

Murray

John Frans has been assisting in the building of a new crib on the Fred Ramge place where Earnest Schumaker is farming.

George Nickles was called to Weeping Water on last Tuesday, driving over to look after some business matters for a short time.

Lois McManus who has been spending the last week at the home of her parents at Falls City will return home on the last of this week.

Mrs. Herman Meisinger has been nearly lamed up with a very severe cold but is keeping going with the hope of wearing the malady out.

Dr. G. L. Taylor was a visitor in Union on last Saturday afternoon, driving over to the bustling neighboring city on an errand of mercy.

Ephrimum Oak and wife of Diller, were visiting in Murray and Plattsmouth for the past week as well as looking after some business matters at the same time.

Fred Rea of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power company, was a visitor in Murray on last Saturday and was looking after some business matters for the company.

J. A. Scott was building and installing an elevator for a feed grinding machine for Harry G. Todd, and which greatly facilitated with work of preparing feed for the stock.

There was joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neil last Saturday night when a young lady came to make her home with them, the young lady and mother getting along nicely.

W. G. Boedeker was over to Weeping Water on last Monday evening in attendance at a meeting of the bankers of Cass county who had gathered to establish a clearing house for Cass county.

Wm. Wehrlein who has been having a large number of cattle on pasture west of Murray removed them to the farm east of town Monday where he will put them in the feed lot for feeding.

Mrs. Betty Barrows will depart the latter portion of this week for Sturgis, South Dakota, where she will visit for the most part of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Cory and family.

Harry G. Todd, the cattle feeder, and by the way, he is a good one at that, received a shipment of some five car loads of cattle from the yards at South Omaha late last week which he is putting in the feedlots.

L. J. Hallas and the family were spending last Sunday at the home of his parents, they driving over to the county seat, as Mr. Hallas was not feeling the best and they went over to see him and enjoy a visit.

Charles Howard was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water for the interim between last Saturday and Monday and was also assisting in furnishing music for the dance which was held there on last Saturday night.

Remember the Presbyterian bazaar which is to be held at the Presbyterian church parlors this coming Saturday, and the serving of the supper will commence at 5:30. They will have noodles and all sorts of good things to eat.

S. V. Smith was called to Plattsmouth for the day on Saturday to look after some business matters and traveled the old highway which he found fine, especially where the pavement was and not so bad the remainder of the way.

Fearing that the weather had gotten cold enough to justify the dressing of a beef for the winter use Roy Howard with the assistance of his son, Charles, and Herman Meisinger, dressed one on Monday afternoon, and found the weather ideal.

W. G. Boedeker was having a very substantial hog shed built on the farm where Mr. Wm. Wehrlein resides and where Boedeker and Wehrlein have the feeding lots. The coming of the storm interfered with the building and the work had to stop until better weather.

Reports from Savannah, Missouri, is to the effect that Mrs. M. G. Churchill is making some very substantial improvements and it is hoped she will soon be able to return home. Mr. Churchill is employed there as a painter and is vanishing the interior of a hotel which is being built there.

J. M. Wiles and wife were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday afternoon where they were spending the afternoon visiting and looking after some business matters. During the morning Mr. Wiles was out near the Platte river where he has been having some nearly fifty head of cattle on pasture and which he brought home and will again put on pasture here. He also has some ninety on feed and ready to go any time, which he is expecting to ship some time soon.

J. R. Mayfield of near Weeping Water was in Murray on last Saturday calling on Dr. G. H. Gilmore regarding the health of his father, G. C. Mayfield who has been ill for a number of weeks at his home in Louisville. Mr. J. R. Mayfield has two brothers picking corn for him from Missouri, and he says they sure can pick corn. Herman Pamperine one of them picked last Monday, 160 bushels and Tuesday the same, while on Wednesday he picked 165. This is doing fine, John Pamperine making an average of 137 for the week.

Making Roll Call Success.
The time limit of from Armistice day to Thanksgiving day, for the effecting of the roll call of the Red Cross by the Murray branch, was not heeded, for they did not stop work when Thanksgiving day came but kept on hustling and had on Tuesday evening of this week some sixty enrolled and were still going forward with the work. This is very commendable and we are certain they will enroll a number more. This is a great organization and the people of Murray realize that they are helping in many a good deed when they hustle for the roll call. See full report the coming week.

Return Home Saturday.
Mesdames J. F. Brendel, T. J. Brendel and W. L. Seybolt and Master Richard Brendel who were visiting last week at Sargen and Rising City, returned home on last Saturday and found the roads excellent and while the wind blew, they got along very nicely and had a good time.

Wm. Sporer Entertains.
On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sporer entertained at their home for the day and dinner and had for their guests for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brandt and family of Nebraska, Martin Sporer and wife and their little daughter, Mary Catherine, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sporer, this making a merry gathering, and a happy time was had.

Has Successful Day.
The ladies of the Christian church of Murray enjoyed a very nice patronage at the dinner and bazaar which they gave on last Thursday Thanksgiving day, there being good crowds from town, but on account of the very bad weather of that day there was not so many from out of town. The receipts were some $58.50. The minister, the Rev. Robert E. Hanson was present and conducted a service which took the place of the services which was to have been held on Sunday.

Enjoy Fine Gathering Friday.
On last Friday night at the Presbyterian church the young people of Murray congregated and enjoyed a very fine evening with their games and the eats which Mesdames C. J. Stuart, John Frans, A. G. Long, Nicholas Frederick and Wm. Smith prepared. The gathering was under the direction of Ralph and Bronson Timms, Katherine Long, Richard Frederick, Curtis Farris and Bessie Royer. Those present to enjoy the occasion were: Margaret Moore, Gwendolin and Dale Hanson, Leonard and Marie Lutz, Lorene Hackett, Bertha Timms, Florence Bartlett, Renee De Lee, Deuter, Beatrice Rawls, Clara and Neil Mrasek, Willard and Wallace Nelson, Edward Mackey, Leora, Curtis and Johnnie Farris, Bessie Royer, John Gilmore, Albert and Bill Griffin.

SICKNESS IN EDITOR'S FAMILY
From Wednesday's Daily—
Sickness seems to be prevailing in the family of Editor Glen Rutledge of the Nebraska Enterprise, who was able to be in the city yesterday for a few hours, the first time in a number of weeks. Mr. Rutledge has been suffering from a very severe attack of the flu that has kept him in bed the greater part of the time for the past few weeks, he being able to drag out a few days each week to assist in the printing of his paper and as soon as he was able to get out to any extent Mrs. Rutledge, who looks after the collecting for the paper in this section, was taken down and is now confined to her home with the flu, so it has been a very trying time for the Nebraska newspaper folks all the way through.

Death of Veteran Quarryman of Weeping Water
Frank Anderson, Long Connected With the Stone Quarry Foremanship, Dies at Omaha

On Monday evening at the home of his daughter at Omaha, where Frank Anderson and wife have been making their home for the past two years, occurred the death of Mr. Anderson after a long illness, occasioned by a cancer.

Mr. Anderson was born in Sweden on June 12, 1859, and came to America when he was twenty years of age. When Nebraska was first laid out, he came there and worked in the stone quarries for a time and was made foreman, and there he was united in marriage with Miss Stella Elizabeth Glasgow, they remaining for a time as residents of Nebraska and later coming to Weeping Water where Mr. Anderson held a position as manager of the stone quarry for some twenty years, working for the purchase and shipping of stock but his health becoming poor, he went some two years ago to live with a daughter, Mrs. Cobb of Omaha. Other daughters being Mrs. Franklin Richard of Chicago and Mrs. A. Meyer of Nebraska City. The remains were brought to Weeping Water and the funeral held from the Hobson Funeral home, the services being conducted by the Rev. Ralph Piekham and the interment being at the Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Modern Woodmen and carried a policy of two thousand dollars.

W. C. T. U. MEETS
The members of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed their Crusader meeting on Monday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. Glen Vallery north of this city and who was assisted by Mrs. John Elliott as associate hostess.

The meeting was largely a review of the work of the pioneers of the Union who had in the early days led the fight against liquor and in which struggle many had given their lives. The meeting was opened with the song "The Crusader" and the "Crusader Hymn" that fittingly opened the services and aroused the deepest interest as the meeting progressed and the topic of the meeting was given a splendid expression by the various members.

Mrs. F. R. Malcolm gave a very interesting paper of "The First Crusaders" and Mrs. John F. Gorder also a very able talk on the work of the crusaders.

Adding to the pleasures of the afternoon Mrs. R. B. Hayes was heard in two numbers "The Crusader Hymn" and "Glory Song of Twenty Years After" with Mrs. Gorder at the piano.

Mrs. Mattie G. Wiles was heard in a very interesting paper, "The Crusaders of 1920."

Miss Edith Farley added to the musical program with a very delightful piano selection that was much appreciated by all of the party.

The meeting closed with the singing of "Win Them One by One" and the W. C. T. U. benediction and the ladies then enjoyed the fine luncheon that had been prepared for the occasion by the hostesses.

SELECT SCHOOL MEMBERS
From Wednesday's Daily—
Yesterday the Plattsmouth Rotary club at their weekly luncheon had present the two young men of the high school who will during the month of December be honorary members of Rotary and meet each week with the club members in their luncheons.

The two young men selected this month are Robert Livingston, senior, and James Begley, Jr., junior, and are two of the outstanding young men of the school.

The meeting Tuesday was largely devoted to a round table discussion of the business relations and was in charge of E. A. Wuri, chairman of this section of the club work and a very interesting time was enjoyed by the club members.

A fine line of the daintily prepared Jumbo peanuts and other kinds of the hulled and prepared nut meats can be found at the Bates Book & Gift Shop.

WEEPING WATER
Attorney J. A. Capwell was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday afternoon looking after some legal business.
Mrs. Floyd Davis entertained at her beautiful home in Weeping Water the Knickerbocker club, and gave each member a very pleasant afternoon.
Miss Jessie Baldwin was a visitor at Mrs. Murray on last Tuesday and when she was attending a project meeting at the home of Mrs. Clara Farris.
Thead Davis was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Tuesday afternoon of last week, where he was called to look after some business matters, and drove over in his car.
Granville Heebner from near Nebraska was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week and was looking after some business matters at the Cole Motor company.
J. M. Ranney and wife were delighted with the visit which M. R. Rains and wife of Sibley, Iowa, who are cousins of Mrs. Ranney made them extending over the week end.
Miss LaVerna Binger who is taking a course in beauty culture at Lincoln was a visitor at home for over Thanksgiving day and the remainder of the week, returning to her studies on last Sunday.
Floyd Ranney and wife and Mrs. Ranney's mother, Mrs. Mark Wiles, were over to Omaha for the day on last Saturday where they were visiting with friends as well as doing some shopping.
Earl Cappen, the operator at the Liberty theatre, while cranking his car, had the misfortune to have the animal kick, with the result that an arm was badly injured and he has been unable to work since.
A. J. Patterson has been picking corn for the past two weeks, when the weather would permit, and for the past few days has been assisting in getting the crop of his brother, David Patterson, out of the fields and into the cribs.
George Towle who has been quite ill some time is much the better at this time and is able to be around and is getting to eat something, which he was not able to do for some time. It is hoped he will soon be in his usual health.
T. J. Jamison who is doing some work at the home of Jack Philpot, where he is constructing a greenhouse on his dwelling, was a visitor over Sunday at his home in Lincoln, returning to Weeping Water and to his work on Tuesday morning.

Word from Long Beach, where Walter and Hilmar Christensen are, tells of them having purchased a filling station there and that they are now located and are doing an excellent business in their line. Their many friends here will be well pleased at the good news.

Ralph Lane and Wm. Van Avery were over to Council Bluffs for a truck load of oil for the Handy service station, and as the cars crowded them very closely in the jam, some one hit the truck driven by Will, with the result that a portion of the running board and fender were ripped off.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sluder of Plattsmouth entertained at their home on last Thursday, Thanksgiving day and had as their guests L. R. Lane and family, Lloyd and Ralph Lane, they all being brothers of Mrs. Sluder, and also a sister. All enjoyed the gathering very much and had a splendid dinner.

During this month, which is not very old, Homer Sylvester, the salesman at the Cole Motor company, disposed of three of the famous Model A cars, they going to George Lohnes a two door sedan, while Ed Murphy secured a town sedan, one of the largest of the make of the company. Wm. McBride also getting a coach.

Last week the Cole Motor company disposed of five new cars they going to Jeff Salsberg of near Cedar Creek, who got a town sedan, John Nutzman of Avoca getting a coach, Myrtle Wood, Washburn, who carries mail on the rural route, getting a coach, Miss Shackley of Avoca getting a coach, and John Biers of near Nebraska getting a tudor.

Professor J. A. Claybaugh of Lincoln, being one of the men on the extension service of the state university, has been with County Agent D. D. Wainscott, who are canvassing the county in the interest of the poultry growers of the county and are making an effort to have the growers acquire better marked flocks of what ever breeds they grow.

Chamber of Commerce.
The Chamber of Commerce met last Tuesday evening at the Johnson cafe where they ate and as well talked about the best things to do for the benefit of Weeping Water, and when the people get together and all are interested in the betterment of the community, they are going to accomplish, for "In the multitude of counselors is safety."

Entertained Their Friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Knud Jensen entertained at their home in Weeping Water on Tuesday evening, and had a large number of their friends as guests of the evening, being spent in the fascinating game of progressive pinocle. They also added to this a very delightful luncheon which they served at a very appropriate hour. The guests were all loud in their praise of Mr. and Mrs. Jensen as entertainers.

Frank E. Woods Poorly.
Frank E. Woods who has been having a tussle with a case of flu came out of the conflict with the malady not feeling the best, and while he is now so he can be out again, is not feeling the very best. His many friends

Bankers Meet in Weeping Water.
The bankers of Cass county met last Monday evening at Weeping Water to get better acquainted, and especially with certain features of their business which has been a puzzle for some time. The matter of effecting a clearing house for the county, and of getting nearer together in order that any one might not borrow money of a second bank, without the other banks being in favor. They also had some eats, for sure bankers eat as well as ordinary people. There were representatives from most of the banks in the county present.

P. S. Balcom Answers Call.
P. S. Balcom, who came to Weeping Water about a year ago to operate the Laurel hotel, and who has been in very poor health for some time past, died on last Tuesday morning at the Bailey Sanitarium at Lincoln, following a stay in that institution for the past four weeks, he having a cancer of the liver.

Mr. Balcom was born January 1st, 1870 at Alliance, Wisconsin, where he lived until he was grown, and was united with Miss Anna E. Salmon July 17th, 1892 at Alma. They resided in Harlan county until about ten years ago when they went to reside at Moran, Kansas, and where they lost a daughter, an infant, who was buried at Belleville.

The family came to Weeping Water to reside about a year ago and have conducted the Laurel hotel since coming here. The wife and several children remain to mourn the loss of the husband and father, the children being, Mrs. Curtis of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, James P. Balcom of Sand Springs, Okla., Glen Balcom of Tola, Kansas, Mearle Balcom of Ft. Morgan, Colorado, George Balcom of Sand Springs, Oklahoma, Mrs. Helen Kiser and Miss Lella Balcom and Charles Balcom of Weeping Water.

Mr. Balcom early united with the Christian church and was a faithful communicant during his life. The funeral was held from the Hobson funeral home and was conducted by the Rev. George E. Morey, pastor of the Methodist church, today, Thursday, and the body taken to Belleville, Kansas, where the interment was made. Mr. Balcom was an excellent man and an honorable citizen, and one of the best of Christians. The family loses a loving and indulgent father and husband and Weeping Water an excellent citizen.

Clinton Woolcott, Bert Jamison, and Will L. Hobson were over to Lincoln on last Friday where they were attending and greatly enjoying the meeting of the Shriners who had a convocate at the Capitol city of that date. They report a very fine time.

HAS NICE POSITION
Miss Alice Bullin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bullin of this city, has a very nice position in her chosen vocation as stenographer, she being engaged in this capacity in the office of Miss Theresa Hemple, grand recorder of the Degree of Honor of Nebraska. Miss Bullin is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school, being a member of the class of 1928, and with her pleasant personality makes a very efficient worker in the office of the great fraternal order at Lincoln.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Masonic quartet of this city left for Omaha this afternoon where they are to have a prominent place on the banquet program of the grand chapter of the Royal Arch Masons

Read Matthew 25 Chapter and Luke 10th chapter.
Who is Your Neighbor?
Webster says, living near or adjacent, and again he says, living in a friendly manner. Neighbors are those who we expect to be our friends, and are our friends, and when we expect people to be our neighbors we must be neighborly, and when we want friends we must needs be friendly. Christ illustrated this very forcibly, when he says to the lawyer what is written in the law. How readest thou? The lawyer answered, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thy self." Jesus said to him, "Thou hast answered right; this do, and thou shalt live." But willing to justify himself, the lawyer said unto Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Now let us get at the very meat of the question, as it comes from the lips of the Master, when he drew the parable, for in this form he did the most of his teaching. The Master said in substance, A certain man went from Jerusalem down to Jericho. Jerusalem was situated on the top of the ridge between the Mediterranean sea, and the valley of the Dead sea or the valley of the Jordan, which is in some places, thirteen hundred and more feet below the level of the sea. Jerusalem and Jordan are about twenty-one miles apart. This was always a dangerous place, infested by robbers and liars. This man as he traveled along was attacked as many are now and robbed, beaten, for perhaps he resisted, wounded and left for dead after being robbed. After some time he partially aroused himself and hearing one passing, called, thinking some one would help him.
The Priest Passed Him Up.
The one coming was a priest, who ministered in the temple, and one whose very occupation required that he should have pity, and should succor this man, or may other in like circumstances. He heard the groan of the wounded man, and passed by on the other side. Then came along a Levite, whose business was to minister in the temple, and who swung the golden Censer at the temple services, he likewise passed by on the other side of the road. Then came another person, even an enemy to the wounded man. He stopped, looked on the man, found that he was an Israelite, and an enemy, but he said, "This man needs my help. He will perish here alone for it was night and cold, he took off his cloak and wrapped it around the wounded man, for the robbers had stolen what raiment he had.
The man was a Samaritan, and by this token, he was not necessarily a good man, but he was however, and he was riding a dispirited donkey.

Bible School Lesson Study!
Sunday, December 8th C-11 By M. S. BRIGGS

He tenderly lifted the suffering man and placing him on his beast, led the beast until he came to an inn. He roused the innkeeper and sought shelter for the wounded man, and staying with him for the night, caring for him, won him back to life. When he departed in the morning, he paid the bill, and also said to the man who kept the inn, care for this man and whatever more it costs, I will pay you when I come this way again.

Now Jesus says to the lawyer, who was neighbor to him who fell among thieves. The lawyer answered, "He that showed mercy on him." The Master said, "Go, and do thou likewise."

He That Believeth Shall Live.
Martha said, I believe that my brother shall rise at the resurrection at the last day, and Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life and he that believeth on me shall live." He also said unto the lawyer, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and thy neighbor as thy self." Now let us get at the very meat of the question, as it comes from the lips of the Master, when he drew the parable, for in this form he did the most of his teaching. We may be puritinal, we may be straight laced, we may be observers of the sabbath, we may be goodly good that we could not speak or mingle with the common herd, but it will take action for us to demonstrate our faith. It takes action to be a real brother or neighbor in time of need.

The Master said, when he had gathered all nations before him, and had separated them, those who were real workers in the Kingdom of God on the left, and the pretenders on the right, and said unto the working Christians and there are no others, "Come ye blessed of my Father for when I was a hungry and thirsty, and naked, and in prison and sick, you gave me drink, you ministered unto me, for when ye did it unto the least of these, my brethren, you have done it unto me. On the other hand he said depart from me to the place prepared for the devil and his Angels, for when I, or thy brother and neighbor, was hungry and naked and needed your help you did not give it." We must bring this into our daily lives, or we are none of His.
