city. Some of these securities were given as drawing seven per cent interest and which was discussed by the council as being too large an interest rate and should have been retired for lower interest obligations by the city.

The Farmers State bank had placed Liberty bonds with the Omaha National bank in escrow for the city to secure the deposits and also had an additional list of city warrants as security for deposits. The reading of the warrants caused more or less comment from the councilmen as the warrants were in the possession of the city treasurer and not in the hands of the city clerk.

On motion of Luschinsky, seconded by Highfield, the treasurer was ordered to have the warrants placed in the hands of the city clerk to be cared for.

Councilman Kunsman stated that the deputy state fire warden had requested him to bring up the matter of having some person designed to haul the dirt and debris from the rear of the various places in the main section of the city and charge each property owner or tenant the sum of 25 or 50 cents a week for this work. The various councilmen discussed the matter but could not figure how the city could act in the matter at present and on motion of Luschinsky it was decided to have the chief of the fire department visit the various places and ascertain if they wished the city to go ahead and create the ordinance that would legalize the creation of the office.

Councilman Blunt reported that the sidewalks leading to and from the south part of the city were in good shape now and everybody was happy accordingly.

The second partial estimate of the paving work was read and which with the necessary deductions made the amount now due the contractor $6,727.20 and which was ordered paid over to the contractor on the job.

Councilman Smith wished the drainage of water at 10th and Walnut street fixed and other small pieces of road work and the second ward again insisted that this be ordered at once and not held over by the streets, alleys and bridges committee and it was finally passed with the work referred to the committee and the mandate to get busy.

Councilman Lutz of the police committee reported that the police had requested that he bring up the matter of an allowance for gas and oil for the use of a car that could be used by the police, especially at night when there are calls from all sections of the city. The councilmen did not believe that they could arrive at the definite estimate of what amount would be necessary to operate a car and it was left to the police committee to look into and report at a later meeting.

The council then heard a communication from Byron Clark, solicitor of the Burlington relative to the matter of the construction of the viaduct from Wintersteen hill to Third street and over the property of the railroad. In this the ground was covered of the previous discussions excepting that the railroad wished to be protected from any future costs of paving along this property should the state or other authorities deem it necessary. The communication was then placed on file.

The contract for the construction of the viaduct by the Burlington and for which the city was to pay over $1,000, the Plattsmouth Bridge Co., $4,250, was then read and adopted and the work will be undertaken when the parties have complied with the requirements made by the railroad.

Ordinance No. 685 was then read and unanimously passed which authorized the mayor and clerk to sign the contract for the city for the viaduct construction on motion of Councilman Luschinsky then adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at which time the bids for the work on the new road to the

Young Coolidge and Governor's Daughter Wed

Son of Former President Is United in Marriage to Florence Trumbull

Plainville, Conn.—The daughter of the governor of Connecticut became the bride Monday of the son of a former president from Vermont's hills, in a ceremony colored by Indian summer tints and marked by Puritan dignity.

The bride was Florence Trumbull, daughter of Gov. John H. Trumbull, the groom was John Coolidge, son of Calvin Coolidge, former governor of Massachusetts and thirtieth president of the United States.

Some of the nation's most prominent personages, including two United States senators gathered with simple folk of New England in the white house Congregational church to witness the wedding.

Town Folk Turn Out

The residents of this little town and surrounding villages turned out by scores to catch a glimpse of the wedding party as it was whisked to and from the church.

As Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge alighted from their car in front of the church, the crowd which had gathered at the curb broke thru the state troopers, lined and swarmed onto the church yard lawn cheering lustily.

The troopers, proceeding gently to push back a throng which contained many women who had brought young children to the scene, found cries of "shame on you," as effective a weapon as any but hardly had got the sword cleared again when Governor Trumbull arrived with the bride-to-be. Again the multitude burst its bounds and there were more hand-claps as Miss Trumbull and her father entered the church.

The simple Congregational wedding service and a single ring ceremony made John Coolidge and Florence Trumbull husband and wife. The wedding vows were read by the Reverend Kenneth Wetles of Albany, N. Y., former pastor of the Congregational church at Northampton, where ex-President Coolidge makes his home. The Rev. J. Roy Wilkerson, pastor of the Plainville Congregational church, read the preliminary service.

The word "obey" was not used in the ceremony.

Honeymoon plans of the bride and groom have not been revealed. It is known, however, that they contemplate a tour of New England, apparently by motor car, which will embrace a visit to Plymouth, Vt., for Mother Gives Present.

Mrs. Coolidge gave her son a check for $250 paid to her by a magazine for a poem "The Open Door," inspired by the fifth anniversary of the death of her other son, Calvin, Jr., and asked John to use it "for something in the new home in some way that your brother might have chosen if he were here."

The many newspaper and camera-men here for the wedding were excluded from the church, which was transformed into a bower of yellow flowers, palms and ferns. More than fourteen hundred giant chrysanthemums transported by special car from California were on display.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge left immediately after the reception festivities for their home in Northampton.—State Journal.
