96,000 Serve in Nebraska State Prisons

Average Less Than State for Nation;
Homicide Cases Decrease From 1923 to 1926.

Lincoln, Nov. 11.—Although convicts crowd Nebraska prisons far beyond rated capacities, this state has fewer criminals than the average behind the bars.

A United States government report, just issued, shows that for every 100,000 residents of Nebraska in 1926, 71.9 were in penal institutions. The figures for the country as a whole was 79.3. The actual number in Nebraska prisons was 96,000.

Viewed in the light of other years, however, Nebraska's record is not so favorable. Or more favorable, according to the standpoint of the observer.

Average Goes Up.
In 1904 the figure per 100,000 was but 29.2. Since that time the average for the nation as a whole has gone up, too, of course, but not so rapidly. It advanced from 68 in 1904 to 79 in 1926.

Compared with those of its near neighbors, Nebraska's record takes on new significance.

The index figure in Kansas, for instance, was 146.7 in 1926, for Iowa 84.3, for Missouri 98.2, for South Dakota 67.7, and for Colorado 105.3.

Marked Decrease.
From 1923 to 1926, the report states, there was a marked decrease in the proportionate number of male prisoners convicted of homicide. A slight increase was noted in the number sent up for rape.

There has been little change in the number of women held for homicide, while the number held for assault has dropped. But in the matters of forgery, larceny, liquor and drug law violations, and sex offenses, the totals have become greater.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Copy for this Department furnished by County Agent

Meeting of Group Chairmen.
H. G. Gould, district supervisor of extension work and Miss Mary Ellen Brown, chairman of women's work, both of the state office, met with the county and group chairmen Monday, November 4th. This meeting terminated into the discussion of a program for women's and girl's club work for the coming year. Long and short time projects, recreational meetings, vacation camps, etc., were discussed and a program of work was outlined and is ready for the approval of the board.

Cass County 4-H Exhibits.

The Home Economics 4-H clubs of Cass county will send three exhibits to help make up the state exhibit for International Club Congress at Chicago.

Alice Leone Ambler of Weeping Water will send her dressing set. Lois Giles of Nehawka, a cotton sport dress and Marjorie Newkirk of Greenwood, a suit for a boy between two and six years of age.

These exhibits received high placings at the State Fair and the girls are deserving of much credit for their work.

Home Economics Programs.

Home economics programs for the Lincoln meetings of Organized Agriculture the first week of January, 1930 are now being distributed from the office of the secretary at the agricultural college. The county agent is taking copies out to leaders of extension service project clubs this month. The programs will be discussed at each of the club meetings. Other copies are being distributed to those who ask for them and to lists of names of women who have previously attended the meetings.

Miss Mary Rokahr, a former Nebraska lady who is now in the U. S. Department of Agriculture, is to be the leading speaker of the three day session. She has studied home management and will include many of her experiences in her talks to Nebraska homemakers.

Ditch Blasting Demonstration.

A ditch blasting demonstration was held on E. A. Nutzman's place at Rock Bluffs Wednesday, November 6th. A. J. Meadams of the Dupont company and Will Partridge of Weeping Water, assisted with the demonstration. Mr. Nutzman had 2899 feet to blast. Four shots were made at different points along the ditch to see the results of the 50% ditching dynamite. Holes were drilled 16 inches deep and 18 inches apart and a stick of dynamite was used in each hole. Then one hole was capped and when it was set off the explosion sent off the adjoining sticks. One half mile can be blasted by the use of one cap in this way. The results were a ditch 3 1/2 feet deep and 5 1/2 feet wide at the top.

This is a very satisfactory and economical way of ditching. Mr. Nutzman was especially pleased with the demonstration and will complete the ditch in the near future.

Recommend Trinity Mixture for Hogs

The "Trinity Mixture," recommended as a high protein hog feed to more than 100,000 Nebraska people within the last month thru the exhibits of the Profitable Pork Special, is as follows: Two parts tankage, one part cottonseed meal or linseed meal, and one part coarsely ground alfalfa meal, all by weight.

Cottonseed meal and alfalfa meal generally cost less per hundred than tankage, and yet when they are mixed with the tankage the pigs do better on the mixture than they do on tankage alone. The mixture may be placed in one end of a self feeder with shelled corn in the other end. The combination will be a complete

Train-Car Crash Kills 3 Persons Near Bancroft

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doescher and Later's Sister Victims—Car
Dragged 300 Feet

Bancroft, Neb., Nov. 12.—Three persons are dead as the result of their auto being struck by a north-bound passenger train on the Omaha road just east of here about 4:29 o'clock this afternoon. The dead: Richard Doescher, 32, farmer. Mrs. Richard Doescher, 28. Bessie Vacha, 24, sister of Mrs. Doescher.

The Doeschers and Miss Vacha lived on a farm about five miles north of here. They were tenants of Allen Burke, speaker of the Nebraska house. The three were driving into Bancroft, and turned onto the crossing just as the train came up from behind.

The party was returning from Sioux City, and it is believed their view was clouded by driving snow. Doescher was thrown clear of the car, but the two women were pinned inside it.

The car was dragged about one hundred yards, and Miss Vacha was killed outright. The Doeschers lived a short time. The body and the two injured were placed on the train and taken to Pender, but Doescher died on the way and Mrs. Doescher succumbed in the Pender hospital.

Known surviving relatives are two Doescher children, boys, aged 9 months and 2 year, respectively, a brother, Paul Doescher, and Doescher's mother, living on the farm.—World-Herald.

FOUND DYING ON HIGHWAY

Kansas City—Charles E. Schoonover, private in the army medical corps, who left Fort Leavenworth Monday on an Armistice day leave, died in a hospital Tuesday after being found on the highway west of here last night with his throat cut. A blood-stained automobile, found to have been stolen in Kansas City, was located near the spot where Schoonover apparently had been attacked. It contained several articles of women's apparel. Police expressed the belief that the soldier may have been slashed in a fight over a woman. His home was in Villisca, Ia. Schoonover refused to name his assailant. He told hospital authorities his name was Charles Smith.

Denver—Charles F. Schoonover, twenty-year old soldier, who died Tuesday in Kansas City, after he was found on a highway near the city with his throat cut, formerly was a patient at Fitzsimmons hospital here, army institution. He was arrested in Denver, Jan. 10, 1927, in connection with the death of Olive Winter, eighteen, who was found dead in her gas filled apartment. She left a note indicating that she was despondent because she felt that Schoonover was neglecting her.

NEW STORE OPENING

The new grocery and meat market of the Hinky Dinky Co., which is located in the building formerly occupied by the H. M. Sorenson store just west of the Journal, was open yesterday for the transaction of business altho the formal opening will not be held until Saturday.

The store room presents a very fine appearance as it has been redecorated in white with the trimmings of orange and blue, the colors used by the Hinky Dinky company in all of their stores and which makes a very striking coloring for the room.

The store is immaculate in its general appearance and the shelving all along the walls are filled with neat and attractive showings of the canned goods with the tables for other articles and bins for the vegetables.

The store is operated on the self serve plan and every accommodation is arranged for the customers in their shopping by the company.

The new store is announcing their opening and prices in the large ad that is appearing elsewhere in this issue.

County Attorney W. G. Kleeck was at Omaha today where he spent a few hours attending to some matters of business.

BRING BACK WANTED MAN

From Wednesday's Daily—
Deputy Sheriff Rex Young was at Council Bluffs yesterday where he secured Fay Rhoten, a young man wanted here for the theft on October 21st of batteries belonging to B. H. Merritt & Son, from the sand and gravel pits north of this city. The man was apprehended at Council Bluffs on Monday by the police of that city with a companion who was charged with having stolen auto accessories.

Rhoten has confessed to taking the batteries from the sand pits here and the articles being of the value of $120 will make the offense a very serious one to the young man.

NEW STUDENTS

Three new students have enrolled in Plattsmouth high school during the past few weeks and another old student has returned after a long absence.

Evangeline Craig returns to the Senior class from Polytechnic high school at Los Angeles and will graduate with the class of 1930. Evangeline did her first two years work in Plattsmouth high school.

Two additions have been made to the Freshman class boosting the total up to sixty-eight. Marsella Ramel comes from Stella, Nebraska, and Mary Chancellor from Kinett, Missouri.

Plattsmouth high school warmly welcomes these new people and trusts that they will like the school as well as the old students.

Parmele Dovey was welcomed back to the student body last week after an absence of some eight weeks due to the accident which befell him.
