Child Victim of Scalding is Laid to Rest

Funeral of Little Howard Trunkenboltz Is Held at Eagle This Afternoon

The funeral of little Howard Trunkenboltz, 2, was held this afternoon at Eagle, the home of the Trunkenboltz family and a large number attended the services for the little lad, victim of a tragedy that occurred on Wednesday at the home of his parents at Council Bluffs.

The accident that caused the little ones death occurred as his mother, Mrs. Harry Trunkenboltz, 1901 South 9th street, was telephoning her mother, Mrs. J. A. Graham, to inquire as to a minor accident that had befallen her father. As the mother was telephoning the little babe had crawled up onto the oven door of the kitchen stove and reaching for something to pull himself up farther, grabbed hold of the tea kettle and which was upset, the scalding water spraying over the child and inflicting terrible burns about the neck, chest and arms.

The first intimation of the accident came in the screams of the child that the mother heard as she was conversing over the telephone. The injured babe was hurried to the Mercy hospital to receive treatment but the injuries were such that little aid could be rendered and the child passed away at midnight.

The death came as a terrible blow to the family where a big Christmas party was being planned for the children and instead of the happy celebration planned the home is desolate and saddened.

The little one is survived by the parents, two brothers, Floyd 9, and Donald 5, an infant sister, Velma, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trunkenboltz of Eagle and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Graham of Council Bluffs.

MANY ENJOY SHOW

From Saturday's Daily— The closing night of "Sixty Miles An Hour" at the Parmele theatre last evening was witnessed by a fine audience that was well pleased with the fine presentation that the young people of the cast gave.

The features of the Kiddies Cabaret section of the show was again a great success and in this connection it may be mentioned that little Miss Edna Mae Peterson as "Joan Crawford" was very clever in her tap dancing number.

The ladies of the Woman's club have worked hard to make the play a success and while they realized a small amount, the heavy expense of the production will not give them as large a return as was hoped for.
